17.03 Vacancies, how caused. Any public office, including offices of cities, villages and school districts, however organized, shall become vacant upon the happening of either of the following events:

(1) The death of the incumbent.

(2) His resignation.

(3) His removal.

(4) His ceasing to be an inhabitant of this state; or if the office is local, his ceasing to be an inhabitant of the district, county, city, village, town, ward or school district for which he was elected or within which the duties of his office are required to be discharged; and in the case of a school district officer, and in addition to the foregoing, his being and remaining absent from the district for a period exceeding sixty days. But no office shall become vacant because the territory in which any officer resides is annexed to or consolidated with another governmental unit, and in such event such officer shall hold office until the expiration of his term; provided that this exception shall not apply to village or city officers when a part or the whole of such city or village is annexed to or consolidated with another governmental unit, or to district school officers when the whole of such district is annexed to or consolidated with another governmental unit.

(5) His conviction by a state or United States court of and sentence for treason, felony or other crime of whatsoever nature punishable by imprisonment in any jail or prison for one year or more, or his conviction by any such court of and sentence for any offense involving a violation of his official oath, in either case whether or not sentenced to imprisonment. A vacancy so created shall in no case be affected by a stay of execution of judgment. Reversal of the judgment against such officer shall forthwith restore him to office, if the term for which he was elected or appointed has not expired, but, in any event, shall entitle him to the emoluments of the office for all the time he would have served therein had he not been so convicted and sentenced; but pardon shall not restore him to office or entitle him to any of the emoluments thereof.

(8) The neglect or refusal of any officer in office to execute and file an additional bond, when lawfully required, in the manner and within the time so required or prescribed by law.

(9) The death or declination in writing of any person elected or appointed to fill a vacancy or for a full term before he qualifies, or his death or such declination before the time when, by law, he should enter upon the duties of his office to which he was elected or appointed.

(11) Upon the failure of the first annual school meeting of a school district to elect school board members for the district.

The election of a candidate to the office of county superintendent of schools was adjudged void because he did not possess the necessary qualifications for the office. Since it did not appear that the electors had knowledge of his ineligibility, the votes cast for him must be counted and his disqualification did not result in electing the candidate who received the next-highest number of votes, but the office became vacant under

(6) and must be filled by appointment by the state superintendent of public instruction under 17.21. State ex rel. Schmidt v. White, 257 W 560, 44 NW (2d) 523.

Where after supreme court reversal but prior to entry of circuit court judgment pursuant thereto that person elected county superintendent is ineligible, said person resigns pursuant to 17.01 (7), there is a vacancy under either 17.03 (2) or (6). 39 Atty. Gen. 256.

Member of village board convicted of embezzlement of funds of a business of which he was employe and manager, in violation of 343.20, is thereby deprived of his right to vote until restored to civil rights, pursuant to art. III, sec. 2, Wis. Const. His office is thereby vacated and he is thereafter ineligible for public office in this state by virtue of 17.03 (5) and art. XIII, sec. 3, Wis. Const. 41 Atty. Gen. 181.

17.035 Vacancies; military leaves. (1) If an elected or appointed official or employe of any city or village or school district however organized shall enter the armed forces of the United States and shall remove himself temporarily from the municipality or district for which he is an officer or employe such temporary removal shall constitute a temporary vacancy in such office or position.

(3) Such temporary vacancies shall be filled as other vacancies are filled, except that no election need be held to fill any part of such temporary vacancy, but the term of the person appointed temporarily shall not extend beyond the expiration of the term of the officer or employe who entered federal service, and such temporary term shall be terminated sooner in case and at such time as the original officer or employe shall return to such district or municipality during his original term of office after completing his federal service and upon his filing within 40 days of such termination with the clerk of the city, village, or school district, his statement under oath of such termination, and that he elects to resume his office or position. On filing such statement the term of the temporary officer or employe shall cease, and the returning officer or employe shall be entitled to resume the duties of his office.

(4) In cities, villages or school districts in which a vacancy as described in this section does exist and no appointment has been made to fill such vacancy before June 4, 1943, the vacancy therein shall be considered as commencing on said date.

History: 1951 c. 261 s. 10; 1951 c. 719.

The suspension shall continue until the final determination of the action or proceedings or of the investigation of such charges or information, or pending any proceedings to remove such officer from office as provided by law for any such neglect of duty, and a competent person shall be appointed, in the manner and by the appointing power prescribed for filling vacancies in such office, to discharge the duties of such officer during his suspension. If it is determined in the action or proceedings or is found upon investigation that the officer has not in any particular wilfully neglected his duty in connection with such moneys, and such fact is certified to the secretary of state by the judge, governor or other officer who conducted such action, proceedings or investigation, the suspended officer, unless he has been removed from office for any cause provided by law, shall thereby be restored to office, if the term for which he was elected or appointed has not expired, and shall thereby become entitled to the emoluments of the office for all of the time he would have served therein had he not been suspended as herein provided.
