36.01 Location and style of. There is established in this state at the city of Madison an institution of learning by the name and style of "The University of Wisconsin."

36.02 Regents; appointment; term. (1) The government of the university shall be vested in a board of regents consisting of nine members, not more than two of whom shall be residents of any one county, and the state superintendent of public instruction as ex officio member. Within thirty days after the effective date of this section, the governor shall appoint nine members, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Of the members first appointed one shall serve for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, one for a term of five years, one for a term of six years, one for a term of seven years, one for a term of eight years, and one for a term of nine years and until their successors have been appointed and qualified. The terms of all members appointed thereafter shall be for nine years beginning on May first of the year in which the member is appointed and until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

(2) All vacancies on the board shall be filled as provided in s. 17.20 (2).

36.03 Powers of board; officers. The board of regents and their successors in office shall constitute a body corporate by the name of "The Regents of the University of Wisconsin," and shall possess all the powers necessary or convenient to accomplish the objects and perform the duties prescribed by law, and shall have the custody of the books, records, buildings, and all other property of said university. The board shall elect a president and a secretary, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the board. The secretary shall keep a faithful record of all the transactions of the board and of the executive committee thereof. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to have the charge of all securities for loans and all moneys belonging to the university or in any wise appropriated by law to its endowment or support; to collect the interest on all securities held by him; to pay out moneys only upon the warrant of the director of budget and accounts as provided by law; to keep the same and the accounts thereof separate and distinct from other public funds, and particularly distinguish the accounts of every fund, according to the nature thereof, coming to his charge, whether created by law or by private bounty; and to discharge these and other appropriate functions relating thereto subject to such regulations as the board may adopt not inconsistent with his official duties; and he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond as state treasurer for the faithful discharge of such duties.

The fact that the Regents of the University of Wisconsin, acting within their broad general powers, have found it necessary or convenient to handle the acquisition of property for university purposes by a corporate agency and have created the agency for that purpose, and that the agency is named grantee of the property thus acquired, does not prevent the property so held from being the property of the state so as to be exempt from taxation under 70.11 (1). State ex rel. Wisconsin Univ. Bldg. Corp. v. Bareis, 257 W 497, 44 NW (2d) 259.

36.04 Meetings; quorum. The time for the election of the president and secretary of said board and the duration of their respective terms of office, and the times for holding the regular annual meeting and such other meetings as may be required, and the manner of notifying the same, shall be determined by the by-laws of the board. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time.

36.05 University regents' meetings public. The meetings of the board of regents of the university shall be open to the public and the press and all records of such meetings and of all proceedings of such board shall be open to inspection by the public and the press at any reasonable hours thereafter; provided, that said board may hold executive sessions, the findings of said executive sessions to be made a part of the records of the proceedings of said board.

36.06 Duties of regents; additional powers. (1) The board of regents shall enact laws for the government of the university in all its branches; elect a president and the requisite number of professors, instructors, officers and employes, and fix the salaries and the term of office of each, and determine the moral and educational qualifications of applicants for admission to the various courses of instruction; but no instruction, either sectarian in religion or partisan in politics, shall ever be allowed in any department of the university; and no sectarian or partisan tests shall ever be allowed or exercised in the appointment of regents or in the election of professors, teachers or other officers of the university, or in the admission of students thereto or for any purpose whatever.

(2) The board shall have power to remove the president or any professor, instructor or officer of the university when, in the judgment of the board, the interests of the university require it.

(3) The board may prescribe rules and regulations for the management of the libraries, cabinet, museum, laboratories and all other property of the university and of its several departments, and for the care and preservation thereof, with penalties and forfeitures by way of damages for their violation, which may be sued for and collected in the name of the board before any court having jurisdiction of such action.

(4) In the use of men's and women's dormitories at the university, preference as to rooming and boarding facilities shall be given to students who are legal residents of this state; excepting that the board of regents may set aside a small quota of accommodations, not to exceed 6 per cent, for assignment to students who are residents of other states or are from countries and territories outside the continental limits of the United States. In case additional facilities remain after such preference, the above mentioned rooming and boarding facilities may be extended to additional nonresident students. The board shall make suitable rules and regulations for carrying such dormitory preferences into effect. All salaries and compensations provided for in this section shall be charged against the proper appropriation for the board of regents of the university.

(5) Said board may acquire by condemnation proceedings such parcels of land as it deems necessary for the use of any institution under its control whenever the board is unable to agree with the owner upon the compensation therefor, or whenever the absence or legal incapacity of such owner, or other cause, prevents or unreasonably delays such agreement.

(6) (a) Unless the context requires otherwise, the following terms as used in this subsection shall have the following meaning:

(b) 1, 2 and 3 means all dormitories, commons, field houses, stadia, indoor practice buildings, memorial unions, and such other buildings, structures, facilities and permanent improvements as in the judgment of the regents are needed or useful for university purposes, and all equipment therefor and all improvements and additions thereto, which were erected, constructed or installed prior to the making of such conveyance, lease or sublease.

2. The term "new building" in relation to any conveyance, lease or sublease made under par. (b) 1, 2 and 3 means all dormitories, commons, field houses, stadia, indoor practice buildings, memorial unions, and such other buildings, structures, facilities and permanent improvements as in the judgment of the regents are needed or useful for university purposes, and all equipment therefor or for existing buildings, and all improvements and additions thereto or to existing buildings, which are erected, constructed or installed after the making of such conveyance, lease or sublease.

Without limitation by reason of any other provisions of the statutes the power to sell and to convey title in fee simple to a nonprofit-sharing corporation any land and any existing buildings thereon owned by the board of regents for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as in the judgment of the board of regents are in the public interest.

(c) The state shall be liable for accrued rentals and for any other default under any lease or sublease made under par. (b) 3 and may be sued therefor on contract as in other contract actions pursuant to ch. 285, except that it shall not be necessary for the lessor under any such lease or sublease or any assignee of such lessor or any person or other legal entity proceeding on behalf of such lessor to file any claim with the legislature prior to the commencement of any such action.

(d) Nothing in this subsection empowers the board of regents to incur any state debt.

(e) All laws, conflicting with any provision of this subsection are, insofar as they conflict with this section and no further, superseded by the provisions of this subsection.

(7) The regents are authorized to invest any of the surplus moneys designated in s. 20.830 (50) in such securities as are legal for trust fund investments; or to invest such funds, or any part thereof, in the senior or junior bonds or obligations which may be issued by such nonprofit-sharing corporation or corporations as may be contracted with by the regents for the construction or equipment of dormitories, commons or field house as provided in sub. (6) of this section, which bonds or obligations shall be secured by a mortgage or pledge of the buildings or improvements erected or to be erected by such corporation or corporations and by a mortgage or pledge of its leasehold interest. Any interest on any of such bonds or securities shall when received be added to the revolving funds and may be used for the purposes set forth in this subsection.

(8) In so far as they can be made applicable to the lands owned by or under the control of the regents all special powers conferred on the conservation commission by s. 27.01 (2), (3), (4), (5) and (8) are conferred upon the regents, and all penalties set forth or referred to in said subsections apply with equal force and effect to this subsection.

(9) (a) The regents are authorized to participate in the formation and maintenance of a nonprofit-sharing corporation sponsored by participating colleges, universities and libraries, for the purpose of providing and operating a central library depository at a location in a midwestern state for the storage of little used books and other library and research materials of participating institutions, and which corporation may also perform other functions for the benefit of participating institutions such as, but not by way of limitation by reason of enumeration, the correlating of library catalogs of the participating institutions, the co-ordinating and planning of the purchasing by each institution of costly or infrequently used books and research materials in order to avoid unnecessary duplication, and facilitating the loaning of library books and other library and research materials between participating institutions. The regents shall possess all the powers necessary or convenient to accomplish the foregoing, including the authority to designate representatives or members of such corporation in accordance with its articles and bylaws.

(b) The regents are authorized to make use of and pay for the use of the facilities and services of such nonprofit-sharing corporation; provided that the regents shall retain title to all books and materials deposited with such corporation for storage or loaned to other participating institutions, and that the authority of the regents to expend funds for the purchase of land, the construction of buildings and additions to buildings, and the purchase of equipment for the purpose of providing such facilities, shall be limited to funds appropriated pursuant to s. 20.830 (47) and (48) (intro.). Except as hereinbefore provided, the appropriations to the regents under ch. 20 are to be available to the regents for the purposes of this section to the extent that such appropriations may be applicable and without reference to whether any particular appropriation is available for expenditure at the university at Madison or elsewhere.

History: 1951 c. 68; 1953 c. 402, 631; 1955 c. 144; 1957 c. 504, 593.

The board of regents has authority to condemn and acquire private property for a site for a building to be used for proper university purposes, under a plan whereby a private, nonprofit corporation organized for the purpose of aiding the university by solicitation of gifts, etc., will furnish the money and construct the building, but will have no interest in the property, and the board of regents will have exclusive control of the project. (Schumm v. Milwaukee County, 258 W 256, distinguished.) To authorize condemnation, it is not necessary that the board of regents show that it now has the money on hand to complete the project for which the land is being acquired. Wisconsin Chapter House Asso. v. Regents, 260 W 206, 50 NW (2d) 469. Financing arrangements under this section as amended by ch. 144, Laws 1955, do not violate the constitutional debt limitations or prohibitions. State ex rel. Thomson v. Giessel, 271 W 15, 72 NW (2d) 577.

36.062 Scientific investigation encouraged. The board of regents shall have power and authority to encourage scientific investigation and productive scholarship, and to create conditions tending to that end.

36.063 Experimental television transmission. The board of regents is authorized to grant the radio council the part-time use of equipment and space for the conduct of research and experimentation in educational television.

nally given. When such gifts, grants, bequests or devises include common stocks or other investments which are not authorized by s. 320.01, the regents are authorized to continue to hold such common stocks or other investments and to exchange, invest or reinvest the funds in such gift, grant, bequest or devise in similar types of investments without being subject to the limitations and restrictions provided by law in other cases. The limitation by s. 320.01 (17) on the proportion of trust funds that may be invested in investments authorized in s. 201.25 (1) (ff) and (fg) shall not apply to trust funds held and administered by the regents, and except as otherwise provided in this section, the regents may invest not to exceed 75 per cent of such trust funds in investments authorized by s. 201.25 (1) (ff) and (fg), regulating investments of domestic insurance companies, subject however to the provisions of s. 320.02.

(2) All such gifts, grants, devises or bequests may be made to the regents of the university or to the president or any officer thereof, or to any person or persons as trustees, or may be charged upon any executor, trustee, heir, devisee or legatee, or made in any other manner indicating an intention to create a trust, and may be made as well for the benefit of the university or any of its chairs, faculty, departments, colleges, schools, halls, observatories, or institutions or to provide any means of instruction, illustration or knowledge in connection therewith, or for the benefit of any class of students at the university or in any of its departments, whether by way of scholarship, fellowship, or otherwise; or whether for the benefit of students in any course, subcourse, special course, postgraduate course, summer school or teachers' course, oratorical or debating course, laboratory, shop, lectureship, drill, gymnasium, or any other like division or department of study, experiment, research, observation, travel or mental or physical improvement in any manner connected with the university, or to provide for the voluntary retirement of any of its faculty.

(3) It shall not be necessary in case of any such gift, grant, devise or bequest to exactly or particularly describe the members of the class, group or nationality of students intended to be the beneficiaries, but it shall be sufficient to describe the class or group; and in case of any such gift, grant, devise or bequest the regents shall divide and graduate the students at the university into such classes or divisions as may be necessary to select and determine those belonging to the class intended by such gift, grant, devise or bequest, and shall determine what particular persons are within or intended by the same. It shall be sufficient in any such gift, grant, devise or bequest to describe the beneficiaries as belonging to a certain course, subcourse, department or division of the university, or as those pursuing certain studies, speaking or writing a certain language or languages, belonging to any nationality or nationalities, or to one of the sexes or by any other description, and in such case the regents shall determine the persons so described as hereinbefore provided.

36.09 Reports and printing thereof. At the close of each biennial fiscal term the regents through their president shall make a report in detail to the governor and the legislature exhibiting the progress, condition and wants of each of the colleges embraced in the university, the course of study in each, the number of instructors and students, the amount of receipts and disbursements, together with the nature, cost and results of all important investigations and experiments and such other information as they may deem important, one copy of which shall be transmitted free by the secretary of state to all colleges endowed under the provisions of the act of congress entitled, "An act donating land to the several states and territories which provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts," approved July 2, 1862, and also one copy to the secre-

Every claim or account shall state the nature and particulars of the service rendered or material furnished, the name of each payee, the amount allowed to and due him, for what service or object, and to what appropriation and fund chargeable. Such claim or account shall be certified by the proper university officer to the director of budget and accounts except that the details of such account may be made summary to such extent as the director may prescribe by forms therefor; upon which the director shall issue his warrant for the proper amount to the person entitled thereto.
