

CHAPTER 8.

ELECTION OF JUSTICES, JUDGES AND SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS.

8.01	Definitions.	8.03	Notice of election.
8.02	Election of justices, judges and superintendents.	8.04	Judicial elections, 2d and 9th circuits.
8.025	Judicial election, Green County.	8.05	Conduct of judicial elections.

8.01 Definitions. In this chapter the word "justice" means a justice of the supreme court, "judge" means a judge of a circuit, county, superior, municipal, district, civil or small claims court, and "superintendent" means the state superintendent of public instruction and a county or district superintendent of schools.

History: 1951 c. 247 s. 2.

8.02 Election of justices, judges and superintendents. (1) Every election for justice, judge or superintendent shall be held on the first Tuesday of April. The regular election for justice, judge or superintendent shall be held on the first Tuesday in April next prior to the expiration of the term.

(2) If a vacancy occurs 90 days or more before the first Tuesday in April, in the case of a judge, the election to fill the vacancy shall be held on the first Tuesday of the succeeding April, and in case of a justice, at the first judicial election when no other justice is to be elected. In either case, if the vacancy occurs less than 90 days prior to the first Tuesday of April, the election to fill the vacancy shall not be held until the judicial election of the next year.

History: 1953 c. 540, 606; 1955 c. 299.

Where a circuit judge whose term expires on the first Monday of January 1954 dies less than 75 days prior to the first Tuesday in April 1952 and the governor appoints a judge under 17.19 (2), to occupy the office until his successor is elected and qualifies, there may not be an election under 8.02 (2), or otherwise to fill the vacancy at the time of the regular election for the full term in April 1953, and the appointee continues in office until succeeded on the first Monday of January 1954 by the person elected for the full term in April 1953. 41 Atty. Gen. 313.

8.025 Judicial election, Green County. (1) (a) The office of judge of the twenty-third judicial circuit (Green county) and of judge of the county court of Green county after January 1, 1962, shall be held by the same individual, and prior thereto may be held by the same individual. The first election for judge of the twenty-third circuit shall be held on the first Tuesday of April 1958, at an election to be noticed, held and conducted, and the votes cast thereat canvassed, in all respects according to law governing the election of circuit judge; his term of office shall begin on the first Monday in May 1958 and expire January 1, 1962. The circuit judge so elected shall receive a salary of $1,500 per year so long as another individual is serving as the previously elected county judge of Green county. After the first election the provisions of law relating to the election, terms, removal from office and the filling of vacancies of circuit judges shall apply.

(b) The designation upon the ballot and upon nomination papers after the first election shall be "For circuit and county judge of Green County".

(c) The designation upon the nomination papers and upon the first ballot for the 1958 election shall be "For circuit judge of Green County".

(2) Until the first Monday of May 1958, Green county shall, for jurisdictional purposes, continue a part of the twelfth judicial circuit, and until that time the judge of the twelfth judicial circuit shall continue to hold terms of court therein as prior to the effective date of this section.

(3) The twenty-third judicial circuit court and the county court of Green county shall be separate and distinct courts for all purposes, except as herein provided, as though each had its own separate judge.

History: 1957 c. 317.

8.03 Notice of election. The secretary of state shall give to county clerks at least 25 days' notice of any required primary and of the regular election of justice, judge, or superintendent, and the county clerk shall give not less than 20 days' notice of any such primary or election to be held within his county.

8.04 Judicial elections, 2d and 9th circuits. When 2 or more judges of the same court are to be elected on the same day the notice shall state the names of the judges whose successors are to be elected and the number of the branch presided over by each. One ballot box shall be used and the official ballot shall contain the names of all candidates for such successions, shall state the number of judges to be elected and the number of candidates for whom each elector may vote, and shall designate each candidacy as "For Circuit Judge to succeed . . . . ., Branch No. . . . ." Each elector may vote for one candidate for each branch or judge of the court required to be filled, and the person receiving the highest number of votes for judge of either of such branches shall be declared elected.

8.05 Conduct of judicial elections. Elections for justice, judge and superintendent shall be noticed, held, conducted and the results canvassed and returned in the same manner as general elections. The ballots shall be printed, furnished and distributed by the county clerks, at the expense of the county, as other ballots and so prepared as to indicate the candidates to be voted for and the respective office for which each is intended as a ballot, substantially in the form prescribed in section 6.23 (16). All votes given for any such officer shall be put in a ballot box, separate from that used for any other election on the same day. The polls of election for such officers shall open and close at the same time that the polls are opened and closed for the election of other officers who are voted for at the same time and place, or if no other officers are then being voted for they shall open and close at the same time at which they would be opened and closed, in the locality in which they are located, at any general election. Within a like time as prescribed for the county canvass after a general election, a board of county canvassers shall be convened, who shall canvass the statements received from the several polls in the county and make a statement thereof, and return the same as at a general election, and they shall determine who are elected to such offices within the county, except for circuit judge, and the county clerk shall give to each such successful candidate a certificate of election. The board of state canvassers shall be convened on or before the 15th day of May, to canvass the statements of votes received for justice, circuit judge or state superintendent in like manner, and shall have the powers and perform the duties in relation thereto, so far as applicable, as prescribed in respect to the canvass for state officers and all the provisions of law respecting the qualifications of voters, the conduct of elections and the canvass and return of votes at general elections, except as otherwise provided, shall be applicable to elections held under this chapter.
