Since the question of the constitutionality of this procedure is now pending before the Supreme Court, the Resolution is not printed here. If the Court approves it, it will be printed in the Addendum to these statutes.

4.03 Territory omitted from apportionment. In case any town, city, village or ward has not been included in any assembly district, such town, city, ward or village shall be a part of the assembly district in which the adjoining town, village or ward having the least population in the same county is situated. In case any new town, village or city is hereafter created it shall remain a part of the assembly district in which it is now situated, and if created in part from two or more assembly districts it shall be a part of the assembly district now having the smallest population.

4.04 Legislative districts. (1m) READJUSTMENT OF WARDS. Within 90 days after January 1, 1954, the common council of the city of Milwaukee shall recreate the said wards of the said city with the same numbers and same boundaries except exterior boundaries of exterior wards as affected by annexations to the said city, as provided in the ordinance adopted by the common council of said city November 24, 1950, which are the same wards with the same boundaries used by the legislature in the enactment of ch. 728, laws of 1951; and thereafter within 90 days after the result of each national census is known the common council of any city of the first class shall, by a three-fifths vote of all its members redistrict, readjust and change the boundaries of wards in each such city so that they shall be as nearly equal in population and compact in area as possible, and to that end such council may, by like vote, from time to time determine the number of wards, create new wards, consolidate old wards, revise existing ward boundaries and number and renumber such wards as may be established.

(2) EFFECT OF ANNEXATION TO CITIES. If any territory other than a village or city of more than five thousand population by the last census is hereafter annexed to any city, it shall become a part of the assembly or senatorial district of which the ward in which it is incorporated by annexation forms a part; provided, that if this provision shall for any reason be held unconstitutional such fact shall not invalidate any legislative apportionment act in which this subsection is included.
