(b) By physical annexation of several writings to one another, with the mutual consent of the parties; or

(c) By several writings which show expressly on their faces that they refer to the same transaction, and which the parties have mutually acknowledged by conduct or agreement as evidences of the transaction.

History: 1971 c. 211 s. 126; 1977 c. 177.

Under 235.01 (2), Stats. 1967, there can be no waiver of the necessity of a wife's joining in a deed of a homestead and no finding of agency of the husband will sustain the deed. Wangen v. Leum, 46 W (2d) 60, 174 NW (2d) 266.

A deed which does not express the consideration held incomplete where there was no evidence of an agreement as to what the consideration was. Johnson v. Mielke, 49 W (2d) 60, 181 NW (2d) 503.

In pleading a contract which is subject to the statute of frauds it is not necessary to allege facts to establish that the contract complies with the statute or is within its exceptions. Ritterbusch v. Ritterbusch, 50 W (2d) 633, 184 NW (2d) 865.

An option to purchase land must be in writing and cannot be modified orally, but a seller may orally agree to accept payment in full rather than in instalments. Kubnick v. Bohne, 56 W (2d) 527, 202 NW (2d) 400.

The 4 elements of the test of undue influence to set aside a will are also applicable in order to void an inter vivos transfer. Ward v. Ward, 62 W (2d) 543, 215 NW (2d) 3.

Standing alone, an added provision in a 30-day option agreement to purchase real estate did not comply with the statute of frauds. Edlebeck v. Barnes, 63 W (2d) 240, 216 NW (2d) 551.

An oral contract for the conveyance of an interest in land is void unless there is a memorandum that conforms to the statute of frauds. Trimble v. Wis. Builders, Inc. 72 W (2d) 435, 241 NW (2d) 409.

Where contract for sale of land with indefinite description is taken out of statute of frauds by part performance, extrinsic evidence admissible but for statute of frauds may be introduced to provide description. Clay v. Bradley, 74 W (2d) 153, 246 NW (2d) 142.

Question under (1) (b) whether property boundaries are identified to a reasonable certainty is for the jury to determine with the aid of all competent extrinsic evidence. Zapuchlak v. Hucal, 82 W (2d) 184, 262 NW (2d) 514.

Homestead defense under 706.02 (1) (f) is not defeated by 706.04, but tort claim may exist against signing spouse who misrepresents non-signing spouse's acquiescence. Gliniski v. Sheldon, 88 W (2d) 509, 276 NW (2d) 815 (1979).

Defense of statute of frauds is waived if not raised in trial court. Hine v. Vilter, 88 W (2d) 645, 277 NW (2d) 772 (1979).

Mortgage fraudulently executed by use of forged signature of one grantor was wholly void. State Bank of Drummond v. Christophersen, 93 W (2d) 148, 286 NW (2d) 547 (1980).

706.03 Agents, officers and guardians.

(1) A conveyance signed by one purporting to act as agent for another shall be ineffective as against the purported principal unless such agent was expressly authorized, and unless the authorizing principal is identified as such in the conveyance or in the form of signature or acknowledgment. The burden of proving the authority of any such agent shall be upon the person asserting the same.

(2) Unless a different authorization is recorded under sub. (3) or is contained in articles of incorporation adopted and filed pursuant to s. 180.70 (2), any officer of a private corporation, whose signature is attested by another officer, is authorized to sign conveyances in the corporate name. The absence of a corporate seal shall not invalidate any corporate conveyance. Public corporations shall authorize and execute conveyances as provided by law.

(3) Any private corporation may, by resolution of its governing board, duly adopted, certified and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which a conveyance executed by such corporation is to be recorded, authorize by name or title one or more persons, whether or not officers of such corporation, to execute conveyances, either generally or with specified limitation, in the name and on behalf of such corporation. After adoption and recording of such resolution and until recording of a resolution amending or revoking the same, conveyances may be executed on behalf of such corporation only in accordance with the terms thereof.

(4) A conveyance by a minor or incompetent is effective only if executed by an authorized guardian on behalf of such minor or incompetent. In the case of a limited incompetency, such restriction does not apply if an individual has been determined competent to make contracts under s. 880.33 (3).

History: 1971 c. 228; 1975 c. 393; 1977 c. 428.

706.04 Equitable relief. A transaction which does not satisfy one or more of the requirements of s. 706.02 may be enforceable in whole or in part under doctrines of equity, provided all of the elements of the transaction are clearly and satisfactorily proved and, in addition:

(1) The deficiency of the conveyance may be supplied by reformation in equity; or

(2) The party against whom enforcement is sought would be unjustly enriched if enforcement of the transaction were denied; or

(3) The party against whom enforcement is sought is equitably estopped from asserting the deficiency. A party may be so estopped whenever, pursuant to the transaction and in good faith reliance thereon, the party claiming estoppel has changed his position to his substantial detriment under circumstances such that the detriment so incurred may not be effectively recovered otherwise than by enforcement of the transaction, and either:

(a) The grantee has been admitted into substantial possession or use of the premises or has been permitted to retain such possession or use after termination of a prior right thereto; or

(b) The detriment so incurred was incurred with the prior knowing consent or approval of the party sought to be estopped.

See note to 178.04, citing In re Estate of Schaefer, 72 W (2d) 600, 241 NW (2d) 607.

In equity action seeking conveyance of farm in accord with oral agreement, where tenants gave up plans to build home on other property, planted crops on farm, and painted interior of farmhouse, trial court properly ordered conveyance under (3). Krauza v. Mauritz, 78 W (2d) 276, 254 NW (2d) 251.

Personal services to vendor in reliance upon oral agreement are not enough, standing alone, to constitute part performance. In Matter of Estate of Lade, 82 W (2d) 80, 260 NW (2d) 665.

Under (3) (a), grantee with knowledge of equitable estoppel against grantor takes title subject to the estoppel. Brevig v. Webster, 88 W (2d) 165, 277 NW (2d) 321 (Ct. App. 1979).

See note to 706.02, citing Glinski v. Sheldon, 88 W (2d) 509, 276 NW (2d) 815 (1979).

Section 706.04 does not refer to deficiencies under 706.03. Triple Interest, Inc. v. Motel 6, Inc. 414 F Supp. 589.

Such identification may be either by the terms of the instrument or by reference to an instrument of record in the same office, naming the place where such record may be found.

(3) In addition to the requirements under sub. (2), every conveyance of mineral interests offered for record shall:

Financial arrangements include the consideration exchanged for the interest in land, terms for payment, optional payments, royalty agreements and similar arrangements. Exploration rights include the conditions and extent of any surface and subsurface rights to the land, options to purchase further interest in the land, options to conduct mining operations and similar arrangements.

(4) Any person who anticipates that he may become a party to a number of conveyances of a given form may cause a prototype of such form to be recorded, accompanied by a certificate declaring the intention of the recording party to incorporate the terms of such prototype in future recorded conveyances by reference.

(5) Copies of instruments affecting title to land in this state, authenticated by certificate of any public officer, either of this or any other state or foreign country, in whose office the original is filed or recorded pursuant to law, may be recorded in every case in which the original would be entitled to record under this section.

(6) Except as may otherwise be expressly provided, no instrument shall be denied acceptance for record because of the absence of venue, seals, witnesses or other matter of form.

(7) Every instrument which the register of deeds shall accept for record shall be deemed duly recorded despite its failure to conform to one or more of the requirements of this section, provided the instrument is properly indexed in a public index maintained in the office of such register of deeds and recorded at length at the place there shown.

(8) A duly recorded certificate signed by or on behalf of the holder of record of any mortgage or other security interest in lands, and authenticated as provided by s. 706.06, 706.065 or 706.07 identifying the mortgage or other interest and stating that the same has been paid or satisfied in whole or in part, shall be sufficient to satisfy such mortgage or other interest of record.

sonably fails or refuses to execute and record, within 7 days after written request and tender of recording fees, a proper partial satisfaction of the mortgage together with any instruments required to establish of record the right of the mortgagor to satisfy the same, the mortgage-holder is liable to the mortgagor in the sum of $100 penalty damages, plus actual damages occasioned by the failure or refusal.

(10) Unless otherwise requested in writing by the mortgagor, if any mortgage-holder after a full performance of the conditions of the mortgage fails or refuses to execute and record, within one month or within 7 days after written request, a proper full satisfaction of the mortgage together with any instruments required to establish of record the right of the mortgagor to satisfy the same, the mortgage-holder is liable to the mortgagor in the sum of $100 penalty damages, plus actual damages occasioned by the failure or refusal. The mortgage-holder may charge the mortgagor for the cost of fees paid in recording the satisfaction and may not be held liable for damages unless those costs are paid by the mortgagor.

(12) Every conveyance of any interest in real property offered for recordation shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth whether the real property includes a rental unit, as defined in s. 101.122 (1) (e). If the property includes a rental unit, the documents of conveyance offered for recordation shall have appended the certificate required under s. 101.122 (4) (a), a waiver under s. 101.122 (4) (b) or a stipulation under s. 101.122 (4) (c).

(2) Any public officer entitled by virtue of his office to administer oaths, and any member in good standing of the state bar of Wisconsin, may authenticate one or more of the signatures on an instrument relating to lands in this state, by indorsing the instrument "Acknowledged", "Authenticated" or "Signatures Guaranteed", or other words to similar effect, adding the date of authentication, his own signature, and his official or professional title. Such indorsement, unless expressly limited, shall operate as an authentication of all signatures on the instrument; and shall constitute a certification that each authenticated signature is the genuine signature of the person represented; and, as to signatures made in a representative capacity, that the signer purported, and was believed, to be such representative.

(3) Affidavits shall be authenticated by a certificate of due execution of the instrument, executed by a person entitled to administer oaths.

I, _____ clerk of the _____ in and for said county, which court is a court of record, having a seal, do hereby certify that _____ by and before whom the foregoing (or annexed) acknowledgment was taken, was at the time of taking the same a _____ residing (or authorized to act) in said county, and was authorized by the laws of said state to take and certify acknowledgments in said state, and, further, that I am acquainted with his handwriting and that I believe that the signature to the certificate of acknowledgment is genuine.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the court this _____ day of _____, 19____.

(c) If the acknowledgment is taken without the United States and by a notary public or a judge or clerk of a court of record of the country where the acknowledgment is taken, the certificate shall be authenticated by a certificate under the great seal of state of the country, affixed by the custodian of such seal, or by a certificate of a diplomatic consular or commercial officer of the United States accredited to that country, certifying as to the official character of such officer. The officer authenticating an acknowledgment shall indorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate in substantially the form prescribed in par. (b).

(10) VALIDITY OF FOREIGN ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Notwithstanding any provision in this section, the execution and acknowledgment of any instrument without this state in compliance with the manner and form prescribed by the laws of the place of its execution, verified by the official seal of the officer before whom it is acknowledged, shall have the same effect as an acknowledgment prescribed by the laws of this state for instruments executed within the state, and, if so executed and acknowledged, the certificate of acknowledgment may state that fact in lieu of other proof thereof.

(11) PERSONS IN ARMED FORCES AND DEPENDENTS. In addition to the acknowledgment of instruments in the manner and form and as otherwise authorized by this section, persons serving in or with the armed forces of the U.S. or their dependents, wherever located, may acknowledge the same before any commissioned officer in active service of the armed forces of the U.S. The instrument shall not be rendered invalid by the failure to state therein the place of execution or acknowledgment. No authentication of the officer's certificate of acknowledgment shall be required but the officer taking the acknowledgment shall indorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate substantially in the following form:

On this day of 19.., before me,, the undersigned officer, personally appeared, Serial No., known to me (or satisfactorily proven) to be (serving in or with the armed forces of the United States) (a dependent of, Serial No., a person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States) and to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument and acknowledged thathe... executed the same for the purposes therein contained. And the undersigned does further certify that he is at the date of this certificate a commissioned officer of the rank stated below, and is in the active service of the armed forces of the United States.

.... Signature of Officer

Rank and Serial No. of Officer and Command to which attached.

(12) ACKNOWLEDGMENTS VALIDATED. Any defective acknowledgment taken prior to the effective date of this section but which would be valid if taken under this section is hereby validated.

(13) ABSENCE OF SEAL OR WITNESSES. The absence of a seal or of witnesses to an instrument which is acknowledged as provided by subs. (7) (a) to (e) and (8) to (11) shall not render the instrument unrecordable.

(14) UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION. This section shall be so interpreted as to make uniform the laws of those states which enact it.

(15) NAME OF ACT. This section may be cited as the uniform acknowledgment act.

History: 1975 c. 94 s. 91 (16); 1975 c. 199; 1977 c. 203; 1977 c. 305 s. 64.

706.08 Nonrecording, effect. (1) (a) Every conveyance (except patents issued by the United States or this state, or by the proper officers of either) which is not recorded as provided by law shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real estate or any portion thereof whose conveyance shall first be duly recorded.

(b) A conveyance of mineral interests which is not recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the land is located, within 30 days after it is signed by the lessor, is void.

(2) Where a public tract index or abstract of title index is maintained, an instrument properly indexed therein and recorded at length at the place there shown shall be deemed to be duly recorded for purposes of this section, despite any error or omission in the process of including the instrument, or prior instruments in the same chain of title, in other records. Where an instrument is not properly indexed in such tract or abstract of title index, or where such index is not publicly maintained, the instrument shall be deemed to be duly recorded only if the instrument, together with prior instruments necessary to trace title by use of alphabetical indices by names of parties, are properly indexed in such alphabetical indices, and recorded at length at the places there shown. Wherever an instrument is duly recorded hereunder, its record shall be effective as of the date and hour at which it is shown by the general index to have been accepted for record.

(3) When an express trust is created, but its existence is not disclosed in a recorded conveyance to the trustee, the title of the trustee shall be deemed absolute as against the subsequent creditors of the trustee not having notice of the trust and as against purchasers from such trustee without notice and for a valuable consideration.

(4) Where a person designated as a trustee has obtained an interest in land by a conveyance or by devise, but his authority and powers are not set forth in a recorded instrument, it shall be conclusively presumed that such person is a trustee of a valid express trust and has full power of conveyance.

(5) When a conveyance purports to be absolute in terms, but is made or intended to be made defeasible by force of another instrument for that purpose, the original conveyance shall not be thereby defeated or affected as against any person other than the maker of the defeasance or his heirs or devisees or persons having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument of defeasance has been recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county where the lands lie.

(6) The recording of an assignment of a mortgage shall not in itself be deemed notice of such assignment to the mortgagor so as to invalidate any payment made to the mortgagee without actual notice of such assignment.

(7) No letter of attorney or other instrument containing a power to convey lands, when executed and recorded under this chapter, shall be deemed to be revoked by any act of the party by whom it was executed unless the instrument containing such revocation is also recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power was recorded, and such record shall import notice to all persons, including the agent named in said letter of attorney of the contents thereof. The death of the party executing such letter of attorney shall not operate as a revocation thereof as to the attorney or agent until he has notice of the death, or as to one who without notice of such death in good faith deals with the attorney or agent.

History: 1977 c. 253.

An unrecorded conveyance, if delivered, is valid against judgment creditors since they are not bona fide creditors for value. West Federal S. & L. v. Interstate Investment, 57 W (2d) 690, 205 NW (2d) 361.

Purchaser having constructive notice that there may have been unrecorded conveyance was not "purchaser in good faith" under (1) (a). Kordecki v. Rizzo, 106 W (2d) 713, 317 NW (2d) 479 (1982).

706.09 Notice of conveyance from the record. (1) WHEN CONVEYANCE IS FREE OF PRIOR ADVERSE CLAIM. A purchaser for a valuable consideration, without notice as defined in sub. (2), and his successors in interest, shall take and hold the estate or interest purported to be conveyed to such purchaser free of any claim adverse to or inconsistent with such estate or interest, if such adverse claim is dependent for its validity or priority upon:

(a) Nondelivery. Nondelivery, or conditional or revocable delivery, of any recorded conveyance, unless the condition or revocability is expressly referred to in such conveyance or other recorded instrument.

(b) Conveyance outside chain of title not identified by definite reference. Any conveyance, transaction or event not appearing of record in the chain of title to the real estate affected, unless such conveyance, transaction or event is identified by definite reference in an instrument of record in such chain. No reference shall be definite which fails to specify, by direct reference to a particular place in the public land record, or, by positive statement, the nature and scope of the prior outstanding interest created or affected by such conveyance, transaction or event, the identity of the original or subsequent owner or holder of such interest, the real estate affected, and the approximate date of such conveyance, transaction or event.

(c) Unrecorded extensions of interests expiring by lapse of time. Continuance, extension or renewal of rights of grantees, purchasers, optionees, or lessees under any land contract, option, lease or other conveyance of an interest limited to expire, absolutely or upon a contingency, within a fixed or determinable time, where 2 years have elapsed after such time, unless there is recorded a notice or other instrument referring to such continuance, extension or renewal and stating or providing a later time for the enforcement, exercise, performance or termination of such interest and then only if less than 2 years have elapsed after such later time. This paragraph shall not apply to life estates, mortgages or trust deeds, nor shall it inferentially extend any interest otherwise expiring by lapse of time.

(d) Nonidentity of persons in chain of title. Nonidentity of persons named in, signing or acknowledging one or more related conveyances or instruments affecting real estate, provided the persons appear in such conveyances under identical names or under variants thereof, including inclusion, exclusion or use of: commonly recognized abbreviations, contractions, initials, or foreign, colloquial, or other equivalents; first or middle names or initials; simple transpositions which produce substantially similar pronunciation; articles or prepositions in names or titles; description of entities as corporations, companies, or any abbreviation or contraction of either; name suffixes such as senior or junior; where such identity or variance has appeared of record for 5 years.

(e) Marital interests. Dower or homestead of the spouse of any transferor of an interest in real estate, where the recorded conveyance purporting to transfer the same states that the person executing it is single, unmarried or widowed; or fails to indicate the marital status of such transferor, and where such conveyance has, in either case, appeared of record for 5 years. This paragraph shall not apply to the interest of a married person who is described of record as holder in joint tenancy with such transferor.

(f) Lack of authority of officers, agents or fiduciaries. Any defect or insufficiency in authorization of any purported officer, partner, agent or fiduciary to act in the name or on behalf of any corporation, partnership, principal, trust, estate, minor, incompetent or other holder of an interest in real estate purported to be conveyed in a representative capacity, after the conveyance has appeared of record for 5 years.

(g) Defects in judicial proceedings. Any defect or irregularity, jurisdictional or otherwise, in an action or proceeding out of which any judgment or order affecting real estate issued after the judgment or order has appeared of record for 5 years.

(h) Nonexistence, incapacity or incompetency. Nonexistence, acts in excess of legal powers or legal incapacity or incompetency of any purported person or legal entity, whether natural or artificial, foreign or domestic, provided the recorded conveyance or instrument affecting the real estate shall purport to have been duly executed by such purported person or legal entity, and shall have appeared of record for 5 years.

(i) Facts not asserted of record. Any fact not appearing of record, but the opposite or contradiction of which appears affirmatively and expressly in a conveyance, affidavit or other instrument of record in the chain of title of the real estate affected for 5 years. Such facts may, without limitation by noninclusion, relate to age, sex, birth, death, capacity, relationship, family history, descent, heirship, names, identity of persons, marriage, marital status, homestead, possession or adverse possession, residence, service in the armed forces, conflicts and ambiguities in descriptions of land in recorded instruments, identification of any recorded plats or subdivisions, corporate authorization to convey, and the happening of any condition or event which terminates an estate or interest.

(j) Defects in tax deed. Nonexistence or illegality of any proceedings from and including the assessment of the real estate for taxation up to and including the execution of the tax deed after the tax deed has been of record for 5 years.

(k) Interests not of record within 30 years. Any interest of which no affirmative and express notice appears of record within 30 years.

(2) NOTICE OF PRIOR CLAIM. A purchaser has notice of a prior outstanding claim or interest, within the meaning of this section wherever, at the time such purchaser's interest arises in law or equity:

(a) Affirmative notice. Such purchaser has affirmative notice apart from the record of the existence of such prior outstanding claim, including notice, actual or constructive, arising from use or occupancy of the real estate by any person at the time such purchaser's interest therein arises, whether or not such use or occupancy is exclusive; but no constructive notice shall be deemed to arise from use or occupancy unless due and diligent inquiry of persons using or occupying such real estate would, under the circumstances, reasonably have disclosed such prior outstanding interest; nor unless such use or occupancy is actual, visible, open and notorious; or

(b) Notice of record within 30 years. There appears of record in the chain of title of the real estate affected, within 30 years and prior to the time at which the interest of such purchaser arises in law or equity, an instrument affording affirmative and express notice of such prior outstanding interest conforming to the requirements of definiteness of sub. (1) (b); or

(c) Same. The applicable provisions of sub. (1) (c) to (k) requiring that an instrument remain for a time of record, have not been fully satisfied.

(3) WHEN PRIOR INTEREST NOT BARRED. This section shall not be applied to bar or infringe any prior outstanding interest in real estate:

(a) Public service corporations, railroads, trustees, governmental units. While owned, occupied or used by any public service corporation as defined in s. 196.01 or any railroad corporation as defined in s. 195.02, or any trustee or receiver of any such corporation, or any mortgagee or trust deed trustee or receiver thereof; nor any such interest while held by the United States, the state or any political subdivision or municipal corporation thereof; or

(b) Unplatted, unimproved, unused, etc. Which, at the time such subsequent purchaser's interest arises, is unplatted, vacant and unoccupied, unused, unimproved and uncultivated; except that this paragraph shall not apply to prior interests dependent for validity or priority upon the circumstances described in sub. (1) (a), (b), (j) and (k).

(4) CHAIN OF TITLE: DEFINITION. The term "chain of title" as used in this section includes instruments, actions and proceedings discoverable by reasonable search of the public records and indices affecting real estate in the offices of the register of deeds and in probate and of clerks of courts of the counties in which the real estate is located; a tract index shall be deemed an index where the same is publicly maintained.

(5) CONSTRUCTION. Nothing in this section shall be construed to raise or support any inference adverse or hostile to marketability of titles.

(6) EFFECTIVE DATE. This section shall take effect and may be invoked by qualified purchasers without notice as defined in sub. (2) whose interests arise on or after July 1, 1968, and by their successors in interest thereafter.

History: 1975 c. 94 s. 91 (16); 1979 c. 110.

706.10 Forms, construction. (1) The several terms and forms of conveyance authorized by law or in common use in this state on July 1, 1971, shall have the same operation and effect under this chapter as formerly, except as this chapter may expressly provide to the contrary; but this section shall not preclude the adoption or use of other, different or more concise forms which conform to the requirements of this chapter.

(2) No conveyance shall be void for the reason that at the time of delivery thereof such lands are in actual possession of a person claiming under title adverse to the grantor.

(3) In conveyances of lands words of inheritance shall not be necessary to create or convey a fee, and every conveyance shall pass all the estate or interest of the grantor unless a different intent shall appear expressly or by necessary implication in the terms of such conveyance.

(4) A quitclaim deed shall pass all of the interest in or appurtenant to the land described which the grantor could lawfully convey, but shall not warrant or imply the existence, quantity or quality of any such interest.

(5) A conveyance by which grantor contracts to warrant the land or its title shall be construed according to its terms, under rules of law for construction of contracts. A conveyance by which grantor warrants the land or its title shall be construed, except as the terms of such conveyance may otherwise provide, to include covenants, for the benefit of grantee, his heirs, successors and assigns, that grantor at time of conveyance is lawfully seized of the land; has good right to convey the same; that the same is free from all encumbrance; and that grantor, his heirs and personal representatives will forever guarantee and defend the title and quiet possession of the land against all lawful claims whatever originating prior to such conveyance, except as the same may arise out of open and notorious rights of easement, or out of public building, zoning or use restrictions.

(6) Except as provided in sub. (7) and except as otherwise provided by law, no warranty or covenant shall be implied in any conveyance, whether or not such conveyance contains special warranties or covenants. No mortgage shall be construed as implying a covenant for the payment of the sum thereby intended to be secured, and when there shall be no express covenant for such payment contained in the mortgage and no bond or other separate instrument to secure such payment shall have been given, the remedies of the mortgagee, shall be confined to the lands mentioned in the mortgage.

(7) In the absence of an express or necessarily implied provision to the contrary, a conveyance evidencing a transaction under which the grantor undertakes to improve the premises so as to equip them for grantee's specified use and occupancy, or to procure such improvement under grantor's direction or control, shall imply a covenant that such improvement shall be performed in a workmanlike manner, and shall be reasonably adequate to equip the premises for such use and occupancy.

Duty to disclose limited to commercial vendors. 64 MLR 547 (1981).

706.11 Priority of certain mortgages, trust funds. (1) Whenever any of the following mortgages has been duly recorded, it shall have priority over all liens upon the mortgaged premises and the buildings and improvements thereon, except tax and special assessment liens filed after the recording of such mortgage:

(a) Any mortgage executed to a federal savings and loan association organized and existing under the laws of the United States.

(b) Any mortgage executed to the department of veterans affairs under s. 45.352, 1971 stats.

(c) Any mortgage assigned to or executed to the department of veterans affairs or the authority under subch. II of ch. 45.

(d) Any mortgage executed to a state or national bank or to a state or federally chartered credit union.

(2) State savings and loan associations shall have the priorities specified under s. 215.21 (4).

(3) The proceeds of any such mortgage referred to in this section shall, when paid out by such state savings and loan association or federal savings and loan association, or of any other mortgage from any other source and received by the owner of the premises or by any contractor or subcontractor performing the work and labor, forthwith constitute a trust fund only in the hands of such owner, contractor or subcontractor for the payment proportionally of all claims due and to become due or owing from such contractor or subcontractor for lienable labor and materials until all such claims have been paid, and shall not be a trust fund in the hands of any other person. This section shall not create a civil cause of action against any person other than such owner, contractor or subcontractor. The use of any of such moneys by any owner, contractor or subcontractor for any other purpose until all claims, except those which are the subject of a bona fide dispute, have been paid in full, or proportionally in cases of a deficiency, shall constitute theft by such owner, contractor or subcontractor of any moneys so misappropriated. The district attorney of the county where the premises are situated shall on the complaint of any aggrieved party prosecute such owner, contractor or subcontractor misappropriating such moneys for such theft.

706.12 Uniform vendor and purchaser risk act. (1) Any contract made in this state for the purchase and sale of realty shall be interpreted as including an agreement that the parties shall have the following rights and duties, unless the contract expressly provides otherwise:

(a) If, when neither the legal title nor the possession of the subject matter of the contract has been transferred, all or a material part thereof is destroyed without fault of the purchaser or is taken by eminent domain, the vendor cannot enforce the contract, and the purchaser is entitled to recover any portion of the price that he has paid.

(b) If, when either the legal title or the possession of the subject matter of the contract has been transferred, all or any part thereof is destroyed without fault of the vendor or is taken by eminent domain, the purchaser is not thereby relieved from a duty to pay the price, nor is he entitled to recover any portion thereof that he has paid.

(2) This section applies to any person who causes another person to act in the manner specified in sub. (1).

(3) This section does not apply to a register of deeds or other government employe who acts in the course of his or her official duties and files, docketts or records any instrument relating to title on behalf of another person.
