351.01 Declaration of intent. The legislature intends by enacting this chapter:

(1) To provide maximum safety for all users of the highways of this state.

(2) To deny the privilege of operating motor vehicles to persons who by their conduct and record have demonstrated their indifference for the safety and welfare of others and their disrespect for the laws, courts and administrative agencies of this state.

(3) To discourage repetition of traffic violations by individuals against the peace and dignity of this state and its political subdivisions and to impose increased and added deprivation of the privilege to operate motor vehicles upon habitual traffic offenders who have been convicted repeatedly of traffic law violations.

History: 1979 c. 333.

Ch. 351, 1983 stats., is constitutional. Court is permitted no discretion in administration of this chapter. State v. Strassburg, 120 W (2d) 30, 352 NW (2d) 215 (Ct. App. 1984).

State's failure to warn defendant that pleading guilty to criminal traffic offenses would result in revocation under ch. 351, 1983 stats., did not void conviction. State v. Madison, 120 W (2d) 150, 353 NW (2d) 835 (Ct. App. 1984).

351.02 Definitions. In this chapter:

(a) and (b), any federal law which is in strict conformity with the offenses under pars. (a) and (b) and any law of another state or valid ordinance enacted by the local authority of another state which is in strict conformity with the offenses under par. (a).

(d) If more than one offense under par. (a) or (b) arises out of the same occurrence, all of those offenses shall be treated as one offense, on the first such occasion, if the person charged has no record of prior offenses within the preceding 5-year period.

(e) For purposes of this subsection, the 5-year period does not extend back to any date which is prior to August 1, 1980.

(1m) "Repeat habitual traffic offender" means any person, resident or nonresident, whose record as maintained by the department shows that the person has been convicted of 2 offenses under sub. Five-year requirement in (1) applies to offenses, not resulting convictions. De Bruin v. State, 140 W (2d) 631, 412 NW (2d) 130 (Ct. App. 1987).

351.025 Revocation. (1) The secretary shall revoke a person's operating privilege for a period of 5 years upon receipt of a record of conviction which brings the person within the definition of a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender.

(2) (a) The revocation is effective on the date the department mails the notice of revocation, except as provided in par. (b).

(b) If the person's operating privilege is currently suspended or revoked, the revocation under this chapter is effective on the date the person surrendered his or her operator's license for the current suspension or revocation or the date of the conviction in sub. (1), whichever is later.

History: 1985 a. 71.

351.027 Hearing on revocations. (1) Whenever the secretary under authority of s. 351.025 revokes a person's operating privilege, the secretary shall immediately notify the person in writing of the revocation and of the person's right to a hearing on the revocation as provided in sub. (2). The department shall send the notice by 1st class mail to the address most recently provided to the department by the person.

(2) If the person denies that he or she is a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender, the person may file with the circuit court for the county in which the person resides or, in the case of a nonresident, with the circuit court for Dane county a petition for a hearing and determination by the court that the person is not a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender. The scope of the hearing shall be limited to whether or not the person is the same person named in the record and whether or not the person was convicted of each offense shown by the record. The clerk of the court in which the petition is filed shall forward a copy of the petition to the secretary.

History: 1985 a. 71.

351.03 Secretary to certify copy of conviction record. Upon receipt of the copy of the petition under s. 351.027, the secretary shall certify the record of conviction of any person whose record brings him or her within the definition of a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender to the court and to the district attorney of the county in which the person resides or to the attorney general if the person is not a resident of this state. The certified record shall be prima facie evidence that the person named therein was duly convicted by the court wherein the conviction or finding was made, of each offense shown by the record. If the person denies any of the facts as stated in the record, he or she shall have the burden of proving that the fact is false.

History: 1979 c. 333; 1983 a. 525; 1985 a. 71.

History: 1979 c. 333; 1985 a. 71.

351.05 Habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender determination by the court. The court in which the petition under s. 351.027 is filed shall determine whether the person is a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender. If the person denies he or she was convicted or found in violation of any offense necessary for a holding that he or she is a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender, and if the court is not able to make the determination on the evidence before it, the court may certify the decision of the issue to the court in which the conviction or finding of violation was made. The court to which the certification was made shall conduct a hearing to determine the issue and send a certified copy of its final order determining the issue to the court in which the petition was filed.

History: 1979 c. 333; 1983 a. 525; 1985 a. 71.

351.06 Order of court. The person's petition shall include a compelling reason why the person should be granted an occupational license and additional reasons why the judge should believe that the person's previous conduct as a traffic offender will not be repeated. The judge shall state his or her reasons for granting or denying the petition on the record. If the judge grants the petition, the judge shall issue an order authorizing the issuance of an occupational license to the person under s. 343.10 (1r). The clerk of the court shall file a copy of the order with the department, which shall become a part of the records of the department.

(1m) (a) A person whose operating privilege has been revoked under this chapter as a habitual traffic offender may, after 2 years of the period of revocation have elapsed, petition a judge of the circuit court for the county in which the person resides for an order authorizing the issuance of a limited chauffeur's license under s. 343.126 (1m). The person's petition shall include a compelling reason why the person should be granted a limited chauffeur's license and additional reasons why the judge should believe that the person's previous conduct as a traffic offender will not be repeated. No petition under this subsection may be granted unless the person's livelihood depends upon his or her employment as a licensed chauffeur and the person furnishes proof of financial responsibility as provided in s. 343.126 (1) (b). The judge shall state his or her reasons for granting or denying the petition on the record. If the judge grants the petition, the judge shall issue an order authorizing the secretary to issue the person a limited chauffeur's license under s. 343.126 (1m). The clerk of the court shall file a copy of the order with the department, which shall become a part of the records of the department.

(2) (a) Upon conviction of a person who is issued an occupational license as provided by sub. (1) or a limited chauffeur's license as provided by sub. (1m) and s. 343.126 (1m) of 2 offenses under s. 351.02 (1) (b) committed within one year following issuance of the occupational license or limited chauffeur's license or of one offense under s. 351.02 (1) (a) or 4 offenses under s. 351.02 (1) (b) committed within 3 years following issuance of the occupational license or limited chauffeur's license, the secretary shall proceed under s. 351.025.

(b) In lieu of the otherwise applicable penalties for the commission of the offenses enumerated in s. 351.02 (1) (a) and (b), a person who is issued an occupational license as provided by sub. (1) or limited chauffeur's license as provided by sub. (1m) and s. 343.126 (1m) and who is convicted of an offense under s. 351.02 (1) (a) or (b) as provided in par. No portion of the sentence may be suspended, except in a case where operating was made necessary by a situation of emergency, as determined by the court. Any person imprisoned under this section, on his or her request, may be allowed Huber law work privileges under s. 56.08. For the purpose of enforcing this section, in any case in which the accused is charged with driving a motor vehicle while his or her license, permit or privilege to drive is suspended or revoked or is charged with driving without a license, the court before hearing the charge shall determine whether the person is a habitual traffic offender or repeat habitual traffic offender and therefore barred from operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state.

History: 1979 c. 333; 1983 a. 525, 535, 538; 1985 a. 71.

351.10 Appeals. An appeal to the court of appeals may be taken from any final action or order of a court entered under this chapter in the same manner and form as an appeal in a criminal case.

351.11 Application of chapter. This chapter is in addition to and not in substitution for any provision of ch. 343 or 344 requiring the revocation of an operator's license. A license may be revoked in accordance with ch. 343 or 344 notwithstanding the fact that the revocation is not mandated by this chapter. The penalty imposed under s. 351.08 is in addition to the penalty imposed under any other law or ordinance for an offense specified in s. 351.02.
