CHAPTER SCR 40
ADMISSION TO THE BAR

SCR 40.01 Definitions; list of law schools.
(1) “Board” means the board of bar examiners.
(2) “Clerk” means the clerk of the supreme court.
(3) “Electronic signature” means an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with an electronically-filed application that can be executed or adopted by the applicant with the intent to sign the application under oath or affirmation.

(2) The board shall maintain a record of all law schools which are approved by the American bar association, together with the date of such approval, and those which are not so approved. The record shall constitute an official record of the supreme court and proof of the fact that the law schools therein stated as approved by the American bar association were so approved at the times therein stated.

History: Sup. Ct. Order No. 11–02, 2011 WI 90, 336 Wis. 2d xiii.

SCR 40.02 Qualifications generally.
A person who meets all of the following qualifications shall be admitted to practice law in this state by order of the supreme court:

(1) Has attained the age of majority under the law of this state.

History: Sup. Ct. Order No. 95–15, 196 Wis. 2d xv (1995); Sup. Ct. Order No. 11–08, 2012 WI 113, filed 11−1−12, eff. 12−1−12.

Case Notes: A candidate for admission to the bar bears the burden of proof to establish the qualifications for admission under this section. In Matter of Admission of Rippl, 2002 WI 15, 250 Wis. 2d 519, 639 N.W.2d 553.

A candidate for admission to the bar bears the burden of proof to establish his or her qualifications under SCR 40.02. There is no presumption that an applicant for admission to the Wisconsin bar has the appropriate character and fitness to be admitted and specifically no presumption in favor of finding that an applicant possesses the requisite character and fitness simply because a sister state has already so determined. Littlejohn v. BBE, 2003 WI 36, 261 Wis. 2d 183, 661 N.W.2d 183.

SCR 40.03 Legal competence requirement: Diploma privilege.

The court may, in its discretion, refer the matter to a referee.

SCR 40.15 Attorney’s oath.

The oath or affirmation to be taken to qualify for admission to the practice of law shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTE: I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of Wisconsin;
NOTE: I will maintain the respect due to courts of justice and judicial officers;
NOTE: I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceeding which shall appear to me to be unjust, or any defense, except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;
NOTE: I will employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me, such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;
NOTE: I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client and will accept no compensation in connection with my client’s business except from my client or with my client’s knowledge and approval;
NOTE: I will abstain from all offensive personality and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;
NOTE: I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay any person’s cause for lucre or malice.

NOTE: So help me God.

Case Notes: The “offensive personality” component of the attorney’s oath may be violated by conduct that occurs out of court as well as by in-court conduct. The conduct at issue here consisted entirely of letters written by the attorney to a local newspaper that were found to be acidic, argumentative, arrogant, and condescending but did not bring disrepute on the attorney, the legal profession or the courts. No violation was found where the attorney’s primary intent in writing the letters was to protect the personal and business reputation of his client. Lawyer Regulation System v. Williams, 2005 WI 15, 278 Wis. 2d 237, 692 N.W.2d 633, 02–3327.
