Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a surcharge that is paid by any person who commits a sexual crime against a child or who commits certain crimes related to prostitution or sex trafficking. Under the bill, a person who is convicted of committing one of those offenses must pay, in addition to any criminal fine for the offense, a $500 surcharge. Under the bill, the money collected under the surcharge is used by the Office of Crime Victim Services in the Department of Justice to provide services to child victims of sexual exploitation.
