Where the law defining the boundaries of a county describes a line as following the line between certain ranges, the line so described follows such range line, although the latter may diverge either to the east or west at correction lines. Words inserted in an act defining boundaries, through a clerical error, will be disregarded when the intention of the legislature is clear from the whole act, as the word "north" for "south" in sec. 12, ch. 114, Laws 1879. ELECTIONS

Editor's Note: This table is designed to assist in tracing the various provisions of chs. 5 to 11 into the sections of the new election code. It covers all sections repealed or renumbered by this bill. It does not show (except for the repeals noted) what specifically happened to a particular section of chs. 5 to 11, i.e., whether it was substantially changed or restated without change. To find that information, turn to the new section and the note attached thereto. The notes also will show what sections of chs. 5 to 11 are covered by a particular section of the new election code. CHAPTER 5.

General Provisions, Scope, Definitions.

5.01 History: 1965 c. 666; Stats. 1965 s. 5.01; 1967 c. 261.

Legislative Council Note, 1965: Sub. (1) is a restatement of s. 5.011. The last sentence of s. 6.75 enumerates some noncompliance provisions which are now covered by the broad terms of the provision.

Sub. (2), without enumeration, includes ss. 5.012 (1), 6.23 (19), 6.80, 7.06 (1st sentence), 8.05 (1st and 4th sentences), 9.02 (2) (last sentence), 10.35, 10.40 (1), 10.49 (1st sentence), 10.55, 11.08, 11.17 (1) and 11.65 (1st part). These sections all provide that the general rules apply unless there are exceptions.

Sub. (3) is a restatement of ss. 5.35 (1) (a) (last sentence), 5.37 (3), 6.75 (1st sentence), 8.04 (2) (last sentence), 10.37 (1st sentence), 10.47 (2nd sentence, 1st part), 10.60 (1st part).

Sub. (4) (a) and (c) are a restatement of the following sections, except the language is general to include each level of the canvass and minor changes were made to provide uniformity, ss. 5.21, 5.27 (1) (last sentence), 5.35 (3), 6.64 (last sentence, in part), 10.37 (2nd sentence), 10.47 (2nd sentence, last part), 10.60 (last part). Par. (b) is new. [Bill 755A]

On legislative power generally see notes to sec. 1, art. IV.

If an election is honestly conducted, the fact that legal votes were rejected, through error of judgment, in numbers sufficient to have changed the result, does not invalidate the election. The candidate who receives the plurality of the votes cast is elected. State ex rel. Wold v. Hanson, 87 W 177, 58 NW 237.

The statutory provision governing construction of election laws does not permit disregarding positive language of the statute as to what shall appear on the face of a petition for recall, and the year of the signing must affirmatively appear. State ex rel. Baxter v. Beckley, 192 W 367, 212 NW 792.

Under the legislative mandate for a liberal construction of the provisions of ch. 5, Stats. 1931, where the last day for filing nomination papers falls upon a legal holiday, a filing on the day subsequent is sufficient. Manning v. Young, 210 W 588, 247 NW 61.

When an election has been held, the will of electors must be given effect, though there may have been informalities or failure to comply with statutes. State ex rel. Oaks v. Brown, 211 W 571, 249 NW 50; Commonwealth Tel. Co. v. Public Service Comm. 219 W 607, 263 NW 665; Ollmann v. Kowalewski, 238 W 574, 300 NW 183; State ex rel. Zimmerman v. Carpenter, 254 W 619, 37 NW (2d) 469.

The statutory provision governing construction of election laws is not a mere rule of construction, but is a mandate to the judicial tribunal that mere informality or failure to comply with some of the provisions of the title to which it applies shall not defeat the will of the electors, and has the effect of relaxing the strict provisions of the title in all cases where the will of the electors can be ascertained from the proceedings had. State ex rel. Pelishek v. Washburn, 223 W 595, 270 NW 541.

In a case properly calling for the construction of a statute regulating elections, the rule of liberal construction may be applicable, but for the court to enlarge the time which the legislature has designated in 5.05 (1), 1949 Stats., for the filing of nomination papers would be to amend the latter statute, not to
