2 19.55 (2) (cm), 59.43 (1r) and 757.07 of the statutes; relating to: privacy 3 protections for judicial officers, granting rule-making authority, and providing 4 a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill establishes privacy protections for judicial officers and a procedure for a judicial officer to complete a written request for protection of the personal information of the judicial officer and the judicial officer's immediate family.

Under the bill, a government agency may not publicly post or display publicly available content that includes a judicial officer's personal information, provided that the government agency has received a written request from the officer that the agency refrain from disclosing the personal information. Upon receipt of the written request, the agency must remove the personal information within 10 business days and may not publicly post or display the information. The personal information is also exempt from public records requests unless the agency has received consent to make the information available to the public.

The bill also provides that, upon receipt of a written request for privacy protections from a judicial officer, all persons, businesses, and associations must refrain from publicly posting or displaying on the Internet publicly available content that includes the personal information of the judicial officer or the judicial officer's immediate family. The prohibition does not apply to personal information that the judicial officer or an immediate family member of the judicial officer voluntarily publishes on the Internet after the bill goes into effect or personal information lawfully received from a state or federal government source, including from an employee or agent of the state or federal government.

After a person, business, or association has received a written request from a judicial officer, the person, business, or association must, within 10 days of the request, remove the personal information from the Internet; ensure that the judicial officer's personal information is not made available on any website or subsidiary website controlled by that person, business, or association; and identify any other instances of the identified information that should also be removed. Under the bill, once a written request is received, no person, business, or association may transfer the judicial officer's personal information to any other person, business, or association through any medium, except for personal information that the judicial officer or an immediate family member of the judicial officer voluntarily publishes on the Internet after the bill goes into effect, or if a transfer is made at the request of the judicial officer or is necessary to effectuate a request to the person, business, or association from the judicial officer. The bill also expressly prohibits a data broker, as defined in the bill, from knowingly selling, licensing, trading, purchasing, or otherwise making available for consideration the personal information of a judicial officer or a judicial officer's immediate family.

The bill requires the register of deeds to establish a process for judicial officers and immediate family members of judicial officers to opt out from the display and search functions of their names on public-facing land records websites. The bill also requires the register of deeds to shield from disclosure certain documents covered by a judicial officer's written request for protection of personal information, if the documents to be protected are specifically identified by the judicial officer.

Under the bill, a candidate for a judicial office may, instead of having his or her name and residential address listed on nomination papers, file a certification of residence with the Elections Commission before circulating nomination papers. A judicial officer circulating nomination papers on behalf of a candidate for a nonpartisan office, or signing nomination papers supporting a candidate for a nonpartisan office, may similarly file a certification of residence with the Elections Commission before circulating or signing nomination papers. The bill requires the commission, by rule, to verify the address provided in the certification of residence. Under current law, generally, a candidate for a state or local elective office must file nomination papers with the commission or, for a local office, with the appropriate municipal clerk. The top of each nomination paper must list the candidate's full name, including any nickname or former surname, and his or her residential street address. Under current law, a person circulating nomination papers on behalf of a candidate for a judicial office must also provide a certification at the bottom of each nomination paper stating his or her residential street address.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 8.10 (7) of the statutes is created to read:
2 8.10 (7) (a) Notwithstanding sub. (2) (b) and (c) and s. 8.21 (4) (b), a candidate
3 for filling the office of a judicial officer, as defined in s. 757.07 (1) (e), who files a 4 certification of residence with the commission before circulating nomination papers
5 is not required to indicate his or her residential address on the nomination papers, 6 including nomination papers circulated on behalf of the judicial officer, or on the 7 declaration of candidacy. Notwithstanding sub. (3) (intro.), a judicial officer, as 8 defined in s. 757.07 (1) (e), who intends to circulate nomination papers on behalf of 9 a candidate for filling a nonpartisan office, or who intends to sign nomination papers
10 to support such a candidate, is not required to indicate his or her residential address 11 on the certification of a qualified circulator appended to the nomination papers or on 12 the nomination papers as a signatory. The commission shall promulgate rules for the 13 administration of this subsection and prescribe a certification of residence for a 14 candidate or circulating judicial officer for use under this subsection.

15 (b) Certifications of residence submitted to the commission under par. (a) shall 16 be kept confidential unless the judicial officer consents to disclosure under s. 757.07
17 (4) (e), except that the commission shall provide such certifications to the appropriate 18 filing officer for the office the candidate or judicial officer seeks. Filing officers shall 19 also keep confidential the certifications received by the commission unless the 20 judicial officer consents to disclosure.

21 SECTION 2. 19.36 (11) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 19.36 (11) RECORDS OF AN INDIVIDUAL HOLDING A LOCAL PUBLIC OFFICE OR A STATE
2 PUBLIC OFFICE. Unless access is specifically authorized or required by statute, an 3 authority shall not provide access under s. 19.35 (1) to records, except to an 4 individual to the extent required under s. 103.13, containing information
5 maintained, prepared, or provided by an employer concerning the home address, 6 home electronic mail address, home telephone number, or social security number of 7 an individual who holds a local public office or a state public office, unless the 8 individual authorizes the authority to provide access to such information. This 9 Except as provided in sub. (14), this subsection does not apply to the home address 10 of an individual who holds an elective public office or to the home address of an 11 individual who, as a condition of employment, is required to reside in a specified 12 location.

13 SECTION 3. 19.36 (14) of the statutes is created to read:

14 19.36 (14) PRIVACY PROTECTIONS FOR JUDICIAL OFFICERS. If a judicial officer, as 15 defined in s. 757.07 (1) (e), submits a written request under s. 757.07 (4), an authority
16 shall not provide access under s. 19.35 (1) to a certification of residence under s. 8.10
17 (7) or to the personal information, as defined in s. 757.07 (1) (g), of a judicial officer, 18 except as provided under s. 8.10 (7) (b).

19 SECTION 4. 19.55 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

20 19.55 (1) Except as provided in s. 19.36 (14) and subs. (2) to (4), all records 21 under ch. 11, this subchapter, or subch. III of ch. 13 in the possession of the 22 commission are open to public inspection at all reasonable times. The commission 23 shall require an individual wishing to examine a statement of economic interests or 24 the list of persons who inspect any statements which are in the commission's 25 possession to provide his or her full name and address, and if the individual is

1 representing another person, the full name and address of the person which he or she 2 represents. Such identification may be provided in writing or in person. The 3 commission shall record and retain for at least 3 years information obtained by it 4 pursuant to this subsection. No individual may use a fictitious name or address or 5 fail to identify a principal in making any request for inspection.

6 SECTION 5. 19.55 (2) (cm) of the statutes is created to read:

7 19.55 (2) (cm) If a judicial officer, as defined in s. 757.07 (1) (e), submits a 8 written request under s. 757.07 (4), the personal information, as defined in s. 757.07 9 (1) (g), of a judicial officer contained in statements of economic interests, reports of 10 economic transactions, and campaign finance reports that are filed with the 11 commission by judicial officers or the candidate committees of judicial officers. The 12 commission shall quarterly review the electronic campaign finance information 13 system for the personal information of judicial officers and remove such information 14 from the system. In addition, before providing, upon a request, a statement of 15 economic interests of a judicial officer, the commission shall remove the personal 16 information of the judicial officer.

17 SECTION 6. 59.43 (1r) of the statutes is created to read:

19 deeds shall shield from disclosure and keep confidential documents containing 20 information covered by a written request of a judicial officer under s. 757.07, if the 21 judicial officer specifically identifies the document number of any document to be 22 shielded under this subsection. This paragraph applies only to electronic images of 23 documents specifically identified by a judicial officer as covered by a written request 24 under s. 757.07. The register of deeds may allow access to a document subject to

1 protection under this paragraph only if the judicial officer consents to the access or 2 access is otherwise permitted as provided under s. 757.07 (4) (e).

3 (b) The register of deeds shall establish a process for judicial officers and 4 immediate family members of judicial officers to opt out from the display and search 5 functions of their names on public-facing land records websites.

21 and indicate that the personal information of these family members shall also be 22 excluded to the extent that it could reasonably be expected to reveal personal 23 information of the judicial officer. Any person receiving a written request form 24 submitted by or on behalf of a judicial officer under this paragraph shall treat the 25 submission as confidential.

1 (e) 1. A judicial officer's written request is valid for 10 years or until the judicial 2 officer's death, whichever occurs first.

3 2. Notwithstanding a judicial officer's written request, a government agency,

15 written request if the consent is made in writing on a form prescribed by the director
16 of state courts. An immediate family member of the judicial officer may only consent 17 to the release of his or her own personal information.

18 (5) (a) A judicial officer whose personal information is made public as a result 19 of a violation of this section may bring an action seeking injunctive or declaratory
20 relief in any court of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding s. 814.04, if the court 21 grants injunctive or declaratory relief, the governmental agency, business, 22 association, data broker, or other person responsible for the violation shall be 23 required to pay the judicial officer's costs and reasonable attorney fees.

24 (b) Provided that an employee of a government agency has complied with the 25 conditions set forth in sub. (2), it is not a violation of this section if an employee of

1 a government agency publishes personal information, in good faith, on the website
2 of the government agency in the ordinary course of carrying out public functions.

3 (c) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly publicly post or display on the 4 Internet the personal information of a judicial officer or of the judicial officer's 5 immediate family if the person intends the public posting or display of the personal 6 information to create or increase a threat to the health and safety of the judicial 7 officer or the judicial officer's immediate family and, under the circumstances, bodily 8 injury or death of the judicial officer or a member of the judicial officer's immediate 9 family is a natural and probable consequence of the posting or display. A person who 10 violates this paragraph is guilty of a Class G felony.

11 (6) This section shall be construed broadly to favor the protection of the 12 personal information of judicial officers and the immediate family of judicial officers.

13 SECTION 8. Effective date.

14 (1) This act takes effect on the first day of the 13th month beginning after 15 publication.
