Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under Wisconsin's Huber law, a person sentenced to a county jail or house of correction may be allowed to leave the jail or house of correction to work, seek work, attend school, receive medical treatment or handle family needs. If a person who is allowed to leave a jail or house of correction under Huber law commits a breach of discipline or other violation of jail regulations, a sheriff may refuse to permit a person to exercise his or her Huber law privilege to leave the jail for not more than 5 days. This bill increases from 5 days to 30 days the amount of time a sheriff may refuse to permit a person to exercise his or her Huber law privilege to leave the jail if the person commits a breach of discipline or other violation of jail regulations.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
