3 on September 27, 1915, and died in Portage on March 12, 1995; and

4           Whereas, Reuben La Fave graduated from Oconto High School; and

5           Whereas, Mr. La Fave served in the Coast Guard Reserve during World War II, 6 was a member of the Oconto County Board for 9 years, was a member of many civic 7 and benevolent organizations, was a social worker and realtor and operated a 8 business in Oconto; and

9           Whereas, he was elected to the assembly in 1950 and served in that house until 10 1957 and was a member of the senate from 1957 to 1977; and

11          Whereas, Mr. La Fave's leadership abilities were recognized by his colleagues 12 in the assembly when he was named assistant floor leader, and he also served as 13 chair of the senate transportation committee; and

14          Whereas, in his position as chair of the Menominee Indian Committee, Mr. La 15 Fave was a strong advocate for the Menominees and other Indian tribes, and he was 16 instrumental in helping the Menominee Indian Tribe greatly improve its 17 infrastructure; and

1           Whereas, he was a co-chair of the joint survey committee on retirement 2 systems and of the retirement research council, in which positions he mastered the 3 intricacies of retirement law and policy; and

4           Whereas, he is recognized as one of Wisconsin's great leaders relative to state 5 public pension plans, and many of his initiatives toward providing equitable benefits 6 and the merger and consolidation of public pension plans were continued or 7 completed after his departure; and

8           Whereas, from his youth Reuben La Fave had a strong love and respect for the 9 outdoors; and

10           Whereas, at age 13, he was struck with polio and over several years time built 11 up his physical strength by taking long walks on crutches in the woods along the 12 shore of Lake Michigan; and

13           Whereas, Reuben La Fave was known for his tenacious and effective devotion
14 to conservation; as evidenced by his service as chair of the Sportsmen's Conservation 15 Congress, his being named "Mr. Conservation" in 1960, his receipt of the Milwaukee 16 Sentinel's first annual award for outstanding achievement in conservation in 1953,
