Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a person who intentionally marks, draws, or writes on or etches onto another person's property without the person's consent may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both. If, however, the property is reduced in value by more than $2,500, the maximum term of imprisonment is ten years. This bill lowers the damage threshold at which the longer term of imprisonment may be imposed to $1,000.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
