Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires the department of transportation (DOT) to make an annual grant of $375,000, beginning in fiscal year 2002-03, to an organization to teach extrication techniques and skills to rescue personnel for various vehicles. Individuals providing the teaching on behalf of the organization must have experience in teaching extrication techniques and skills. After awarding a grant, DOT must enter into a written agreement with the recipient of the grant that specifies the conditions for use of the grant proceeds and requires the grant recipient to avoid conflicts of interest in the acquisition or use of vehicle extrication equipment, as determined by rule by DOT.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
