Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) must consider a nonresident to be a resident of this state for the purpose of being issued a hunting, noncommercial fishing, or trapping approval if the person exhibits proof that he or she is in active service in the U.S. armed forces and he or she is stationed in this state.

Under current law, nonresidents of this state may be members of the Wisconsin national guard. Under this bill, DNR must consider a nonresident to be a resident of this state for the purpose of being issued a hunting approval if the person exhibits proof that he or she is a member of the Wisconsin national guard.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
