Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, generally, a person who conveys real property to another person must pay a real estate transfer fee to the register of deeds for the county where the property is located. The county retains 20 percent of the fees collected and submits the remainder to the state. Under this bill, for a 12-month period, the county retains 20 percent of the real estate transfer fees and transmits the remainder to the person to whom the property is conveyed.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
