1 AN ACT to amend 11.38 (1) (a) 1.; and to create 11.05 (3) (q), 11.38 (1m), 11.38
2 (3e) and 11.38 (9) of the statutes; relating to: political disbursements and
3 obligations by corporations and cooperative associations.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, corporations and cooperatives are prohibited from making contributions or disbursements (expenditures) in campaigns for state or local office. Violators are subject to a forfeiture (civil penalty) of not more than $500 for each violation. Intentional violators are guilty of a Class I felony, which is punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for three and one-half years, or both, except that if a violation involves $100 or less, the violation is punishable as a misdemeanor with a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. A recent decision of the U.S. Supreme Court has cast doubt about whether this law is enforceable as it applies to disbursements. See Citizens United v. F.E.C., 130 S. Ct. 876 (2010).

This bill provides that if a court with jurisdiction in this state finds in a reported decision, whether or not applicable in this state, that a prohibition against the making of political expenditures by corporations or similar entities is not enforceable for constitutional reasons, the Government Accountability Board (GAB) must publish a finding to that effect. The bill then provides that, during a period when a finding of unenforceability is in effect, before a corporation or cooperative may make a disbursement or incur an obligation to make a disbursement for the purpose of influencing an election for state or local office, the corporation or cooperative must file with its registration statement and maintain on file with the appropriate filing officer or agency: 1) a copy of a document that is satisfactory to the GAB, reflecting action taken not more than two years previous to the time that any disbursement is made or any obligation to make a disbursement is incurred, demonstrating that the corporation or cooperative has received the approval of a majority of its voting shares, exclusive of any proxy votes cast, to make disbursements and incur obligations to make disbursements for the purpose of influencing an election for state or local office; or 2) a statement that the corporation or cooperative has no shareholders. The bill prohibits a corporation or cooperative from making a disbursement or incurring an obligation to make a disbursement unless the corporation or cooperative has a current statement or file and the statement is accurate.

The bill also provides that no owner, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation or cooperative may cause or authorize the corporation or cooperative to make a disbursement or to incur an obligation that is prohibited under the bill. Under the bill, if an owner, officer, employee, or agent causes or authorizes a violation, action must be brought against the owner, officer, employee, or agent personally and the corporation or cooperative is not financially liable for the violation. In addition, no corporation or cooperative is permitted to reimburse an owner, officer, employee, or agent for any financial liability incurred by the owner, officer, employee, or agent.

Violators of the registration requirements or the prohibitions created by the bill are subject to a forfeiture of not more than $500 for each violation. Intentional violators of the registration requirements or the prohibitions created by the bill are guilty of a Class I felony and may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than three years and six months, or both if the violation involves an amount of more than $100 or otherwise may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.
