1 AN ACT to create 125.07 (3) (a) 15., 125.07 (4) (bg) and 125.07 (4) (f) of the 2 statutes; relating to: alcohol beverages violations involving underage persons
3 on licensed premises.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an alcohol beverages licensee (retailer) may not procure for, sell, or otherwise provide alcohol beverages to a person who has not attained the legal drinking age of 21 and who is not accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, or spouse who is at least age 21 (unaccompanied underage person) or, with various exceptions, permit an unaccompanied underage person to enter or be on a retail licensed premises (retailer underage violation). A retailer has a defense to a retailer underage violation if the retailer shows that: 1) the underage person falsely represented his or her age to be at least 21; 2) the appearance of the underage person was such that an ordinary and prudent person would believe that the underage person was at least 21; 3) the retailer acted in good faith and in reliance on the representation and appearance of the underage person in the belief that the underage person was at least 21; and 4) the underage person supported his or her representation with identification showing his or her age to be at least 21.

Also under current law, an unaccompanied underage person may not: 1) procure or attempt to procure alcohol beverages from a retailer; 2) possess or consume alcohol beverages on licensed retail premises; 3) enter or be on licensed retail premises, subject to various exceptions; or 4) falsely represent his or her age to obtain alcohol beverages from a retailer (underage violation). A person who commits an underage violation is subject to various penalties, including a forfeiture ranging in amount from $250 to $1,000 depending on the number of prior underage violations the person has committed.

This bill provides retailers with a private right of action against underage persons who commit underage violations. Under the bill, a retailer may bring a civil action against an underage person who commits an underage violation on the retailer's licensed premises if the retailer has not been convicted of or cited for a retailer underage violation related to the same incident giving rise to the underage violation, unless the retailer has a defense to the retailer underage violation. If a retailer brings a civil action against an underage person based on the underage violation and judgment is entered in favor of the retailer, the court must award to the retailer damages in the amount of $1,000, plus costs and reasonable attorney fees. However, if the underage person is less than 18 years of age and not emancipated, the retailer brings the action against the parent or legal guardian of the underage person instead. The retailer has the burden of proving that the underage person's conduct constituted an underage violation, but the action may be brought regardless of whether the underage person received a citation for, or was convicted of, the underage violation. Before a retailer may bring an action, the retailer must provide notice of its intent to bring an action and the notice must include a demand for the monetary relief that would be available if the action were brought.

The bill also creates an exception allowing an unaccompanied underage person to enter or be on licensed retail premises if the underage person is employed by or assisting a law enforcement agency in enforcing or investigating underage violations or retailer underage violations. The bill also specifies that laws relating to underage violations, and prohibiting an unaccompanied underage person from knowingly possessing or consuming alcohol beverages, do not apply to an underage person employed by or assisting a law enforcement agency in enforcing or investigating underage violations or retailer underage violations.
