1 Relating to: recognizing June 19, 2017, as Juneteenth Day in Wisconsin.

2 Whereas, Juneteenth Day is a national holiday that celebrates the end of 3 slavery in the United States, and Juneteenth Day specifically commemorates June 4 19, 1865, the day that Union General Gordon Granger spoke in Galveston, Texas, 5 proclaiming free the last remaining slaves in the United States; and

6 Whereas, Union General Gordon Granger delivered this news to recognize the 7 freedom of these men, and this proclamation was given nearly two and one-half 8 years after the Emancipation Proclamation was declared; and

9 Whereas, slavery in the United States lasted over 250 years and enslaved 10 millions of African-Americans in horrific conditions throughout all regions in the 11 United States, including in Wisconsin, where hundreds of slaves were held illegally; 12 and

13 Whereas, Juneteenth Day is officially observed in 43 states across the country,
14 and Juneteenth Day has come to signify a celebration of African-American freedom, 15 achievement, and history; and
