1 AN ACT to renumber 941.29 (1g) (a) and 971.17 (1g); to amend 973.176 (1); and
2 to create 941.29 (1g) (ah), 941.29 (1m) (ag), 941.29 (1m) (cm), 971.17 (1g) (b)
3 and 973.136 of the statutes; relating to: the possession of a firearm by a person
4 who has committed a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence and providing 5 a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits a person from possessing a firearm if he or she has been convicted of a felony or found not guilty of a felony by reason of mental disease or defect. In addition, federal law prohibits a person from possessing a firearm if he or she has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence; under current law there is no comparable state prohibition. Under this bill, state law would also prohibit a person from possessing a firearm if he or she has been convicted of, or found not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect for, a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence. A person who violates the prohibition is guilty of a felony and is subject to a fine of up to $25,000 or a term of imprisonment of up to 10 years, or both, which is the same penalty that is imposed when a felon violates the prohibition against possessing a firearm.

For purposes of this bill, a “misdemeanor crime of domestic violence” is one of the following:

1. Misdemeanor battery, fourth-degree sexual assault, or endangering safety by use of a dangerous weapon if the perpetrator is an adult and commits one of those crimes against a member of his or her family, against his or her former spouse or a person with whom he or she has had a dating relationship, or against a person with whom he or she has a child in common.

2. Disorderly conduct if the perpetrator is an adult who engaged in violent or abusive conduct to harm, intimidate, or threaten a member of his or her family, his or her former spouse or a person with whom he or she has had a dating relationship, or a person with whom he or she has a child in common.

3. Any other misdemeanor if the perpetrator is an adult and commits the misdemeanor against a member of his or her family, against his or her former spouse or a person with whom he or she has had a dating relationship, or against a person with whom he or she has a child in common if the court increased the penalty for the misdemeanor because the perpetrator committed it while possessing, using, or threatening to use a dangerous weapon.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
