Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill eliminates the following obsolete statutory references:

1. References to the commissioner of banking. In 1995 Wisconsin Act 27, the Office of the Commissioner of Banking was eliminated and replaced by a new Division of Banking in the newly created Department of Financial Institutions.
2. References to the Wisconsin Credit Union Savings Insurance Corporation. The Wisconsin Credit Union Savings Insurance Corporation was eliminated in 2005 Wisconsin Act 134.
3. References to federal agencies formerly involved in matters relating to financial institution insolvency and to a mortgage rate index formerly computed by one such agency.
4. References to the National Credit Union Administration in the context of certain federal regulations, such that a credit union must comply with federal
