

common liability resulting from such joint negligence. To recover on the basis of contribution, nonintentional negligent tort-feasors must have a common liability to a third person at the time of the accident created by their concurring negligence. Situations like those of Rusch v. Korth may give rise to a claim for subrogation in equity, but on principle cannot be based on the equitable principles governing contribution. Farmers M. A. Ins. Co. v. Milwaukee A. Ins. Co. 8 W (2d) 512, 99 NW (2d) 746.

This chapter applies to a tort release only when the release expressly incorporates or refers to the chapter or the intent of the parties is so inadequately expressed that resort to the chapter is necessary to determine the intent. Pierringer v. Hoyer, 21 W (2d) 182, 124 NW (2d) 106.

113.05 History: 1927 c. 235; Stats. 1927 s. 113.05.

An injured person can have but one satisfaction for his injuries, and therefore the amount paid by a joint tort-feasor in whose favor a covenant not to sue was given will be regarded as a satisfaction pro tanto as to the joint tort-feasors. Haase v. Employers Mut. Liability Ins. Co. 250 W 422, 27 NW (2d) 468.

Where plaintiff alleged negligence against 2 defendants, and released one before trial and satisfied the cause of action against that one to the extent of one half of the damages, and the other was held 100 per cent liable, the judgment must be reduced by half, where plaintiff did not amend the complaint to charge only the other defendant. No proof was put in to show the released defendant's negligence, but the uncontradicted complaint suffices, and hence on the record they were joint tort-feasors. Kerkhoff v. American Automobile Ins. Co. 14 W (2d) 236, 111 NW (2d) 91.

Where the defendant building contractor had actually paid the sum of $4,500 to the plaintiff in return for a complete discharge, including any obligation by way of contribution, and the plaintiff had agreed to protect the contractor from being obligated to pay any larger amount than the $4,500 either to the plaintiff or anyone else, the granting of contribution in such case would encourage needless circuitry, and the judgment to be entered on the award of $12,275.17 for damages and costs should therefore be for one half of the original judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the nonsettling tort-feasor only, so that in effect such amount will be one half of the judgment, or $6,137.58, without right of contribution. Lee v. Junkans, 18 W (2d) 56, 117 NW (2d) 614.

As to the effect of various types of releases see Pierringer v. Hoyer, 21 W (2d) 182, 124 NW (2d) 106.

Where services were rendered for the benefit of a partnership, as an incident of its business, and at the request of a partner since deceased, and there was no assertion that he lacked authority to act, the obligation to pay for the services was a partnership obligation under 123.06, but the creditor could file a claim against the estate of the deceased partner, without first resorting to the partnership assets, even though the partnership was not insolvent and its assets were sufficient to pay all partnership debts. Estate of Bloomer, 2 W (2d) 623, 87 NW (2d) 531.

The evidence sustained findings that the defendant's airplane pilots, knowing of the location of the plaintiff's mink farm near the defendant's commercial airport and of the dangers from low flying over the mink farm, flew over the farm during the whelping season at an altitude unnecessarily low and lower than permitted by flying regulations, and caused the female mink to become frightened and destroy their kits; and such low flying, causing damages, was an actionable wrong for which the defendant was liable. The plaintiffs, in locating their mink farm near the defendant's airport after the airport had been in operation for many years, did not assume the risk or contribute to the loss of mink occasioned by the defendant's planes flying at an unlawful altitude over the plaintiff's property. Maitland v. Twin City Aviation Corp. 254 W 541, 37 NW (2d) 74.

Milwaukee county is a municipality for airport purposes and as such it has the power to pass ordinances and promulgate rules and regulations for the proper exercise of the governmental functions in connection with an airport which it owns and operates, although the land area over which the county exercises its jurisdiction is physically located within the boundaries of other municipalities, including the city of Milwaukee. Courtesy Cab Co. v. Johnson, 10 W (2d) 426, 103 NW (2d) 17.

114.11 History: 1929 c. 348 s. 3; Stats. 1929 s. 114.11; 1937 c. 381; 1943 c. 269; 1945 c. 74; 1947 c. 437.

An ordinance of the town in which Milwaukee county's airport is located, so far as purporting to regulate contracts entered into between the county and air-line operators at the airport and contracts entered into between such air-line operators and a cab company, relating to the ground transportation of airline passengers between the airport and the city of Milwaukee, violates 27.05 and ch. 114, and unlawfully interferes with the operation of the airport by its owner, the county, which has the exclusive right to manage such airport, including the right to regulate the ground transportation to be furnished to air-line passengers arriving at and departing from the airport on the property of the county, including the entrances to and exits from the airport adjacent to a public highway. Milwaukee County v. Lake, 259 W 208, 47 NW (2d) 87.

114.11, Stats. 1945, contains an unequivocal grant of authority for counties, cities, villages and towns to establish and operate airports, landing fields and landing and take-off strips; and 114.14 was not intended to deprive them of such power or to restrict it, but the latter section is concerned solely with the method of management and operation. 36 Atty. Gen. 225.

114.136, Stats. 1967, authorizes any county, city, village or town that is an airport owner to enact an ordinance regulating, restricting or determining the use of land within 3 miles from the boundaries of the airport for the purpose of protection. 57 Atty. Gen. 17.

114.14 History: 1929 c. 348 s. 3; Stats. 1929 s. 114.14; 1943 c. 269; 1949 c. 262; 1953 c. 225.

The provision in 114.14 (3) that, although contracts may be made for the operation of municipal airports, they may in no case deprive the public of equal and uniform use of the airports, applies to commercial use as well as to private or personal use. Wussow v. Gaida, 251 W 328, 29 NW (2d) 42.

A public airport owner, unless expressly authorized by the legislature, may not lawfully grant exclusive contracts for the sale of gasoline, aircraft parts, and the repair of aircraft. Such contracts stifle competition and tend to create a monopoly in the sale of essential aviation commodities and services. 38 Atty. Gen. 105.

A municipality which has established a public airport cannot delegate the power to regulate such airport to any person or agency other than an officer or agency of the municipality. 40 Atty. Gen. 264.

Where the county is the owner and operator of an airport it can lawfully lease space in its terminal building to a car rental agency upon the condition that it will not lease space to any other car rental agency, but it is doubtful whether it can lawfully exclude other rental agencies from soliciting business in the airport or terminal unless such regulation can be shown to be necessary for the convenience of the flying public or the efficiency of the operation of the airport. 47 Atty. Gen. 29.

Wisconsin cities, towns, villages and counties have authority under the provisions of chs. 67 and 114, Stats. 1947, to undertake to carry out airport projects with federal aid. 36 Atty. Gen. 571.

The legislature has full power to authorize or order any municipality to designate the state aeronautics commission as its agent for the execution of the airport project. 37 Atty. Gen. 148.

Pursuant to this section a Wisconsin municipality, acting through the state aeronautics commission as its agent, may construct an airport project by force account without prior bids provided that the United States' share of costs does not exceed $15,000. This authority constitutes an exception to 61.54. 37 Atty. Gen. 152.

On eminent domain see notes to various sections of ch. 32.

Where the state aeronautics commission instituted condemnation proceedings under 114.33 (6) for the taking of farmland for a municipal airport, and proposed to take possession of the land and remove buildings and topsoil, the landowners' legal remedy by way of statutory appeal from the condemnation awards to the county judge and then to the circuit court was inadequate in the matter of removal of buildings and topsoil, so that the landowners had a right to maintain a separate action in circuit court to enjoin condemnor in respect thereto, without being first required to resort to the legal remedy, and the circuit court had jurisdiction of the subject matter, including questions as to constitutionality of condemnation statute; but the landowners' legal remedy by way of appeal proceedings was adequate in the matter of raising questions of procedural defects such as the condemnor's failure to negotiate in good faith for purchase of the land before recording the condemnation awards. Ferguson v. Kenosha, 5 W (2d) 556, 93 NW (2d) 460.

Between meetings of the state aeronautics commission the director is required to exercise the powers of the commission under 114.30 (3). State v. Berg, 9 W (2d) 642, 101 NW (2d) 667.

In an action involving the validity of the acquisition of land by condemnation for an airport site it must be presumed that the procedure followed in acquiring the land was regular and in full compliance with statutory requirements, in the absence of anything appearing to the contrary in the case. State v. Berg, 9 W (2d) 642, 101 NW (2d) 667.

114.33, 114.34 and 114.35, Stats. 1947, do not authorize the state to become a co-sponsor of any airport project. 37 Atty. Gen. 148.

A municipality cannot unilaterally interrupt and abandon an airport project initiated under 114.33, Stats. 1963. 53 Atty. Gen. 108.

Funds allotted by the state aeronautics commission to municipalities from the appropriation created by 20.053 (1) (b), Stats. 1947, constitute "sponsor's funds" under state law. State-aid funds are validly appropriated to the state aeronautics commission. 37 Atty. Gen. 148.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Editor's Notes: (1) The school laws have undergone 2 revisions. The 1953 revision largely rearranged Chs. 39 and 40. A conversion table showing the source of the new sections was printed ahead of Ch. 39 in Wis. Annotations, 1960. The section histories in that volume also show the legislative history prior to 1953, where it could be traced, and show the histories from 1953 to 1959. A researcher should also check the histories printed in the 1961, 1963 and 1965 editions of the statutes to determine whether any particular section was amended during those years.

(2) In 1967, the revision moved the school laws to Chs. 115 to 121. The following conversion table shows the source of the new sections from the prior sections of Wis. Statutes, 1965.

CHAPTER 115.

State Superintendent; General Classifications and Definitions; Handicapped Children.

115.01 History: 1967 c. 92; Stats.; 1967 s. 115.01; 1969 c. 276.

Legislative Council Note, 1967: Sub. (1) identical to s. 40.01 (1).

Sub. (2) revises s. 40.01 (2) and specifies that references to elementary grades includes kindergarten, where applicable. The sentence which reads "A common school is an elementary school" is deleted, because the term "common school" is not used in this title and makes references to "common school districts" confusing.

Sub. (4) restates s. 40.01 (3) (4th sentence).

Sub. (5) identical to s. 40.01 (4).

Sub. (6) identical to s. 40.01 (7).

Sub. (7) restates s. 40.01 (8) and excepts summer school from the definition.

Sub. (8) like s. 40.01 (9).

Sub. (9) identical to s. 40.45 (1) (intro.) (1st sentence).

Sub. (10) restates and rearranges s. 40.45 (1).

Sub. (11) restates s. 40.01 (15).

Sub. (12) identical to s. 40.01 (5).

Sub. (13) based on s. 40.01 (6) and deletes s.
