Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill is explained in the NOTES provided by the joint legislative council in the bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

PREFATORY NOTE: Under current law, s. 161.48 provides that if any person is convicted of a 2nd or subsequent offense under ch. 161, the authorized maximum fine and maximum period of imprisonment for the offense are doubled. Also, for certain specified offenses, the minimum and maximum fines and periods of imprisonment are doubled. In addition, the statute provides that a 2nd or subsequent offense under s. 161.41 (3m), (3n), (3p) or (3r) is a felony.

In State v. Young, 180 Wis. 2d 700, 511 N.W. 2d 309 (Ct. App. 1993), the court of appeals held that under this statute, a prosecutor does not have discretion as to whether to charge a person as a 2nd or subsequent offender if that person has had a prior conviction for an offense under ch. 161. In Young, the defendant, who had been convicted of a ch. 161 offense in 1988, was again charged in 1992 with a crime under ch. 161. Prior to the scheduled trial date, the parties agreed to a plea bargain in which the prosecutor agreed to strike the penalty enhancer under s. 161.48 by not charging the defendant as a 2nd or subsequent offender. The trial court state that this was not permissible under the statute because no action is required by the prosecutor before the defendant's increased exposure as a repeat offender subject to the penalty enhancers is triggered. The court of appeals in Young upheld the trial court's interpretation of s. 161.48.

This bill amends s. 161.48 to provide that applicable prior convictions may be alleged in the complaint, indictment or information or in amendments to the complaint, indictment or information at any time prior to the entry of a guilty plea or the commencement of trial. The district attorney may also amend a complaint, information or indictment prior to the entry of a guilty plea or the commencement of trial, to withdraw a charge that a person is a 2nd or subsequent offender.
