March 22, 2001 – Introduced by Representatives KRUG, BLACK, BOCK, TRAVIS and HUBER. Referred to Committee on Census and Redistricting.

1 Relating to: limiting the amount that the assembly may spend for contracted
2 services in the redistricting of congressional and legislative districts.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This assembly resolution limits the amount that the assembly may spend for contracted services in the redistricting of congressional and legislative districts.

3 Resolved by the assembly, That:

4 SECTION 1. Limit on redistricting expenditures.

5 (1) LEGISLATIVE FISCAL BUREAU REPORT. (a) The legislative fiscal bureau shall 6 determine the amount spent by the assembly in 1990, 1991, and 1992 for contracted
7 services, other than for those performed by employees of the Wisconsin legislature
8 in the performance of their regular job responsibilities, to assist the assembly, its 9 committees, and its members in the redistricting of congressional and legislative 10 districts.

1 (b) The legislative fiscal bureau shall multiply the amount determined under 2 paragraph (a) by the average annual growth in Wisconsin personal income for the 3 most recent 4 calendar years minus 1%.

4 (c) The legislative fiscal bureau shall sum the amounts determined under 5 paragraphs (a) and (b) and report the sum to the assembly committee on 6 organization.

7 (2) LIMIT ON EXPENDITURES. The assembly may not spend in 2000, 2001, and 8 2002 for contracted services, other than for those performed by employees of the 9 Wisconsin legislature in the performance of their regular job responsibilities, to 10 assist the assembly, its committees, and its members in the redistricting of 11 congressional and legislative districts, more the amount reported under subsection 12 (1) (c).
