Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits a person from intentionally and publicly mutilating, defiling, or casting contempt upon the flag, which is defined to include the U.S. flag, the U.S. shield, the U.S. coat of arms, the Wisconsin state flag, or a copy, picture, or representation of any of these things. However, this law was held to be unconstitutional by the Wisconsin Supreme Court in State v. Janssen, 219 Wis. 2d 362 (1998).

This bill prohibits a person from destroying, damaging, or mutilating a U.S. flag, or causing a U.S. flag to come into contact with urine, feces, or expectoration, with the intent to cause imminent violence or a breach of the peace in circumstances in which the actor knows that his or her conduct is likely to cause violence or a breach of the peace. A person who violates this prohibition may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both. The bill also repeals the law held unconstitutional in State v. Janssen.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
