Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of sex, race, color, sexual orientation, disability, religion, national origin, marital status, family status, lawful source of income, age, or ancestry (protected class). A person who engages in an act of housing discrimination may be required to provide such relief as may be appropriate, including economic and noneconomic damages and injunctive or other equitable relief, and to pay a forfeiture of not more than $10,000, except that a person who is not a natural person may be required to pay a forfeiture of not more than $25,000 if the person has committed a previous act of housing discrimination within the preceding five years or a forfeiture of not more than $50,000 if the person has committed two or more previous acts of housing discrimination within the preceding seven years.

ASSEMBLY BILL 277

Current law also prohibits a mortgage banker, loan originator, or mortgage broker from treating a person unequally based on the person's membership in a protected class. In addition, current law prohibits a real estate broker, real estate salesperson, or time-share salesperson from treating a person unequally based on the person's sex, race, color, handicap, national origin, ancestry, marital status, or lawful source of income.

Current law, however, does not prohibit an owner of housing from requiring that a person who is seeking to buy or rent housing supply information concerning the person's family status, marital status, and financial and business status, but does prohibit an owner from requiring information concerning a person's race, color, disability, sexual orientation, ancestry, national origin, religion, creed, or, subject to an exception for housing for older persons, age.

This bill prohibits discrimination in housing on the basis of a person's status as a victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking, which is defined in the bill as the status of a person who is seeking to rent or purchase housing or of a member or prospective member of the person's household having been, or being believed by the lessor or seller of housing to be, a victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, sexual assault of a child, repeated sexual assault of a child, or stalking. The bill also prohibits an owner of housing from requiring that a person seeking to buy or rent housing supply information concerning the person's status as a victim of domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking.

"Domestic abuse" is defined under current law as the intentional infliction of physical pain, physical injury, or illness, the intentional impairment of physical condition, sexual assault, criminal damage to property, or a threat to engage in any of that conduct, by an adult family member or household member against another adult family member or household member, by an adult caregiver against an adult who is under the caregiver's care, or by an adult against his or her former spouse, an adult with whom he or she has or has had a dating relationship, or an adult with whom he or she has a child in common.
