

2009 SENATE BILL 100

March 3, 2009 – Introduced by Senators TAYLOR and RISSER, cosponsored by Representative HEBL, by request of Wisconsin Judicial Council. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, Corrections, Insurance, Campaign Finance Reform, and Housing.

1 AN ACT to amend 971.31 (10); and to create 808.03 (3) and 938.297 (8) of the 2 statutes; relating to: appellate procedure.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

In criminal cases, current law permits the review of an order denying a motion to suppress evidence or a motion challenging admissibility of a defendant's statement as part of an appeal from a conviction, notwithstanding the fact that the judgment of conviction was entered on a guilty plea. This bill permits review of an order denying a motion to suppress evidence or a motion challenging admissibility of a statement of a defendant as part of an appeal from a final judgment or order, notwithstanding the fact that the final judgment or order was entered on an admission of guilt or a no contest plea. This bill also permits the review of orders denying a motion to suppress evidence or a motion challenging admissibility of the statement of a juvenile upon review from a final judgment or order, notwithstanding the fact that the final judgment or order was entered upon a plea of no contest or an admission to the allegations of a petition filed in cases involving juveniles alleged to be delinquent.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
