1     AN ACT to amend 111.31 (1), 111.31 (2), 111.31 (3), 111.321 and 111.322 (intro.);
2             and to create 111.367 of the statutes; relating to: prohibiting discrimination
3             in employment against an individual for signing or refusing to sign a recall 4             petition.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits discrimination in employment on the basis of age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, arrest record, conviction record, military service, use or nonuse of a lawful product off the employer's premises during nonworking hours, or declining to attend a meeting or to participate in any communication about religious or political matters.

This bill prohibits discrimination in employment against an individual who signs or refuses to sign a petition for the recall of any incumbent elective official (recall petition). The bill provides, however, that it is not employment discrimination on the basis of signing a recall petition for an employer to refuse to hire or employ an individual, to suspend or terminate the employment of an individual, or to discriminate against an individual in promotion, in compensation, or in terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because the individual signed a recall petition if the individual is a nonpartisan employee of or an applicant for nonpartisan employment with the Government Accountability Board, a legislative service agency, either house of the legislature, a community relations-social development commission, a municipal public utility, the Citizens Utility Board, or the Judicial

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1           SECTION 1. 111.31 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

2           111.31 (1) The legislature finds that the practice of unfair discrimination in 3 employment against properly qualified individuals by reason of their age, race, 4 creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, ancestry, sexual 5 orientation, arrest record, conviction record, military service, use or nonuse of lawful 6 products off the employer's premises during nonworking hours, signing or refusing 7 to sign a recall petition under s. 9.10, or declining to attend a meeting or to participate 8 in any communication about religious matters or political matters, substantially and 9 adversely affects the general welfare of the state. Employers, labor organizations, 10 employment agencies, and licensing agencies that deny employment opportunities 11 and discriminate in employment against properly qualified individuals solely 12 because of their age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, 13 ancestry, sexual orientation, arrest record, conviction record, military service, use or 14 nonuse of lawful products off the employer's premises during nonworking hours,
15 signing or refusing to sign a recall petition under s. 9.10, or declining to attend a 16 meeting or to participate in any communication about religious matters or political

6 religious matters or political matters, and to encourage the full, nondiscriminatory 7 utilization of the productive resources of the state to the benefit of the state, the 8 family, and all the people of the state. It is the intent of the legislature in 9 promulgating this subchapter to encourage employers to evaluate an employee or 10 applicant for employment based upon the individual qualifications of the employee 11 or applicant rather than upon a particular class to which the individual may belong.

12 SECTION 3. 111.31 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 111.31 (3) In the interpretation and application of this subchapter, and 14 otherwise, it is declared to be the public policy of the state to encourage and foster
15 to the fullest extent practicable the employment of all properly qualified individuals 16 regardless of age, race, creed, color, disability, marital status, sex, national origin, 17 ancestry, sexual orientation, arrest record, conviction record, military service, use or

19 signing or refusing to sign a recall petition under s. 9.10, or declining to attend a
20 meeting or to participate in any communication about religious matters or political 21 matters. Nothing in this subsection requires an affirmative action program to 22 correct an imbalance in the work force. This subchapter shall be liberally construed 23 for the accomplishment of this purpose.
