2 of the statutes; relating to: federalizing the treatment of capital losses.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the maximum amount of a capital loss that may be deducted from income each year is $500; the federal limit is $3,000.

For taxable years beginning on January 1, 2014, this bill federalizes the treatment of capital losses by eliminating the $500 annual limit on capital loss deductions.

Because this bill relates to an exemption from state or local taxes, it may be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions for a report to be printed as an appendix to the bill.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
