This bill creates an increased penalty for certain batteries or threats. Under current law, no person may intentionally cause bodily harm to a law enforcement officer acting in an official capacity, if the actor knows or has reason to know that the victim is a law enforcement officer. Under current law, no one may intentionally cause or threaten bodily harm to a judge or a member of a judge's family if the person knows that the person harmed or threatened is a judge or a family member of the judge and the person who causes or threatens harm does so while the judge is acting in his or her official capacity or as a response to an official action by the judge. A person who commits any of these acts is guilty of a Class H felony and may be fined not more than $10,000, imprisoned for not more than six years, or both.

Under this bill, a person who intentionally causes or threatens bodily harm to a judge, a prosecutor, a public defender, or a law enforcement officer, or who intentionally causes or threatens bodily harm to a family member of any of those persons, is guilty of Class H felony if the person knows or should know that the victim is a judge, prosecutor, public defender, or law enforcement officer, or family member
