11 law.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes various changes in the unemployment insurance law, which is administered by the Department of Workforce Development. Significant changes include:

EMPLOYERS, CONTRIBUTIONS, AND FINANCEMisclassification; assessments and penalties

Under current law, an employer engaged in construction projects or in the painting or drywall finishing of buildings or other structures who willfully provides false information to DWD for the purpose of misclassifying or attempting to misclassify an individual who is an employee of the employer as a nonemployee under the UI law is subject to a criminal fine of $25,000 for each violation. Similar penalties apply to such employers who so act with the intent to evade any requirement of the worker's compensation law or the fair employment law. DWD is required to promulgate rules defining what constitutes a willful misclassification of an employee as a nonemployee for purposes of each of these provisions.

This bill does the following with respect to these provisions:

1. Repeals the prohibitions that apply with respect to the worker's compensation law and the fair employment law, as well as the requirement that DWD promulgate rules defining what constitutes a willful misclassification of an employee as a nonemployee for purposes of these provisions.

2. Requires DWD to assess an administrative penalty against such an employer who knowingly and intentionally provides false information to DWD for the purpose of misclassifying or attempting to misclassify an individual who is an employee of the employer as a nonemployee under the UI law. The bill provides for a penalty of $500 for each employee who is misclassified, not to exceed $7,500 per incident, and requires DWD to consider certain factors in determining whether an employer committed a violation.

3. Revises the current prohibition regarding such employers who provide false information to misclassify an individual under the UI law so that the bill 1) changes the standard from “willfully“ providing such false information to “knowingly and intentionally” doing so; 2) requires, as an element of the crime, that the employer was previously assessed a penalty by DWD for providing such false information; and 3) revises the penalty to be $1,000 for each employee who is misclassified, subject to a maximum fine of $25,000 for each violation.

In addition, the bill requires DWD to assess an administrative penalty against such an employer who, through coercion, requires an individual to adopt the status of a nonemployee in the amount of $1,000 for each individual so coerced, but not to exceed $10,000 per calendar year.

Program integrity assessment

Currently, all employers that engage employees in work that is covered under UI, other than governmental, nonprofit, and Indian tribal employers that elect to pay directly for the cost of benefits, must pay taxes to finance UI benefits. An employer’s contributions are assessed based on the employer’s contribution rate and the employer’s solvency rate, each of which varies with the employment stability of the employer and the solvency of the state’s unemployment reserve fund. An employer’s contributions payable as a result of the employer’s contribution rate are credited to the employer’s account in the fund, while an employer’s contributions payable as a result of the employer’s solvency rate are credited to the fund’s balancing account, which is used to fund benefits not payable from any employer’s account.

In addition to these contributions, this bill levies an annual assessment on each employer that is currently subject to a contribution requirement in the amount of 0.01 percent (or a lower rate if prescribed by DWD) of an employer’s taxable payroll for each year, unless the employer is not required to pay a solvency contribution. An assessed employer’s solvency rate is then reduced by the amount of the assessment rate. The levy is not effective for any year unless DWD, no later than the November 30 preceding that year, publishes a class 1 notice giving notice that the levy is in effect for the ensuing year. DWD must consider the balance of the state’s unemployment reserve fund before prescribing the levy, and the secretary of workforce development must consult with the Council on Unemployment Insurance before DWD prescribes a levy. Under the bill, assessments are deposited in the unemployment program integrity fund and must therefore, as provided under current law, be used for payment of costs associated with program integrity activities.

Transfer of moneys from the unemployment interest payment fund

Under current law, an employer must pay an assessment to the state unemployment interest payment fund at a rate established by DWD that is sufficient to pay interest due on advances from the federal government from the federal unemployment account in the federal unemployment trust fund. Such advances are made when the state’s unemployment reserve fund is depleted. If the assessments collected are in excess of the amounts needed to pay interest due, DWD must use any excess to pay interest owed in subsequent years on advances from the federal unemployment account. However, if DWD determines that additional interest obligations are unlikely, DWD must transfer the excess to the unemployment reserve fund's balancing account.

This bill instead provides that DWD must transfer the excess in the state unemployment interest payment fund to the balancing account, the unemployment program integrity fund, or both in amounts determined by DWD.

Charging of benefits financed by reimbursable employers in cases of identity theft

Under current law, UI benefits are financed by employers in one of two ways:

1. Through contribution financing, under which an account in the state's unemployment reserve fund is maintained for an employer; the employer pays contributions, which are deposited into that account in the fund; and benefits for employees of the employer who file claims for UI benefits are generally financed by that employer's account in the fund. Such employers must additionally pay solvency contributions, which are credited to the fund's balancing account.

2. Through reimbursement financing, under which an employer reimburses the fund directly for benefits for employees of the employer who file claims for UI benefits. Reimbursable financing is available only to public employers, nonprofit organizations, and Indian tribes. In the case of reimbursement financing, DWD maintains a reimbursement "employer account" for each employer as a "subaccount" of the fund's balancing account.

Current law provides that if benefits charged to the account of an employer subject to contribution financing have been erroneously paid to an employee without fault by the employer, DWD must, to correct the payment if not otherwise adjusted, restore the proper amount to the employer's account in the fund and charge that amount to the fund's balancing account. With respect to employers subject to reimbursement financing, however, current law does provide for restoring the proper amount to the employer's account and charging that amount to the fund's balancing account. These provisions in current law do not distinguish between instances in which benefit payments are erroneously paid to an employee who received the payments and instances in which the erroneous payment resulted from a false statement or representation about an individual's identity (i.e., cases of identity theft in which a third party, and not the employee, receives the benefit payments).

This bill provides that, with respect to UI benefits financed by an employer subject to reimbursement financing, if an erroneous payment of UI benefits results from a false statement or representation about an individual's identity and the employer was not at fault for the erroneous payment, DWD must restore the proper amount to the employer's account in the balancing account.

In addition, the bill requires DWD to do all of the following:

1. Set aside $2,000,000 in the fund's balancing account for accounting purposes and, on an ongoing basis, tally the amounts restored to reimbursable employers' accounts as provided under the bill and deduct those amounts from the amount set aside plus any interest calculated thereon.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819

2. Annually determine the amount remaining of the amount set aside plus interest and the amount restored to reimbursable employers' accounts as provided under the bill in the preceding calendar year.

3. Once there is less than $100,000 remaining of the amount set aside plus interest, begin proportionally assessing reimbursable employers for the total amount restored to reimbursable employers' accounts as provided under the bill in the preceding calendar year, subject to certain exceptions as specified in the bill. DWD may pursue recovery of unpaid assessments as with other amounts.

The bill requires DWD to annually report to the Council on Unemployment Insurance the amount remaining of the amount set aside and the amount restored to reimbursable employers' accounts as provided under the bill in the preceding calendar year.

Personal liability of partners in LLCs and others for UI contributions

Current law allows DWD, in certain circumstances, to hold an individual who is an officer, employee, member, or manager holding at least 20 percent of the ownership interest of a corporation or of a limited liability company personally liable for UI contributions and certain other amounts. This bill adds partners and other responsible persons to the list of persons who may be held personally liable, and allows such a person to be held liable if the person has a 20 percent ownership interest in other forms of business associations, as well as corporations and LLCs.

Repeal of program integrity fund sunset

2013 Wisconsin Act 36 provided for the sunset (repeal) of the establishment of the program integrity fund and related provisions, effective January 1, 2034.

This bill repeals the sunset of the program integrity fund and related provisions so that the program integrity fund and related provisions will continue to exist beyond January 1, 2034.

Fiscal agent for child not an employer

Under current law, a person receiving certain long-term support services through a county department or aging unit may be provided the services of a fiscal agent, either from the county department or aging unit or through a fiscal intermediary with which the county department or aging unit contracts. The fiscal agent is responsible for complying with the person's duties as an employer under the UI law. However, current law specifies that, for the purposes of the UI law, a county department or aging unit that serves as a fiscal agent or contracts with a fiscal intermediary is not considered an employer as to an individual performing services for the person receiving those long-term support services. 2015 Wisconsin Act 55 also provides for such fiscal agent services for a child or a child's parent if the child receives community support services through a county department under the children's community options program. This bill also excludes from the definition of employer under the UI law such a county department that serves as a fiscal agent or that contracts with a fiscal intermediary under the children's community options program.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819BENEFITS AND BENEFIT CLAIMSFailure to accept suitable work when offered; good cause for such failure

Under current law, if a claimant for UI benefits fails, without good cause, to accept suitable work when offered, the claimant is ineligible to receive benefits until he or she earns wages after the week in which the failure occurs equal to at least six times the claimant's weekly UI benefit rate in covered employment. Current law specifies, for purposes of this provision, that a claimant has good cause for such a failure to accept suitable work if DWD determines that the failure involved work at a lower grade of skill or a significantly lower rate of pay than applied to the claimant on one or more recent jobs, and that the claimant had not yet had a reasonable opportunity, in view of labor market conditions and the claimant's degree of skill, to seek a new job substantially in line with the claimant's prior job skill and rate of pay. This provision specifying what constitutes good cause, however, applies only with respect to six weeks after the claimant became unemployed. In addition current law requires DWD to define by rule what constitutes suitable work for claimants, with the rule specifying different levels of suitable work based upon the number of weeks that a claimant has received benefits in a given benefit year.

The bill deletes the language in current law specifying what constitutes good cause and the provision requiring DWD to define by rule what constitutes suitable work for claimants and instead provides all of the following with respect to failures to accept suitable work when offered:

1. That with respect to the first six weeks after the claimant became unemployed, "suitable work" means work that 1) is not at a lower grade of skill than that which applied to the claimant on one or more of his or her most recent jobs; and 2) would have had an hourly wage that was 75 percent or more of what the claimant earned on the highest paying of his or her most recent jobs.

2. That with respect to the seventh week after the claimant became unemployed and any week thereafter, "suitable work" means any work that the claimant is capable of performing, regardless of whether the claimant has any relevant experience or training, that pays wages that are above the lowest quartile of wages for similar work in the labor market area in which the work is located, as determined by DWD.

3. That a claimant has good cause for failing to accept suitable work if DWD determines that the failure related to the claimant's personal safety, the claimant's sincerely held religious beliefs, or an unreasonable commuting distance, or if the claimant had another compelling reason that would have made accepting the offer unreasonable.

Concealment by claimants

Under current law, if a claimant for UI benefits conceals any material fact relating to his or her eligibility for UI benefits or conceals any of his or her wages or hours worked, the claimant is ineligible for benefits in an amount ranging from two to eight times the claimant's weekly benefit rate, depending on the number of acts of concealment committed, for each single act of concealment, and is also liable for an additional administrative penalty. For purposes of these provisions, current law defines "conceal" to mean intentionally misleading or defrauding DWD by withholding or hiding information or making a false statement or misrepresentation. This bill does the following with respect to acts of concealment by claimants for UI benefits:

1. Deletes the reference to defrauding DWD from the definition of “conceal,” so that “conceal” is defined as intentionally misleading DWD by withholding or hiding information or making a false statement or misrepresentation.

2. Provides that a claimant has a duty of care to provide an accurate and complete response to each inquiry made by DWD in connection with his or her receipt of UI benefits. In addition, the bill requires DWD, in determining whether a claimant intended to mislead DWD, to consider various factors specified in the bill as well as any other factor that may provide evidence of the claimant’s intent.

3. Specifically provides that, when making a finding of concealment, DWD is not required to determine or prove that a claimant had an intent or design to receive UI benefits to which the claimant knows he or she was not entitled.

Concurrent receipt of UI and SSDI

Current law provides that any individual who actually receives social security disability insurance (SSDI) benefits in a given week is ineligible for UI benefits paid or payable in that same week.

This bill modifies current law with respect to the concurrent receipt of UI and SSDI benefits. Specifically, the bill provides that an individual is ineligible for UI benefits for each week in a month in which an SSDI payment is issued to the individual, but subject to the following: 1) in the first month an SSDI payment is first issued to an individual, the individual is ineligible for UI benefits for each week beginning with the week the SSDI payment is issued to the individual and for all subsequent weeks in that month; 2) following a cessation of SSDI payments to an individual and upon the individual again being issued an SSDI payment, the individual is ineligible for UI benefits for each week beginning with the week the SSDI payment is issued to the individual and all subsequent weeks in that month; and 3) following cessation of SSDI payments, the individual may be eligible for UI benefits, if otherwise qualified, beginning with the week following the last Saturday of the month in which the individual is issued his or her final SSDI payment.

The bill provides that the modifications take effect retroactively to January 5, 2014.

Eligibility for UI when receiving worker’s compensation payments

Under current law, an individual who receives a temporary total disability worker’s compensation payment for a whole week is ineligible for UI benefits for that same week, unless otherwise provided by federal law. The bill similarly provides that an individual who receives a permanent total disability worker’s compensation payment for a whole week is ineligible for UI benefits for that same week, unless otherwise provided by federal law.

Also under current law, a temporary total disability or temporary partial disability worker’s compensation payment for part of a week is treated as wages for purposes of eligibility for partial UI benefits. The bill similarly provides that a permanent total disability worker’s compensation payment for part of a week is treated as wages for purposes of eligibility for partial UI benefits.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819ADMINISTRATION, ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW, AND OTHER CHANGESAdministrative and judicial review of UI decisions

Under current law, initial determinations regarding UI matters are made by DWD. Those determinations may be appealed to appeal tribunals (ALJs), and a tribunal's decision may be appealed to the Labor and Industry Review Commission. A decision of LIRC may then be appealed to circuit court. Under current law, judicial review of UI decisions is largely governed by the judicial review provisions in the worker's compensation law. This bill makes a number of changes to the processes under current law for issuing and appealing decisions, determinations, and orders under the UI law, including the following:

1. If a party fails to appear at a hearing on the merits of a UI determination, current law provides for a hearing on the issue of whether a party had good cause for failing to appear at the hearing. The bill allows an ALJ to issue, without a hearing, a decision on the issue of whether a party to a determination had good cause for failing to appear at such a hearing. The bill allows the ALJ to make the decision based upon the party's explanation for failing to appear, as well as any response submitted to that explanation by the opposing party. The bill allows the opposing party seven days to submit such a response to the party's explanation for failing to appear.

2. The bill allows for the electronic delivery of UI determinations and decisions, in addition to or instead of mailing.

3. Under current law, all testimony at UI hearings before ALJs must be taken down by a stenographer, or recorded by a recording machine. The bill instead provides that all such testimony must be recorded by electronic means and allows LIRC to use the electronic recording in a review of an ALJ's decision. As under current law, the bill allows a party, for a fee, to request a transcript of the hearing.

4. The bill establishes distinct provisions for the judicial review of UI decisions, which are similar to the provisions under the worker's compensation law that currently apply but also include 1) that DWD or any party may commence an action for the judicial review of a LIRC UI decision, but that DWD is not required to exhaust its available remedies in order to commence an action; 2) expressly providing that DWD must be a party in all actions for judicial review of UI decisions, including benefit cases; 3) that, unless the parties agree otherwise, proceedings for the judicial review of a LIRC UI decision must be brought in the circuit court for the county where the plaintiff resides, except that if the plaintiff is DWD, the proceedings must be brought in the circuit court for the county where a defendant that is not LIRC resides; and 4) requiring LIRC to transmit the record of proceedings to the circuit court within 60 days after making an appearance.

Revisions to provisions concerning ability to work and availability for work

As a general qualifying requirement to receive UI benefits, current law provides that, subject to certain exceptions, a claimant is eligible for UI benefits as to any given week only if the claimant is able to work and available for work during that week. The bill eliminates other, duplicative language in the UI law that similarly provides that a claimant is ineligible for UI benefits while unable to work or unavailable for work.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819

Also under current law, unless an exemption applies, if a claimant voluntarily terminates his or her work with an employer, the claimant is generally ineligible to receive benefits until certain requalification requirements are satisfied. One such exemption applies if the claimant terminated his or her work but had no reasonable alternative because he or she was unable to do his or her work, or if the claimant terminated his or her work because of the verified illness or disability of an immediate family member that reasonably necessitates the care of the family member for a period of time that is longer than the employer is willing to grant leave. The exemption further provides that if the claimant is unable to work or unavailable for work, he or she is ineligible to receive benefits while such inability or unavailability continues. The bill 1) eliminates the duplicative language providing that the claimant is ineligible for UI benefits while unable to work or unavailable for work; and 2) divides the exemption into two separate exemptions, one of which applies if the claimant terminated his or her work but had no reasonable alternative because of the verified illness or disability of the employee, and another which applies if the claimant terminated his or her work because of the verified illness or disability of an immediate family member and the verified illness or disability reasonably necessitates the care of the family member for a period of time that is longer than the employer is willing to grant leave.

Elimination of statutory benefit rate tables and adjustment language

Under current law, UI weekly benefit rate schedules are published in the statutes. The schedules illustrate the results of the formula for calculating weekly benefit amounts and establish minimum and maximum weekly benefit rates. Current law requires DWD to adjust the minimum and maximum weekly benefit rates, but a separate provision indefinitely suspends this adjustment requirement.

This bill repeals the UI benefit rate schedules contained in the statutes showing the results of the formula for calculating weekly benefit amounts and instead requires DWD to publish and maintain such schedules on its Internet site. The bill maintains the minimum and maximum weekly benefit rate amounts as currently established in the schedules. The bill repeals the provisions requiring adjustment of benefit amounts and the provision suspending those provisions.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

6 SECTION 10. 108.04 (7) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

7 108.04 (7) (e) Paragraph (a) does not apply if the department determines that 8 the employee accepted work which the employee could have failed to accept with good
9 cause under sub. (8) and terminated such work with the same good cause on the same 10 grounds and within the first 30 calendar days after starting the work, or that the 11 employee accepted work which the employee could have refused under sub. (9) and 12 terminated such work within the first 30 calendar days after starting the work. For 13 purposes of this paragraph, an employee has the same good cause grounds for 14 voluntarily terminating work if the employee could have failed to accept the work 15 under sub. (8) (d) when it was offered, regardless of the reason articulated by the 16 employee for the termination.

17 SECTION 11. 108.04 (7) (h) of the statutes is amended to read:

18 108.04 (7) (h) The department shall charge to the fund's balancing account 19 benefits paid to an employee that are otherwise chargeable to the account of an 20 employer that is subject to the contribution requirements of ss. 108.17 and 108.18
21 if the employee voluntarily terminates employment with that employer and par. (a),
22 (c), ~~(cg)~~, (e), (L), (q), (s), or (t) applies.

23 SECTION 12. 108.04 (8) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

24 108.04 (8) (c) If an employee fails, without good cause, to return to work with

1 worked for that employer, the employee is ineligible to receive benefits until the 2 employee earns wages after the week in which the failure occurs equal to at least 6
3 times the employee's weekly benefit rate under s. 108.05 (1) in employment or other 4 work covered by the unemployment insurance law of any state or the federal 5 government. For purposes of requalification, the employee's weekly benefit rate
6 shall be that rate which would have been paid had the failure not occurred. This 7 paragraph does not preclude an employee from establishing a benefit year during a 8 period in which the employee is ineligible to receive benefits under this paragraph 9 if the employee qualifies to establish a benefit year under s. 108.06 (2) (a). The 10 department shall charge to the fund's balancing account any benefits otherwise
11 chargeable to the account of any employer that is subject to the contribution
12 requirements under ss. 108.17 and 108.18 whenever an employee of that employer
13 fails, without good cause, to return to work with that employer. This paragraph does 14 not apply to an employee who fails to return to work with a former employer if the 15 work offered would not be considered suitable work under par. (d) or (dm), whichever
16 is applicable. If an employee receives actual notice of a recall to work, par. (a) applies 17 in lieu of this paragraph.

18 SECTION 13. 108.04 (8) (d) of the statutes is renumbered 108.04 (8) (d) (intro.)
19 and amended to read:

20 108.04 (8) (d) (intro.) ~~An employee shall have good cause under par. (a) or (c),~~

2 of pay than that which applied to the employee on one or more of his or her most 3 recent jobs, ~~and that the employee had not yet had a reasonable opportunity, in view~~
4 of labor market conditions and the employee's degree of skill, ~~but not to exceed 6~~

6 with the employee's prior job skill and rate of pay.

7 SECTION 14. 108.04 (8) (d) 2. of the statutes is created to read:

18 SECTION 17. 108.04 (8) (em) of the statutes is created to read:

20 if the department determines that the failure related to the employee's personal 21 safety, the employee's sincerely held religious beliefs, or an unreasonable commuting
22 distance, or if the employee had another compelling reason that would have made 23 accepting the offer unreasonable.

24 SECTION 18. 108.04 (11) (g) of the statutes is renumbered 108.04 (11) (g) 1. and
25 amended to read:

16 claimant provided evidence to the department of that limitation or disability.

17 d. The claimant’s unemployment insurance claims filing experience.

18 e. Any instructions or previous determinations of concealment issued or 19 provided to the claimant.

20 f. Any other factor that may provide evidence of the claimant’s intent.

21 3. Nothing in this subsection requires the department, when making a finding 22 of concealment, to determine or prove that a claimant had an intent or design to 23 receive benefits to which the claimant knows he or she was not entitled.

24 SECTION 20. 108.04 (12) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

14 108.09 (4) (f) 3. Unless a party or the department has filed a timely petition for 15 review of the appeal tribunal decision by the commission, the appeal tribunal may, 16 within 2 years after the date of the decision, reopen its decision if it has reason to

21 SECTION 46. 108.09 (4o) of the statutes is amended to read:

22 108.09 (4o) DEPARTMENTAL RECORDS RELATING TO BENEFIT CLAIMS. In any hearing

25 evidence, and shall be admissible to prove, that an employer provided or failed to

ASSEMBLY BILL 819SECTION 46

1 provide to the department complete and correct information in a fact-finding
2 investigation of the claim, notwithstanding that the record or a statement contained 3 in the record may be uncorroborated hearsay and may constitute the sole basis upon

6 and to rebut the information contained in the record. A record of the department that

8 require no foundational or other testimony for its admissibility, unless the 9 circumstances affirmatively indicate a lack of trustworthiness in the record. If such 10 a record is admitted and made the basis of a decision, the record may constitute 11 substantial evidence under ~~s. 102.23 (6)~~ sub. (7) (f). For purposes of this subsection,
12 "departmental record" means a memorandum, report, record, document, or data 13 compilation that has been made or maintained by employees of the department in

16 relates to the department's investigative inquiries to an employer or statements or 17 other matters submitted by the employer or its agent in connection with the 18 fact-finding investigation of a benefit claim. A departmental record may not be 19 admitted into evidence under this subsection or otherwise used under this 20 subsection for any purpose other than to prove whether an employer provided or 21 failed to provide to the department complete and correct information in a 22 fact-finding investigation of a claim.

23 SECTION 47. 108.09 (5) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

24 108.09 (5) (b) All testimony at any hearing under this section shall be taken

1 need not be transcribed unless either of the parties requests a transcript ~~prior to~~
2 before expiration of that party's right to further appeal under this section and pays
3 a fee to the commission in advance, the amount of which shall be established by rule
4 of the commission. When the commission provides a transcript is thus furnished to 5 one of the parties upon request, the commission shall also provide a copy of the 6 transcript ~~shall be furnished the~~ to all other party parties free of charge. The 7 transcript fee ~~thus~~ collected shall be paid to the administrative account.

8 SECTION 48. 108.09 (5) (c) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

9 108.09 (5) (c) The department shall furnish a copy of the electronic recording
10 to the parties upon payment of any fee required by the department by rule.

11 SECTION 49. 108.09 (5) (d) of the statutes is amended to read:

12 108.09 (5) (d) In its review of the decision of an appeal tribunal, the commission

15 hearing prepared, under the direction of the department or commission, ~~by an~~ 16 ~~employee of the department, an employee of the commission or a contractor. If a~~ 17 ~~party shows to the commission that a synopsis is not sufficiently complete and~~ 18 ~~accurate to fairly reflect the relevant and material testimony and other evidence~~
19 ~~taken, the commission shall direct the preparation of a transcript. If a transcript is~~ 20 ~~prepared, the transcript shall indicate the transcriber's name and whether the~~ 21 ~~transcriber is an employee of the department, an employee of the commission, or a~~
22 ~~contractor~~ and shall also use any other evidence taken at the hearing.

23 SECTION 50. 108.09 (6) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

24 108.09 (6) (a) The department or any party may petition the commission for 25 review of an appeal tribunal decision, pursuant to ~~commission~~ rules promulgated by

1 ~~the commission~~, if such ~~the~~ petition is received by the ~~department or~~ commission or 2 postmarked within 21 days after the appeal tribunal decision was electronically
3 delivered to the party or mailed to the party's last-known address. The commission
4 shall dismiss any petition if not timely filed unless the petitioner shows ~~probable~~ 5 good cause that the reason for having failed to file the petition timely was beyond the 6 control of the petitioner. If the petition is not dismissed, the commission may take 7 action under par. (d).

8 SECTION 51. 108.09 (6) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 108.09 (6) (b) Within 28 days after a decision of the commission is electronically
10 delivered or mailed to the parties, the commission may, on its own motion, set aside

12 SECTION 52. 108.09 (6) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 108.09 (6) (c) On its own motion, for reasons it deems sufficient, the commission 14 may set aside any final determination of the department or appeal tribunal or 15 commission decision within 2 years ~~from~~ after the date thereof upon grounds of 16 mistake or newly discovered evidence, and take action under par. (d). The 17 commission may set aside any final determination of the department or any decision
18 of an appeal tribunal or of the commission at any time, and take action under par.
19 (d), if the benefits paid or payable to a claimant have been affected by wages earned 20 by the claimant ~~which~~ that have not been paid, and the commission is provided with 21 notice from the appropriate state or federal court or agency that a wage claim for 22 those wages will not be paid in whole or in part.

23 SECTION 53. 108.09 (6) (d) of the statutes is amended to read:

24 108.09 (6) (d) In any case before the commission for action under this 25 subsection, the commission may affirm, reverse, modify, or set aside the decision on

1 the basis of the evidence previously submitted, ~~may;~~ order the taking of additional 2 evidence as to such matters as it may direct, ~~or it may;~~ or remand the matter to the 3 department for further proceedings.

4 SECTION 54. 108.09 (7) (a) and (b) of the statutes are amended to read:

5 108.09 (7) (a) ~~The department or either~~ Any party that is not the department 6 may commence an action for the judicial review of a decision of the commission under 7 this chapter after exhausting the remedies provided under this section if ~~the party~~
8 ~~or the department has commenced such action in accordance with s. 102.23 within~~ 9 ~~30 days after a decision of the commission is mailed to a party's last-known address.~~
10 The department may commence an action for the judicial review of a commission
11 decision under this section, but the department is not required to have been a party
12 to the proceedings before the commission or to have exhausted the remedies provided
13 under this section. In an action commenced under this section by a party that is not 14 the department, the department shall be a defendant and shall be named as a party
15 in the complaint commencing the action. If a plaintiff fails to name either the 16 department or the commission as defendants and serve the commission as required
17 by this subsection, the court shall dismiss the action.

18 (b) Any judicial review under this chapter shall be confined to questions of law,
19 ~~and the provisions of ch. 102 with respect to judicial review of orders and awards~~
20 ~~shall likewise apply to any decision of the commission reviewed under this section~~
21 and shall be in accordance with this subsection. In any such judicial action, the 22 commission may appear by any licensed attorney who is a salaried employee of the 23 commission and has been designated by it for ~~this~~ that purpose, or, at the 24 commission's request, by the department of justice. In any such judicial action, the

ASSEMBLY BILL 819SECTION 54

1 department may appear by any licensed attorney who is a salaried employee of the 2 department and has been designated by it for that purpose.

3 SECTION 55. 108.09 (7) (c) to (h) of the statutes are created to read:

4 108.09 (7) (c) 1. The findings of fact made by the commission acting within its 5 powers shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive. The order of the commission is 6 subject to review only as provided in this subsection and not under ch. 227 or s.
7 801.02. Within 30 days after the date of an order made by the commission, any party 8 or the department may, by serving a complaint as provided in subd. 3. and filing the 9 summons and complaint with the clerk of the circuit court, commence an action
10 against the commission for judicial review of the order. In an action for judicial 11 review of a commission order, every other party to the proceedings before the 12 commission shall be made a defendant. The department shall also be made a 13 defendant if the department is not the plaintiff. If the circuit court is satisfied that 14 a party in interest has been prejudiced because of an exceptional delay in the receipt 15 of a copy of any order, the circuit court may extend the time in which an action may 16 be commenced by an additional 30 days.

17 2. Except as provided in this subdivision, the proceedings shall be in the circuit 18 court of the county where the plaintiff resides, except that if the plaintiff is the 19 department, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court of the county where a 20 defendant other than the commission resides. The proceedings may be brought in 21 any circuit court if all parties appearing in the case agree or if the court, after notice
22 and a hearing, so orders. Commencing an action in a county in which no defendant
23 resides does not deprive the court of competency to proceed to judgment on the merits
24 of the case.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819

1 3. In such an action, a complaint shall be served with an authenticated copy
2 of the summons. The complaint need not be verified, but shall state the grounds upon 3 which a review is sought. Service upon the commission or an agent authorized by 4 the commission to accept service constitutes complete service on all parties, but there
5 shall be left with the person so served as many copies of the summons and complaint
6 as there are defendants, and the commission shall mail one copy to each other 7 defendant.

8 4. Each defendant shall serve its answer within 20 days after the service upon 9 the commission under subd. 3., which answer may, by way of counterclaim or cross
10 complaint, ask for the review of the order referred to in the complaint, with the same
11 effect as if the defendant had commenced a separate action for the review of the order.

12 5. Within 60 days after appearing in an action for judicial review, the 13 commission shall make return to the court of all documents and materials on file in 14 the matter, all testimony that has been taken, and the commission's order and 15 findings. Such return of the commission, when filed in the office of the clerk of the 16 circuit court, shall constitute a judgment roll in the action, and it shall not be 17 necessary to have a transcript approved. After the commission makes return of the 18 judgment roll to the court, the court shall schedule briefing by the parties. Any party 19 may request oral argument before the court, subject to the provisions of law for a 20 change of the place of trial or the calling in of another judge.

21 6. The court may confirm or set aside the commission's order, but may set aside 22 the order only upon one or more of the following grounds:

- 23 a. That the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.
- 24 b. That the order was procured by fraud.
- 25 c. That the findings of fact by the commission do not support the order.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819

1 (dm) The court shall disregard any irregularity or error of the commission or 2 the department unless it is made to affirmatively appear that a party was damaged
3 by that irregularity or error.

4 (e) The record in any case shall be transmitted to the commission within 5 days
5 after expiration of the time for appeal from the order or judgment of the court, unless 6 an appeal is taken from the order or judgment.

7 (f) If the commission's order depends on any fact found by the commission, the 8 court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the commission as to the weight
9 or credibility of the evidence on any finding of fact. The court may, however, set aside 10 the commission's order and remand the case to the commission if the commission's 11 order depends on any material and controverted finding of fact that is not supported 12 by credible and substantial evidence.

13 (g) Any party aggrieved by a judgment entered upon the review of any circuit
14 court order under this subsection may appeal as provided in ch. 808.

15 (h) The clerk of any court rendering a decision affecting a decision of the 16 commission shall promptly furnish all parties a copy of the decision without charge.

17 SECTION 56. 108.09 (7) (d) of the statutes is renumbered 108.09 (7) (i) and 18 amended to read:

19 108.09 (7) (i) ~~Notwithstanding ss. 102.26 (1) and 814.245, upon review of a~~
20 ~~decision of the commission under this chapter~~ No fees may be charged by the clerk 21 of any circuit court for the performance of any service required by this chapter, except 22 for the entry of judgments and for certified transcripts of judgments. In proceedings 23 to review an order under this section, costs as between the parties shall be in the 24 discretion of the court, ~~but.~~ Notwithstanding s. 814.245, no costs may be taxed
25 against the commission or the department.

ASSEMBLY BILL 819

1 SECTION 57. 108.095 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 108.095 (2) The department shall investigate whether any person has obtained
3 benefits that were payable to another person by means of any false statement or 4 representation, and may issue an initial determination concerning its findings. The 5 department shall electronically deliver a copy of the determination to, or mail a copy
6 of the determination to the last-known address of, each party affected thereby.
7 Unless designated by a determination under this section, an employing unit is not 8 a party to the determination. The department may set aside or amend the 9 determination at any time prior to a hearing concerning the determination under 10 sub. (5) on the basis of subsequent information or to correct a mistake, including an 11 error of law.

12 SECTION 58. 108.095 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 108.095 (3) Any party to a determination may appeal that determination by 14 requesting a hearing concerning any matter in that determination if the request is 15 received by the department or postmarked within 14 days after the electronic 16 delivery or mailing.

17 SECTION 59. 108.095 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

18 108.095 (7) Any party may commence an action for judicial review of a decision 19 of the commission under this section, after exhausting the remedies provided under 20 this section, by commencing the action within 30 days after the decision of the 21 commission is delivered electronically or mailed to the department and is delivered

3 accordingly. The department may set aside or amend the determination at any time 4 prior to a hearing on the determination on the basis of subsequent information or to 5 correct a mistake, including an error of law. The department shall electronically 6 deliver a copy of each determination to, or mail a copy of each determination to the 7 last-known address of, the employing unit affected thereby. The employing unit may 8 request a hearing as to any matter in that determination if the request is received 9 by the department or postmarked within 21 days after the mailing and in accordance 10 with such procedure as the department prescribes by rule.

11 SECTION 61. 108.10 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

13 established as provided by s. 108.09 (3), and s. 108.09 (4) and (5) shall be applicable
14 to the proceedings before such tribunal. The department may be a party in any 15 proceedings before an appeal tribunal. The employing unit or the department may 16 petition the commission for review of the appeal tribunal's decision under s. 108.09 17 (6).

18 SECTION 62. 108.10 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 decrease the amount of the payroll after an employment and wage report for the 11 reimbursable employer is filed under s. 108.205 (1), the department shall refund the 12 amount of any assessment that was overpaid by the reimbursable employer under 13 this section as a result of the adjustment.
