SENATE BILL 657

1 partnership law, providing an exemption from emergency rule procedures,
2 granting rule-making authority, and providing a criminal penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill adopts, with modifications, the Revised Uniform Partnership Act (1997), as last amended in 2013.

In 1914, the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL) drafted and approved the Uniform Partnership Act (1914). In 1992, NCCUSL adopted a Revised Uniform Partnership Act and, in 1993 and 1994, adopted amendments to this revised act. In 1996, NCCUSL adopted limited liability partnership (LLP) amendments to its revised act. All of these changes were combined in a Revised Uniform Partnership Act (1997). In 2013, NCCUSL, now called the Uniform Law Commission, modified the Revised Uniform Partnership Act (1997).

Current law in Wisconsin adopts the Uniform Partnership Act (1914), with modifications. One of these modifications, made in 1995 Wisconsin Act 97, allows partnerships in Wisconsin to become LLPs.

This bill repeals and recreates Wisconsin's partnership law, including the law related to LLPs, to adopt the Revised Uniform Partnership Act (1997), as last amended in 2013 (RUPA), subject to certain modifications. Many provisions of RUPA are similar to current law. For example, under both current law and RUPA, the partnership agreement provides rules of governance for the partnership and, in many instances, statutory provisions are default rules that govern the partnership only in the absence of applicable terms in the partnership agreement. However, in some instances, the terms of the partnership agreement may not vary from statutory requirements. Also under both current law and RUPA, a filing with the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) is not required to form a partnership, but a filing is required for a partnership to become an LLP.

Some of the significant changes to current law made by RUPA, as adopted under this bill, are discussed below.

Partnership as distinct legal entity

Under this bill, a partnership is a distinct legal entity, not merely an aggregation of individual partners. Accordingly, instead of a partner being a co-owner of partnership property as a tenant in partnership, the partnership entity generally holds the only ownership interest in partnership property and each partner's interest in the property is derivative through the partner's interest in the partnership. The bill also specifies that a partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

Partnership agreement and partnership formation

Current law specifies certain rules that apply to the rights and duties of partners in relation to the partnership, subject to any agreement between the partners.

SENATE BILL 657

This bill provides more specific guidance, in comparison with current law, as to when the provisions of a partnership agreement override contrary statutory provisions and when they do not. Under the bill, subject to certain exceptions discussed below, the partnership agreement governs relations among the partners as partners and between the partners and the partnership; the business of the partnership and the conduct of that business; and the means and conditions for amending the partnership agreement. On these topics, statutory provisions govern only in the absence of an applicable provision in the partnership agreement. However, the bill imposes certain restrictions on the terms of a partnership agreement. Among these restrictions, a partnership agreement may not vary from certain statutory provisions relating to the grounds for expulsion of a partner by judicial order; the causes of dissolution; requirements for winding up the partnership's business; requirements for DFI filings or for an LLP's registered agent; lawsuits by and against partners and the partnership; a partner's right of access to partnership books and information; a partner's fiduciary and other duties (discussed further below); and the applicable law governing an LLP's internal affairs and the liability of its partners. The partnership agreement also governs the obligations of the partnership and its partners to a person dissociated as a partner and to a person to whom a partner's interest (right to receive partnership distributions) has been transferred.

Although current law does not require the filing of a certificate or articles with DFI to form a partnership, it does allow partnership agreements and amendments to these agreements, as well as notices of partnership dissolution, to be recorded with the register of deeds in the county where the partnership is located.

As under current law, this bill does not require the filing of a certificate or articles with DFI to form a partnership, but the bill allows a partnership to voluntarily file with DFI various types of statements, including a statement of partnership authority. This statement may grant or limit, for purposes of a third-party dealing with the partnership, authority of a partner to act as an agent of the partnership and to enter into transactions on behalf of the partnership. In this statement, the partnership may identify the authority of any person or position (which covers all persons holding that position) or identify limitations on the authority of a person or position. The statement of authority is effective for five years from its original date or its most recent amendment or renewal, and the statement affects only the power of a person to bind the partnership to persons that are not partners. The bill allows any person named in a statement of authority to file with DFI a statement of denial of authority. If the statement of authority is recorded with the register of deeds, it may grant or limit authority of a partner to transfer real property on behalf of the partnership. The bill also allows the filing of other voluntary statements with DFI, including a statement of dissociation of a partner which limits the authority of the dissociated partner, a statement of dissolution which gives notice that the partnership has dissolved and is winding up its business, and a statement of termination which gives notice that the partnership is terminated. A person who is not a partner is considered to have knowledge of facts contained in a statement of dissociation, statement of dissolution, or statement of termination 90 days after the statement becomes effective.

Fiduciary and other duties of partners

Under current law, a partner is a fiduciary who must account to the partnership for any benefit, and hold as a trustee for it any profit, derived by the partner without the consent of the other partners from any transaction connected with the formation, conduct, or liquidation of the partnership or from use by the partner of partnership property.

This bill provides a broader and more explicit description of the duties of each partner to the partnership and to other partners and also specifies the extent to which these statutory duties may be overridden by the partnership agreement. Under this bill, unless the duty is permissibly modified in the partnership agreement (as discussed below), a partner owes to the partnership, and to the other partners, duties of loyalty and care, as described below. A partner must also discharge its duties and obligations, whether statutory or arising under the partnership agreement, and exercise its rights, consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing. However, a partner does not violate a duty or obligation solely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest.

Under the bill, a partner owes a fiduciary duty of loyalty that includes the duty: 1) to account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the partner in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's business, from use of the partnership's property, or from the appropriation of a partnership opportunity; 2) to refrain from dealing with the partnership, in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business, adversely or on behalf of a person having an adverse interest; and 3) to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of the partnership's business. However, all the partners, or one or more disinterested partners with authority to act in the matter, may authorize or ratify, after disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty. Also, it is a defense to a claim of dealing adversely with the partnership (item 2, above) that the transaction was fair to the partnership.

Under the bill, a partner also owes a duty of care, in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business, to refrain from 1) willfully failing to deal fairly with the partnership or its partners when the partner has a material conflict of interest; 2) violating the criminal law; 3) engaging in a transaction in which the partner derives an improper personal profit; or 4) engaging in willful misconduct.

Under the bill, the partnership agreement may not alter or eliminate, or restrict remedies for the breach of, the duty of loyalty or the duty of care, except as described below; eliminate, or restrict remedies for the breach of, the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing, but it may prescribe standards, if not manifestly unreasonable, by which performance of the obligation is measured; or relieve a person from liability for conduct that violates the duty of care described in items 1) to 4) in the immediately preceding paragraph. However, the partnership agreement may specify the method by which an act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified after the disclosure of all material facts. The partnership agreement may also eliminate or limit a partner's fiduciary duty if it also relieves the partner of a responsibility and imposes it on another partner. Although the partnership agreement may not relieve a person from liability for conduct that violates the duty of care described in items 1) to 4) in the immediately preceding paragraph, it may, if not manifestly unreasonable, alter or eliminate, or restrict remedies with respect to, certain aspects of the duty of loyalty; identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty or the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing; otherwise alter the duty of care; or alter or eliminate any other fiduciary duty. A court determines, as a matter of law, whether a term of a partnership agreement is manifestly unreasonable.

Dissociation of partners and dissolution and winding up of partnership

Under current law, the dissolution of a partnership is the change in the relation of the partners caused by any partner ceasing to be associated in the carrying on of the business. Dissolution may be caused by various events, including by the will of any or all partners or by the death or bankruptcy of a partner. However, a partner's assignment (usually by sale) of the partner's interest in the partnership does not of itself dissolve the partnership, although the assignee is entitled to receive only the partner's profits from the partnership and not any right to management or participation in partnership business.

This bill adopts the term "dissociation," as used in connection with a partner, and specifies when a partner's dissociation from the partnership occurs. Among other events causing a partner's dissociation from the partnership, a partner is dissociated upon the occurrence of any of the following: 1) when the partner withdraws from the partnership or is expelled from the partnership; 2) when an event occurs that, under the terms of the partnership agreement, results in the partner's dissociation; 3) when the partner becomes a debtor in bankruptcy, dies, has a guardian or conservator appointed for him or her, or is adjudged to be incapable of performing his or her duties under the partnership agreement; or 4) when the partnership dissolves and completes winding up. A person has the power to dissociate as a partner at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing from the partnership unless the partnership is an LLP and the partnership agreement provides otherwise; however, a partner that wrongfully dissociates is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. A partner's dissociation is wrongful if, among other things, the dissociation is in violation of a term of the partnership agreement. A dissociated partner has no right to participate in the management of the partnership. The obligations of the partnership and other partners to the dissociated partner are generally governed by the terms of the partnership agreement, although the bill contains certain provisions relating to partnership distributions to dissociated partners.

Under the bill, a partner's dissociation from the partnership does not automatically require dissolution of the partnership; a partnership is dissolved only upon the occurrence of specified events. For example, in a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, dissociation of a partner as a result of the partner's death causes dissolution of the partnership only if, within 90 days after the death, at least half of the remaining partners affirmatively act to dissolve the partnership.

SENATE BILL 657

As under current law, under the bill a partner's sale of his or her interest in the partnership does not automatically require dissolution of the partnership or entitle the transferee to participate in the management of the partnership. It also does not, by itself, cause the partner's dissociation from the partnership.

This bill modifies some of the grounds under which a partnership is dissolved and its business must be wound up, including grounds for dissolution by court order. As new grounds for dissolution under the bill, a partnership is dissolved, and its business must be wound up, if the partnership does not have at least two partners for 90 consecutive days or if an event or circumstance occurs that the partnership agreement states causes dissolution. Also, under the bill, a court order is required for dissolution on the basis that the partnership's activities are or would be unlawful.

The bill also allows a partnership to rescind its dissolution unless it has already filed with DFI a statement of termination or a court has ordered dissolution. If a partnership rescinds its dissolution and meets certain requirements, the partnership may resume carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred.

Limited liability partnerships

Under current law, to become an LLP, a domestic partnership must file a registration statement with DFI that contains specified information. To do business in this state, a foreign LLP must file with DFI a foreign registration statement. Current law includes various provisions relating to these registration statements, amendment or termination of these registration statements, acceptable names for an LLP or foreign LLP, registered offices and registered agents for LLPs and foreign LLPs, and service on LLPs and foreign LLPs.

Under this bill, to become an LLP, a domestic partnership must file with DFI a statement of qualification, rather than a registration statement. However, a foreign LLP must still file a registration statement with DFI to do business in this state. The bill includes many provisions, including some based on RUPA and some that depart from the model provisions of RUPA, relating to procedures applicable to LLPs and foreign LLPs, including provisions related to maintenance of a registered agent and registered office, service of process on an LLP or foreign LLP, and DFI's revocation of an LLP's statement of qualification or foreign LLP's registration. The bill requires an LLP or foreign LLP to submit an annual report to DFI.

As under current law, the provisions of this bill afford the partners in an LLP a certain level of immunity from liability, although the bill includes some modifications to current law relating to LLP liability. Under current law, all partners in a partnership are generally liable as follows: 1) jointly and severally for loss or injury caused to a person who is not a partner by any wrongful act or omission of a partner acting in the ordinary course of the partnership business or with partnership authority; and 2) jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership. However, a partner in an LLP is not personally liable for any debt, obligation, or liability of the LLP, except that the partner may be liable for the partner's own actions or the actions of a person under the partner's supervision and control and for debts, obligations, and liabilities resulting from the partner's acts or conduct other than as a partner.

SENATE BILL 657

Under this bill, a partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person as a result of a wrongful act or omission of a partner acting in the ordinary course of the partnership's business or with the actual or apparent authority of the partnership. In a partnership that is not an LLP, all partners are generally liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the partnership. However, subject to an exception, in an LLP, a debt, obligation, or other liability of the LLP is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the LLP, not of the partners, and a partner is not personally liable for the debt, obligation, or other liability of the LLP solely by reason of being a partner. Under the exception, an LLP can make an election that this provision (under which a debt, obligation, or other liability of the LLP is solely that of the LLP and a partner is not personally liable) does not affect the liability of a partner in an LLP for the partner's own negligence or wrongful acts or for the negligence or wrongful acts of a person under the partner's supervision and control. The bill also specifies that an LLP's failure to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its business is not a ground for imposing liability on a partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the LLP.

The bill includes restrictions on an LLP in making distributions to partners, or to transferees of partners, under certain circumstances. An LLP may not make a distribution if, after the distribution, the LLP would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business or the LLP's assets would be less than its liabilities. If a partner of an LLP consents to a distribution that violates these restrictions and, in consenting to the distribution, fails to comply with the partner's duties of loyalty and care (as described above), the partner is personally liable to the partnership for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation.

Mergers, conversions, and other business combinations

This bill specifies procedures for domestic or foreign partnerships, including LLPs, to engage in business-structure transactions in the form of mergers, conversions, interest exchanges, and domestications. In an interest exchange, a domestic partnership acquires interests of another domestic or foreign business entity, or has its own interests acquired by another domestic or foreign business entity. In a domestication, an entity governed by the law of a foreign country (a non-US entity) may domesticate as a domestic partnership under Wisconsin law while continuing to be subject to the foreign country's law and a domestic partnership may domesticate as a non-US entity subject to a foreign country's law while continuing to be a domestic partnership. The bill allows mergers, conversions, interest exchanges, and domestications to involve a diverse array of business entities, including business corporations, nonprofit corporations, limited liability companies, limited partnerships, LLPs, cooperative associations, and unincorporated nonprofit associations. Certain requirements apply to these business-structure transactions, including approval of a plan of merger, conversion, interest exchange, or domestication and filing with DFI articles of merger, conversion, interest exchange, or domestication, although the terms of the partnership agreement generally govern mergers, conversions, interest exchanges, and domestications. When the merger, conversion, interest exchange, or domestication becomes effective, certain results occur automatically, as a matter of law, with respect to such matters as assets, obligations, continued existence, and organizational documents of the parties involved in the transaction.

The bill also repeals a tax reporting requirement under current law that applies to corporations, LLCs, and limited partnerships. Under current law, if an acquired business entity in a merger or the converted business entity in a conversion owned a fee simple ownership interest in any Wisconsin real estate immediately prior to the merger or conversion, the surviving business entity must submit a report to the Department of Revenue within 60 days of the merger or conversion containing specified information relating to the merger or conversion and the Wisconsin real estate.

This bill eliminates this reporting requirement.

Partnership records and information

Under current law, subject to the provisions of the partnership agreement, partnership books must be kept at the principal place of business of the partnership and, at all times, each partner must have access to them and may inspect and copy them. Partners must also render, on demand, to any other partner true and full information of all things affecting the partnership.

This bill provides for a partnership to keep its books and records at its principal office. On reasonable notice, a partner may inspect and copy, during regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the partnership, any record maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's business, financial condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or the statutes. The bill specifies information that the partnership must furnish to each partner, without demand by the partner, as well as information that the partnership must furnish to a partner upon demand by the partner. The duty to furnish information also applies to each partner, not just to the partnership. The bill also specifies the rights to information of a person dissociated as a partner. The bill allows a partnership to impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information furnished by the partnership.

Other changes

This bill includes numerous other substantive and stylistic changes from current law. The bill eliminates existing provisions, and creates new provisions, as to when a person is considered to have notice or knowledge of a fact, and also specifies when a person is considered to have given another person notice of a fact. The bill also modifies certain terms used in connection with partnerships, such as changing the term "registration statement" for an LLP to "statement of qualification" and changing the term "articles of dissolution" to "statement of dissolution."

The bill also includes numerous modifications from, or additions to, the model language of RUPA, including provisions relating to DFI procedures and fees.

Phase-in

The changes in this bill apply to a partnership formed on or after January 1, 2018, and apply, on January 1, 2018, to a partnership formed before that date unless 1) the partnership elects to be governed earlier by the new provisions of the bill, or

SENATE BILL 657

2) the partnership elects to be governed by the existing law applicable before enactment of the bill. When the provisions of the bill become applicable to a partnership, provisions of prior law relating to liability and legal actions continue to apply to obligations incurred prior to enactment of the bill and any provision of a partnership agreement that was valid before enactment of the bill remains valid.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

3 otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more
4 disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts.

5 2. Alter the prohibition in s. 178.0406 (1) (b) so that the prohibition requires
6 only that the partnership's total assets not be less than the sum of its total liabilities.

7 (b) To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of a
8 responsibility that the partner would otherwise have under this chapter and imposes
9 the responsibility on one or more other partners, the agreement also may eliminate 10 or limit any fiduciary duty of the partner relieved of the responsibility which would 11 have pertained to the responsibility.

12 (c) Except as provided in sub. (3) (h), if not manifestly unreasonable, the 13 partnership agreement may do any of the following:

14 1. Alter or eliminate the aspects of, or restrict remedies with respect to, the duty

24 The court may invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and business of the

SENATE BILL 657

1 partnership, it is readily apparent that the objective of the term is unreasonable or

3 178.0106 Partnership agreement; effect on partnership and person
4 becoming partner; preformation agreement. (1) A partnership is bound by and 5 may enforce the partnership agreement, whether or not the partnership has itself

17 specified condition.

18 (2) The obligations of a partnership and its partners to a person in the person's

4 (b) The amendment is not effective to the extent the amendment does any of 5 the following:

6 1. Imposes a new debt, obligation, or other liability on the transferee or person
7 dissociated as a partner.

8 2. Prejudices the rights under s. 178.0701 of a person that dissociated as a
9 partner before the amendment was made.

10 (3) If a record delivered by a partnership to the department for filing becomes 11 effective and contains a provision that would be ineffective under s. 178.0105 (3) or 12 (4) (c) if contained in the partnership agreement, the provision is ineffective in the 13 record.

14 (4) Subject to sub. (3), if a record delivered by a partnership to the department
15 for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership
16 agreement, all of the following apply:

17 (a) The agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners, and 18 transferees.

16 department contains inaccurate information, a person that suffers loss by reliance
17 on the information may recover damages for the loss from any of the following:

18 (a) A person that signed the record, or caused another to sign it on the person's 19 behalf, and knew the information to be inaccurate at the time the record was signed.

21 1. The record was delivered for filing on behalf of the partnership.

22 2. The partner knew or had notice of the inaccuracy for a reasonably sufficient

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 b. Filed a petition under s. 178.0112.

2 c. Delivered to the department for filing a statement of change under s.

4 (2) To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of 5 responsibility for maintaining the accuracy of information contained in records
6 delivered on behalf of the partnership to the department for filing under this chapter 7 and imposes that responsibility on one or more other partners, the liability stated in 8 sub. (1) (b) applies to those other partners and not to the partner that the partnership
9 agreement relieves of the responsibility.

10 (3) An individual who signs a record authorized or required to be filed under 11 this chapter affirms under penalty of perjury that the information stated in the 12 record is accurate.

13 178.0110 Applicability. (1) This chapter applies to a partnership formed on

SENATE BILL 657

1 (b) If a partnership elects, in a manner allowed by law for amending the 2 partnership agreement, to continue to be subject to ch. 178, 2013 stats., and files with
3 the department a statement of nonapplicability to that effect prior to January 1,
4 2018, the partnership shall not be subject to this chapter. Thereafter, if the 5 partnership elects, in such manner, to be subject to this chapter as of any subsequent 6 date and files with the department a statement of applicability to that effect, this
7 chapter applies to the partnership as of the date that the statement of applicability 8 is effective under s. 178.0114.

9 (c) Any statement of applicability to be subject to this chapter pursuant to a
10 valid election by the partnership shall be irrevocable upon such filing.

11 (d) Upon this chapter becoming applicable with respect to a partnership, all of 12 the following apply:

13 1. This chapter shall not, and the corresponding provisions of ch. 178, 2013
14 stats., shall, be applicable with respect to obligations incurred by the partnership
15 prior to such applicability.

10 requirement is immaterial.

11 (2) If law other than this chapter prohibits the disclosure by the department 12 of information contained in a record delivered to the department for filing, the 13 department shall file the record if the record otherwise complies with this chapter
14 but may redact the information.

24 the statement pertains.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (3) If the department refuses to file a record, the department shall, not later

8 the explanation of the department of the refusal to file must be attached to the 9 petition. The court may decide the matter in a summary proceeding.

10 (5) The filing of or refusal to file a record does not create a presumption of any
11 of the following:

12 (a) That the record does or does not conform to the requirements of this chapter.

13 (b) That the information contained in the record is correct or incorrect.

14 (6) Except as otherwise provided by s. 178.0912 or by law other than this

3 (2) (a) Any fee under sub (1) shall be established by the department by rule.

4 (b) The department may collect an expedited service fee, established by rule,
5 for processing in an expeditious manner a record required or permitted to be filed
6 with the department under this chapter.

7 (c) The department may, by rule, specify a larger fee for filing records in paper
8 format.

9 (3) A certified copy of a record filed by the department is conclusive evidence
10 that the original record is on file with the department.

11 (4) A person may not sign a document with intent that it be delivered to the 12 department for filing, or deliver a document or cause a document to be delivered to 13 the department for filing, if the person knows that the document is false in any 14 material respect at the time of its delivery. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty
15 of a Class I felony.

17 department, upon request, a certificate of status for a limited liability partnership
18 or a foreign limited liability partnership.

19 (2) A certificate of status shall include all of the following information:

2 has, during its most recently completed report year, filed with the department the 3 annual report required by s. 178.0913.

4 3. The limited liability partnership has not filed a cancellation of its statement
5 of qualification and is not the subject of a proceeding under s. 178.09032 to revoke
6 its statement of qualification.

7 4. The foreign limited liability partnership has not filed a cancellation of its 8 registration statement and is not the subject of a proceeding under s. 178.10102 to 9 revoke its registration statement.

10 (c) The limited liability partnership's effective date of its statement of 11 qualification or the foreign limited liability partnership's effective date of its 12 registration statement.

13 (3) The certificate of status may include other facts of record in the department
14 that are requested.

15 (4) Subject to any qualification stated in a certificate of status issued by the 16 department, the certificate is conclusive evidence that the limited liability 17 partnership or the foreign limited liability partnership is in existence or is 18 authorized to transact business in this state.

19 (5) Upon request by telephone or otherwise, the department shall confirm, by 20 telephone, any of the information required in a certificate of status under sub. (2) and 21 may confirm any other information permitted under sub. (3).

SUBCHAPTER IINATURE OF PARTNERSHIP

24 178.0201 Partnership as entity. (1) A partnership is an entity distinct from 25 its partners.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (2) A partnership is the same entity regardless of whether the partnership has 2 a statement of qualification in effect under s. 178.0901.

3 178.0202 Formation of partnership. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 4 sub. (2), the association of 2 or more persons to carry on, as co-owners, a business
5 for profit forms a partnership, whether or not the persons intend to form a
6 partnership.

7 (2) An association whose governing law is other than the law of this state is not
8 a partnership under this chapter.

9 (3) In determining whether a partnership is formed, the following rules apply:

10 (a) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property,
11 common property, or part ownership does not by itself establish a partnership, even 12 if the co-owners share profits made by the use of the property.

13 (b) The sharing of gross returns does not by itself establish a partnership, even 14 if the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in property from 15 which the returns are derived.

16 (c) A person who receives a share of the profits of a business is presumed to be 17 a partner in the business, unless the profits were received in payment of or for any 18 of the following:

- 19 1. A debt by installments or otherwise.
- 20 2. Services as an independent contractor or wages or other compensation to an 21 employee.
- 22 3. Rent.
- 23 4. An annuity or other retirement or health benefit to a deceased or retired
24 partner or a beneficiary, representative, or designee of a deceased or retired partner.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 5. Interest or other charge on a loan, even if the amount of payment varies with
2 the profits of the business, including a direct or indirect present or future ownership
3 of the collateral, or rights to income, proceeds, or increase in value derived from the 4 collateral.

5 6. The sale of the goodwill of a business or other property by installments or 6 otherwise.

7 178.0203 Partnership property. Property acquired by a partnership is 8 property of the partnership and not of the partners individually.

9 178.0204 When property is partnership property. (1) Property is 10 partnership property if acquired in the name of any of the following:

11 (a) The partnership.

12 (b) One or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title
13 to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a 14 partnership but without an indication of the name of the partnership.

15 (2) Property is acquired in the name of the partnership by a transfer to any of 16 the following:

17 (a) The partnership in its name.

18 (b) One or more partners in their capacity as partners in the partnership, if the 19 name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument transferring title to the 20 property.

21 (3) Property is presumed to be partnership property if purchased with 22 partnership assets, even if not acquired in the name of the partnership or of one or 23 more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property
24 of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (4) Property acquired in the name of one or more of the partners, without an
2 indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity
3 as a partner or of the existence of a partnership and without use of partnership
4 assets, is presumed to be separate property, even if used for partnership purposes.

SUBCHAPTER III

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS

DEALING WITH PARTNERSHIP

8 178.0301 Partner agent of partnership. Subject to the effect of a statement
9 of partnership authority under s. 178.0303, the following rules apply:

10 (1) Each partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business.
11 An act of a partner, including the signing of an instrument in the partnership name, 12 for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership business or 13 business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership, unless the 14 partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and 15 the person with which the partner was dealing knew or had notice that the partner
16 lacked authority.

17 (2) An act of a partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary 18 course the partnership's business or business of the kind carried on by the 19 partnership binds the partnership only if the act was actually authorized by all the 20 other partners.

21 178.0302 Transfer of partnership property. (1) Partnership property may 22 be transferred as follows:

23 (a) Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority under s.
24 178.0303, partnership property held in the name of the partnership may be

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by a partner in the partnership
2 name.

3 (b) Partnership property held in the name of one or more partners with an 4 indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as 5 partners or of the existence of a partnership, but without an indication of the name
6 of the partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the 7 persons in whose name the property is held.

8 (c) Partnership property held in the name of one or more persons other than 9 the partnership, without an indication in the instrument transferring the property
10 to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, may be 11 transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the persons in whose name the 12 property is held.

13 (2) A partnership may recover partnership property from a transferee, as a 14 result of the lack of authority under this subchapter to make the transfer, only if the 15 partnership proves that signing of the instrument of initial transfer did not bind the 16 partnership under s. 178.0301 and if any of the following is true:

17 (a) As to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property transferred 18 under sub. (1) (a) or (b), the partnership proves that the subsequent transferee knew 19 or had been notified that the person who signed the instrument of initial transfer
20 lacked authority to bind the partnership.

21 (b) As to a transferee who gave value for property transferred under sub. (1)
22 (c), the partnership proves that the transferee knew or had been notified of all of the 23 following:

24 1. The property was partnership property.

SENATE BILL 657

1 2. The person who signed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority
2 to bind the partnership.

3 (3) A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent 4 transferee, for lack of authority under this subchapter to make the transfer, if the 5 partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property under sub. (2) from 6 any earlier transferee of the property.

7 (4) If a person holds all of the partners' interests in a partnership that is 8 dissolved under subch. VIII, all the partnership property vests in that person. The 9 person may sign a record in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the 10 property in that person and may file or record the record.

11 178.0303 Statement of partnership authority. (1) (a) A partnership may 12 deliver to the department for filing a statement of partnership authority.

13 (b) The statement of authority must include all of the following:

14 1. The name of the partnership.

15 2. If the partnership is not a limited liability partnership, the street and 16 mailing addresses of its principal office.

17 3. If the partnership is a limited liability partnership, the street address of its 18 registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office.

19 (c) With respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the partnership,
20 the statement of authority may state the authority, or limitations on the authority,
21 of all persons holding the position to do any of the following:

22 1. Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the 23 partnership.

24 2. Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the
25 partnership.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (d) The statement of authority may state the authority, or limitations on the 2 authority, of a specific person to do any of the following:

3 1. Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the
4 partnership.

5 2. Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the
6 partnership.

7 (2) To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed by the department, a
8 partnership must deliver to the department for filing an amendment or cancellation
9 stating all of the following:

10 (a) The name of the partnership.

11 (b) If the partnership is not a limited liability partnership, the street and 12 mailing addresses of the partnership's principal office.

13 (c) If the partnership is a limited liability partnership, the street address of its 14 registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office.

15 (d) The date the statement being affected became effective.

16 (e) The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement is 17 canceled.

18 (2m) (a) A statement of authority is renewable for successive 5-year periods.
19 To renew a statement of authority filed by the department, a partnership must 20 deliver to the department for filing, during the 3 months before the cancellation
21 would occur under sub. (10), a statement of renewal that includes all of the following:

22 1. The name of the partnership.

23 2. If the partnership is not a limited liability partnership, the street and 24 mailing addresses of the partnership's principal office.

SENATE BILL 657

1 3. If the partnership is a limited liability partnership, the street address of its
2 registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office.

3 4. The statement of authority being affected.

4 5. A declaration that the statement of authority is being renewed.

5 (b) When filed, a statement of renewal that complies with par. (a) renews the 6 statement of authority for a 5-year period commencing with the date of filing of the 7 statement of renewal.

8 (3) A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a
9 partnership to persons that are not partners.

10 (4) Subject to sub. (3) and s. 178.0103 (4) (a), and except as otherwise provided 11 in subs. (6) to (8), a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in 12 an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge
13 or notice of the limitation.

14 (5) Subject to sub. (3), a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real
15 property and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor 16 of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when 17 the person gives value any of the following applies:

18 (a) The person has knowledge to the contrary.

19 (b) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under sub. (2).

20 (c) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that 21 became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.

22 (6) Subject to sub. (3), an effective statement of authority that grants authority
23 to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership, a certified copy of which 24 statement is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the 25 property is located, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the 2 person gives value any of the following applies:

3 (a) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under sub. (2),
4 and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded
5 in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

6 (b) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that
7 became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective, and a
8 certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the office of the register
9 of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

10 (7) Subject to sub. (3), if a certified copy of an effective statement containing 11 a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a 12 partnership is recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which 13 the property is located, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

14 (8) Subject to sub. (9), an effective statement of dissolution is a cancellation of 15 any filed statement of authority for the purposes of sub. (6) and is a limitation on 16 authority for purposes of sub. (7).

17 (9) After a statement of dissolution becomes effective, a partnership may 18 deliver to the department for filing and, if appropriate, may record a statement of 19 authority that is designated as a postdissolution statement of authority. The 20 statement operates as provided in subs. (6) and (7).

21 (10) Unless canceled earlier, an effective statement of authority is canceled by 22 operation of law 5 years after the date on which the statement, or its most recent 23 amendment or renewal, was filed. The cancellation is effective without recording 24 under sub. (6) or (7).

SENATE BILL 657

1 (11) An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment
2 under this section and may be recorded by certified copy for purposes of sub. (6) (a).

3 (11m) Certified copies to be recorded in the office of the register of deeds are 4 to be sent by the person desiring the copies to be recorded and the department is not 5 obligated to send the copies to the office of the register of deeds unless it chooses to 6 undertake this responsibility.

7 178.0304 Statement of denial. A person named in a filed statement of 8 authority granting that person authority may deliver to the department for filing a 9 statement of denial that does all of the following:

10 (1) Provides the name of the partnership and the caption of the statement of 11 authority to which the statement of denial pertains.

12 (2) Denies the grant of authority.

13 178.0305 Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct. (1) A 14 partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred,
15 as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a partner
16 acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with the actual or 17 apparent authority of the partnership.

18 (2) If, in the course of the partnership's business or while acting with actual 19 or apparent authority of the partnership, a partner receives or causes the 20 partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money
21 or property is misapplied by a partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

22 178.0306 Partner's liability. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subs. (2)
23 to (3m), all partners are liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations, and 24 other liabilities of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or 25 provided by law.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (2) A person that becomes a partner is not personally liable for a debt,
2 obligation, or other liability of the partnership incurred before the person became a
3 partner.

4 (3) (a) Except as provided in sub. (3m), a debt, obligation, or other liability of 5 a partnership incurred while the partnership is a limited liability partnership is 6 solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability partnership. A 7 partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or 8 otherwise, for such a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability
9 partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a partner.

10 (b) This subsection applies despite anything inconsistent in the partnership 11 agreement that existed immediately before the vote or consent required to become 12 a limited liability partnership under s. 178.0901 (2).

13 (c) This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the limited liability
14 partnership.

15 (3m) (a) To the extent a partnership has or is deemed to have elected under par.
16 (b) to have this par. (a) apply, sub. (3) does not affect the liability of a partner in a 17 limited liability partnership for any of the following that occurs while the 18 partnership is subject to this subsection:

19 1. The partner's own omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or 20 malpractice.

21 2. The omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or malpractice of any 22 person acting under the partner's actual supervision and control in the specific 23 activity in which the omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or 24 malpractice occurred.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (b) 1. Except as provided in subd. 3., a limited liability partnership that became
2 a limited liability partnership before January 1, 2018, is deemed to have elected to 3 have par. (a) apply.

4 2. Except as provided in subd. 3, a limited liability partnership that became a
5 limited liability partnership on or after January 1, 2018, is deemed to not have 6 elected to have par. (a) apply.

7 3. A limited liability partnership may change its election under this paragraph
8 by filing an amended statement of qualification to that effect. This amendment may 9 be made at any time, but shall be effective prospectively only.

10 (4) The failure of a limited liability partnership to observe formalities relating 11 to the exercise of its powers or management of its business is not a ground for 12 imposing liability on a partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the 13 partnership.

14 (5) The cancellation or administrative revocation of a limited liability
15 partnership's statement of qualification does not affect the limitation in this section
16 on the liability of a partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership
17 incurred while the statement was in effect.

18 178.0307 Actions by and against partnership and partners. (1) A
19 partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

20 (2) To the extent not inconsistent with s. 178.0306, a partner may be joined in 21 an action against the partnership or named in a separate action.

22 (3) A judgment against a partnership is not by itself a judgment against a
23 partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a partner's 24 assets unless there is also a judgment against the partner.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (4) A judgment creditor of a partner may not levy execution against the assets
2 of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership unless 3 the partner is personally liable for the claim under s. 178.0306 and any of the 4 following is true:

5 (a) A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the 6 partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied
7 in whole or in part.

8 (b) The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy.

9 (c) The partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership 10 assets.

11 (d) A court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against 12 the assets of a partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution
13 are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of partnership assets
14 is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise
15 of the court's equitable powers.

16 (e) Liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the 17 existence of the partnership.

18 (5) This section applies to any debt, liability, or other obligation of a
19 partnership which results from a representation by a partner or purported partner
20 under s. 178.0308.

21 178.0308 Liability of purported partner. (1) If a person, by words or 22 conduct, purports to be a partner, or consents to being represented by another as a
23 partner, in a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the purported
24 partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made, if that person,
25 relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported

SENATE BILL 657

1 partnership. If the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person
2 with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported
3 partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the 4 purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant. If 5 partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that
6 liability as if the purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results,
7 the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability jointly and severally with 8 any other person consenting to the representation.

9 (2) If a person is thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, 10 or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is an agent of 11 persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the 12 same manner as if the purported partner were a partner with respect to persons who 13 enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all the partners of the 14 existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation
15 results. If fewer than all the partners of the existing partnership consent to the 16 representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation
17 are jointly and severally liable.

18 (3) A person is not liable as a partner merely because the person is named by 19 another as a partner in a statement of partnership authority.

20 (4) A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely because of a
21 failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a statement of partnership
22 authority to indicate the person's dissociation as a partner.

23 (5) Except as otherwise provided in subs. (1) and (2) and subch. VII, persons
24 who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO EACH

OTHER AND TO PARTNERSHIP

1
3 178.0401 Partner's rights and duties. (1) Each partner is entitled to an
4 equal share of the partnership distributions and, except in the case of a limited
5 liability partnership, is chargeable with a share of the partnership losses in 6 proportion to the partner's share of the distributions.

7 (2) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for any payment made by the 8 partner in the course of the partner's activities on behalf of the partnership, if the 9 partner complied with this section and s. 178.0409 in making the payment.

10 (3) A partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to 11 any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability
12 incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a 13 partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from 14 the person's breach of this section or s. 178.0407 or 178.0409.

15 (4) In the ordinary course of its business, a partnership may advance 16 reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and costs, incurred by a person in 17 connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's 18 former or present capacity as a partner, if the person promises to repay the 19 partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be 20 indemnified under sub. (3).

21 (5) A partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a partner
22 against liability asserted against or incurred by the partner in that capacity or 23 arising from that status even if, under s. 178.0105 (3) (g), the partnership agreement
24 could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct
25 giving rise to the liability.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (6) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for an advance to the partnership
2 beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

3 (7) A payment or advance made by a partner which gives rise to a partnership
4 obligation under sub. (2) or (6) constitutes a loan to the partnership which accrues
5 interest from the date of the payment or advance.

6 (8) Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the 7 partnership's business.

8 (9) A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the 9 partnership.

10 (10) Unless authorized by the partnership agreement or otherwise in 11 accordance with this chapter, a partner is not entitled to remuneration for services
12 performed for the partnership, except for reasonable compensation for services
13 rendered in winding up the business of the partnership.

14 (11) A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a 15 partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the 16 ordinary course of business of a partnership, an amendment to the partnership 17 agreement, or a merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication by the 18 partnership under subch. IX may be undertaken only with the affirmative vote or 19 consent of all the partners.

20 178.0402 Becoming partner. (1) Upon formation of a partnership, a person
21 becomes a partner under s. 178.0202 (1).

22 (2) After formation of a partnership, a person becomes a partner in any of the 23 following ways:

24 (a) As provided in the partnership agreement.

25 (b) As a result of a transaction effective under subch. XI.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (c) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners.

2 (3) A person may become a partner without doing any of the following:

3 (a) Acquiring a transferable interest.

4 (b) Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the partnership.

5 178.0403 Form of contribution. A contribution may consist of money or 6 other property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to 7 the partnership or an agreement to transfer money or property to, perform services
8 for, or provide another benefit to the partnership.

9 178.0404 Liability for contribution. (1) A person's obligation to make a 10 contribution to a partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability,
11 termination, or other inability to perform personally.

12 (2) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than 13 money, the person is obligated at the option of the partnership to contribute money
14 equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

15 (3) The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only
16 by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited liability
17 partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described 18 in sub. (1) without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the 19 creditor may enforce the obligation.

20 178.0405 Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution. (1)
21 Any distribution made by a partnership before its dissolution and winding up must 22 be in equal shares among partners, except to the extent necessary to comply with a
23 transfer effective under s. 178.0503 or charging order in effect under s. 178.0504.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (2) Subject to s. 178.0701, a person has a right to a distribution before the
2 dissolution and winding up of a partnership only if the partnership decides to make
3 an interim distribution.

4 (3) A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a
5 partnership in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in s.
6 178.0806, a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset
7 is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset
8 equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

9 (4) If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the 10 partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to,
11 a creditor of the partnership with respect to the distribution. However, the 12 partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount 13 owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as partner on whose 14 account the distribution is made.

178.0406 Limitations on distributions by limited liability partnership.

15 (1) A limited liability partnership may not make a distribution, including a 16 distribution under s. 178.0806, if after the distribution any of the following applies:
17

18 (a) The partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in 19 the ordinary course of the partnership's business.

20 (b) The partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total 21 liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be 22 dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential 23 rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose 24 preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (2) A limited liability partnership may base a determination that a distribution
2 is not prohibited under sub. (1) on any of the following:

3 (a) Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and 4 principles that are reasonable in the circumstances.

5 (b) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the 6 circumstances.

7 (3) Except as otherwise provided in sub. (5), the effect of a distribution under 8 sub. (1) is measured as follows:

9 (a) In the case of a distribution described in s. 178.0102 (4) (a) 1. and 2., as of 10 the earlier of the following:

11 1. The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the 12 limited liability partnership.

13 2. The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest
14 or rights being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution.

15 (b) In the case of any distribution of indebtedness other than one under par. (a),
16 as of the date the indebtedness is distributed.

17 (c) In all cases other than those under par. (a) or (b), as of the following:

18 1. The date the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than 19 120 days after that date.

20 2. The date the payment is made, if the payment occurs more than 120 days
21 after the distribution is authorized.

22 (4) A limited liability partnership's indebtedness to a partner or transferee
23 incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity 24 with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the 25 extent subordinated by agreement.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (5) A limited liability partnership's indebtedness, including indebtedness
2 issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of sub. (1) if the terms of the 3 indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to 4 the extent that a payment of a distribution could then be made under this section.
5 If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest
6 is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment
7 is made.

8 (6) In measuring the effect of a distribution under s. 178.0806, the liabilities
9 of a dissolved limited liability partnership do not include any claim that has been 10 disposed of under s. 178.0807, 178.0808, or 178.0809.

11 178.0407 Liability for improper distributions by limited liability
12 partnership. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sub. (2), if a partner of a limited 13 liability partnership consents to a distribution made in violation of s. 178.0406 and 14 in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with s. 178.0409, the partner is 15 personally liable to the partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds 16 the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of s. 178.0406.

17 (2) To the extent the partnership agreement of a limited liability partnership 18 expressly relieves a partner of the authority and responsibility to consent to 19 distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other 20 partners, the liability stated in sub. (1) applies to the other partners and not to the 21 partner that the partnership agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

22 (3) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated 23 s. 178.0406 is personally liable to the limited liability partnership but only to the 24 extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could 25 have been properly paid under s. 178.0406.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (4) A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable
2 under sub. (1) may do any of the following:

3 (a) Implead any other person that is liable under sub. (1) and seek to enforce
4 a right of contribution from the person.

5 (b) Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of sub. (3) and 6 seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person
7 received in violation of sub. (3).

8 (5) An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than 2
9 years after the distribution.

10 178.0408 Rights to information of partners and persons dissociated as 11 partner. (1) A partnership shall keep its books and records, if any, at its principal 12 office.

13 (2) On reasonable notice, a partner may inspect and copy during regular 14 business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the partnership, any record
15 maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's business, financial 16 condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the 17 partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter.

18 (3) The partnership shall furnish to each partner all of the following:

19 (a) Without demand, any information concerning the partnership's business, 20 financial condition, and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is 21 material to the proper exercise of the partner's rights and duties under the 22 partnership agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the partnership can 23 establish that it reasonably believes the partner already knows the information.

24 (b) On demand, any other information concerning the partnership's business, 25 financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand or the

SENATE BILL 657

1 information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the
2 circumstances.

3 (4) The duty to furnish information under sub. (3) also applies to each partner
4 on whom a demand is made to the extent the partner knows any of the information
5 described in sub. (3).

6 (5) Subject to sub. (10), on 10 days' demand made in a record received by a 7 partnership, a person dissociated as a partner may have access to information to 8 which the person was entitled while a partner if all of the following apply:

9 (a) The information pertains to the period during which the person was a
10 partner.

11 (b) The person seeks the information in good faith.

12 (c) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a partner by sub. (2).

13 (6) Not later than 10 days after receiving a demand under sub. (5), the 14 partnership in a record shall inform the person that made the demand of all of the 15 following:

16 (a) The information that the partnership will provide in response to the 17 demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information.

18 (b) The partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to 19 provide any demanded information.

20 (7) A partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section
21 the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

22 (8) A partner or person dissociated as a partner may exercise the rights under 23 this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability,
24 a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 agreement or under sub. (10) applies both to the agent or legal representative and
2 to the partner or person dissociated as a partner.

3 (9) Subject to s. 178.0505, the rights under this section do not extend to a person
4 as transferee.

5 (10) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership
6 agreement, a partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its business, may 7 impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to 8 be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and 9 imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute
10 concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership
11 has the burden of proving reasonableness.

12 178.0409 Standards of conduct for partners. (1) A partner owes to the 13 partnership and the other partners the duties of loyalty and care stated in subs. (2)
14 and (3).

15 (2) The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a partner includes all of the following duties:

16 (a) The duty to account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any 17 property, profit, or benefit derived by the partner in or from any of the following:

18 1. The conduct or winding up of the partnership's business.

19 2. A use by the partner of the partnership's property.

20 3. The appropriation of a partnership opportunity.

21 (b) The duty to refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or 22 winding up of the partnership business as or on behalf of a person having an interest
23 adverse to the partnership.

24 (c) The duty to refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of 25 the partnership's business before the dissolution of the partnership.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (3) The duty of care of a partner in the conduct or winding up of the partnership
2 business is to refrain from engaging in conduct for which relief or exoneration from 3 liability is not permitted under s. 178.0105 (3) (h).

4 (4) A partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this chapter or 5 under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights thereunder consistently
6 with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

7 (5) A partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under 8 the partnership agreement solely because the partner's conduct furthers the 9 partner's own interest.

10 (6) All the partners, or one or more disinterested partners with authority to act
11 in the matter, may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a 12 specific act or transaction by a partner that otherwise would violate the duty of 13 loyalty.

14 (7) It is a defense to a claim under sub. (2) (b) and any comparable claim in 15 equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the partnership.

16 (8) If, as permitted by sub. (6) or the partnership agreement, a partner enters
17 into a transaction with the partnership which otherwise would be prohibited by sub.
18 (2) (b), the partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same
19 as those of a person that is not a partner.

20 178.0410 Actions by partnership and partners. (1) A partnership may 21 maintain an action against a partner for a breach of the partnership agreement, or 22 for the violation of a duty to the partnership, causing harm to the partnership.

23 (2) A partner may maintain an action against the partnership or another 24 partner, with or without an accounting as to partnership business, to enforce the 25 partner's rights and protect the partner's interests, including rights and interests

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 under the partnership agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the 2 partnership relationship.

3 (3) A right to an accounting on dissolution and winding up does not revive a 4 claim barred by law.

5 178.0411 Continuation of partnership beyond definite term or 6 particular undertaking. (1) If a partnership for a definite term or particular 7 undertaking is continued, without an express agreement, after the expiration of the 8 term or completion of the undertaking, the rights and duties of the partners remain
9 the same as they were at the expiration or completion, so far as is consistent with a 10 partnership at will.

11 (2) If the partners, or those of them who habitually acted in the business during 12 the term or undertaking, continue the business without any settlement or 13 liquidation of the partnership, they are presumed to have agreed that the 14 partnership will continue.

15 SUBCHAPTER V

16 TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND

17 RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND

18 CREDITORS

19 178.0501 Partner not co-owner of partnership property. A partner is not
20 a co-owner of partnership property and has no interest in partnership property
21 which can be transferred, either voluntarily or involuntarily.

22 178.0502 Nature of transferable interest. A transferable interest is 23 personal property.

24 178.0503 Transfer of transferable interest. (1) All of the following apply
25 to a transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

SENATE BILL 657

1 (a) It is permissible.

2 (b) It does not by itself cause a person's dissociation as a partner or a dissolution
3 and winding up of the partnership business.

4 (c) Subject to s. 178.0505, it does not entitle the transferee to do any of the 5 following:

6 1. Participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's business.

7 2. Except as otherwise provided in sub. (3), have access to records or other
8 information concerning the partnership's business.

9 (2) A transferee has the right to all of the following:

10 (a) To receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the 11 transferor would otherwise be entitled.

12 (b) To seek under s. 178.0801 (5) a judicial determination that it is equitable 13 to wind up the partnership business.

14 (3) In a dissolution and winding up of a partnership, a transferee is entitled 15 to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

16 (4) A partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section
17 until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.

18 (5) A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a valid restriction on 19 transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended
20 transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

21 (6) Except as otherwise provided in s. 178.0601 (4) (b), if a partner transfers
22 a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a partner other than the 23 transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a 24 partner.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (7) If a partner transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a
2 partner with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the 3 partner's obligations under ss. 178.0404 and 178.0407 known to the transferee when 4 the transferee becomes a partner.

5 178.0504 Charging order. (1) On application by a judgment creditor of a
6 partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable
7 interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A 8 charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and 9 requires the partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was 10 issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

11 (2) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant 12 to a charging order in effect under sub. (1), the court may do any of the following:

13 (a) Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with 14 the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made.

15 (b) Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

16 (3) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the 17 judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order
18 the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains 19 only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner, and is subject to 20 s. 178.0503.

21 (4) At any time before foreclosure under sub. (3), the partner or transferee
22 whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under sub. (1) may 23 extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy
24 of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

SENATE BILL 657SECTION 18

1 (4) The person is expelled as a partner by the affirmative vote or consent of all
2 the other partners if any of the following applies:

3 (a) It is unlawful to carry on the partnership business with the person as a
4 partner.

5 (b) There has been a transfer of all of the person's transferable interest in the 6 partnership, other than a transfer for security purposes or the entry of a charging
7 order that is in effect under s. 178.0504 and that has not been foreclosed.

8 (c) The person is an entity and all of the following apply:

9 1. The partnership notifies the person that it will be expelled as a partner
10 because the person has filed a statement of dissolution or the equivalent, the person 11 has been administratively dissolved, the person's charter or the equivalent has been 12 revoked, or the person's right to conduct business has been suspended by the 13 jurisdiction of the person's governing law.

14 2. The statement of dissolution or the equivalent has not been withdrawn,
15 rescinded, or revoked, or the person's charter or the equivalent or right to conduct 16 business has not been reinstated, within 90 days after the notification under subd.
17 1.

18 (d) The person is an unincorporated entity that has been dissolved and whose 19 activities and affairs are being wound up.

20 (5) On application by the partnership or another partner, the person is expelled
21 as a partner by judicial order because the person has done any of the following:

22 (a) Engaged, or is engaging, in wrongful conduct that has affected adversely
23 and materially, or will affect adversely and materially, the partnership's business.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (b) Committed willfully or persistently, or is committing willfully or
2 persistently, a material breach of the partnership agreement or a duty or obligation
3 under s. 178.0409.

4 (c) Engaged, or is engaging, in conduct relating to the partnership's business
5 which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business with the person
6 as a partner.

7 (6) Any of the following applies to the person:

8 (a) The person becomes a debtor in bankruptcy.

9 (b) The person signs an assignment for the benefit of creditors.

10 (c) The person seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee,
11 receiver, or liquidator of the person or of all or substantially all the person's property.

12 (7) In the case of an individual, any of the following applies to the individual:

13 (a) The individual dies.

14 (b) A guardian or general conservator for the individual is appointed.

15 (c) A court orders that the individual has otherwise become incapable of 16 performing the individual's duties as a partner under this chapter or the partnership 17 agreement.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (a) At the time the other party enters into the transaction, less than 2 years has
2 passed since the dissociation.

3 (b) At the time the other party enters into the transaction, the other party does
4 not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person

6 (c) The act is appropriate for winding up the partnership's business or the act
7 would have bound the partnership under s. 178.0301 before dissolution and at the 8 time the other party enters into the transaction the other party does not know or have 9 notice of the dissolution.

10 178.0805 Liability after dissolution of partner and person dissociated

5 following apply:

6 (a) Section 178.0802 (3) permits the person to participate in winding up.

7 (b) The act that causes the partnership to be bound under s. 178.0804 (2) is 8 appropriate for winding up the partnership's business.

1 to the partnership for the purpose of enabling the partnership to satisfy the 2 obligation. The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the 3 right to receive distributions in the capacity of a partner in effect for each of those 4 persons when the obligation was incurred.

5 (b) If a person does not contribute the full amount required under par. (a) with 6 respect to an unsatisfied obligation of the partnership, the other persons required to 7 contribute by par. (a) on account of the obligation shall contribute the additional 8 amount necessary to discharge the obligation. The additional contribution due from 9 each of those other persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the 10 capacity of a partner in effect for each of those other persons when the obligation was 11 incurred.

12 (c) If a person does not make the additional contribution required by par. (b), 13 further additional contributions are determined and due in the same manner as

15 (4) A person that makes an additional contribution under sub. (3) (b) or (c) may 16 recover from any person whose failure to contribute under sub. (3) (a) or (b)
17 necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this 18 subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability 19 under this subsection may not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

20 (5) If a partnership does not have sufficient surplus to comply with sub. (2) (a),

18 correct it or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the department that it does 19 not exist.

20 (b) If the partnership fails to satisfy par. (a), the department may revoke the

23 and shall give the partnership notice of those facts. The notice shall be in writing and 24 addressed to the registered office of the partnership.

SENATE BILL 657

1 (3) (a) If a notice under sub. (1) or (2) (b) is returned to the department as

3 provided under par. (b), this notice shall be in writing and addressed to the principal
4 office of the partnership.

5 (b) If the notice under par. (a) is returned to the department as undeliverable

7 department, the department shall give the notice by posting the notice on the 8 department's Internet site.

9 (4) A revocation under sub. (2) (b) affects only the partnership's status as a
10 limited liability partnership and is not an event of dissolution of the partnership.

11 (5) The partnership's right to the exclusive use of its partnership name
12 terminates on the effective date of the revocation of its statement of qualification.

13 178.0904 Reinstatement following administrative revocation. (1) A

6 reinstatement of the partnership's statement of qualification. The notation shall 7 state both the department's determination under par (a) and the effective date of 8 reinstatement. The department shall provide notice of the reinstatement to the 9 partnership or its representative.

10 (4) When the reinstatement under this section is effective, all of the following
11 shall apply:

12 (a) Except as provided in par. (c), the reinstatement relates back to and takes 13 effect as of the effective date of the administrative revocation.

14 (b) Except as provided in par. (c), the partnership's status as a limited liability
15 partnership continues as if the revocation had never occurred.

16 (c) The rights of a person arising out of an act or omission in reliance on the 17 revocation before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are unaffected.

18 178.0905 Appeal from denial of reinstatement. (1) If the department 19 denies a partnership's application for reinstatement under s. 178.0904, the 20 department shall serve the partnership with a written notice, addressed to the 21 registered office of the partnership, that explains each reason for denial.

22 (2) The partnership may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the circuit court
23 for the county where the partnership's principal office or, if none in this state, its 24 registered office is located, within 30 days after service of the notice of denial is 25 perfected. To appeal, the partnership shall petition the court to set aside the

2 under s. 178.09032 (2) (b), the partnership's application for reinstatement under s.
3 178.0904 (1), and the department's notice of denial under sub. (1).

4 (3) The court may order the department to reinstate the partnership's
5 statement of qualification or may take other action that the court considers 6 appropriate.

7 (4) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

8 178.0906 Reservation of name. (1) A person may reserve the exclusive use
9 of a name that complies with s. 178.0902, including a fictitious name for a foreign 10 limited liability partnership whose partnership name is not available, by delivering 11 an application to the department for filing. The application shall include the name
12 and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the 13 department finds that the name is available, the department shall reserve the name 14 for the applicant's exclusive use for a 120-day period, which may be renewed by the 15 applicant or a transferee under sub. (2) from time to time.

16 (2) The person who has the right to exclusive use of a reserved name under sub.
17 (1) may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the department
18 a signed notice in a record of the transfer which states the name and address of the 19 person to which the reservation is being transferred.

20 178.0907 Registration of name. (1) A foreign limited liability partnership
21 not registered to do business in this state under subch. X may register its name, or

19 liability partnership and each registered foreign limited liability partnership shall 20 designate and maintain a registered agent and registered office in this state. The 16 do business in this state because of any difference between its governing law and the 17 law of this state.

18 (3) Registration of a foreign limited liability partnership to do business in this

20 any power that a limited liability partnership may not engage in or exercise in this 21 state.

22 178.1002 Registration to do business in this state. (1) A foreign limited

4 (3) The failure of a foreign limited liability partnership to register to do
5 business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign
6 partnership or its title to property in this state or preclude it from defending an action
7 or proceeding in this state.

8 (4) A limitation on the liability of a partner of a foreign limited liability 9 partnership is not waived solely because the foreign partnership does business in 10 this state without registering to do business in this state.

11 (5) Section 178.1001 (1) and (2) applies even if a foreign limited liability
12 partnership fails to register under this subchapter.

13 (5m) (a) A foreign limited liability partnership that does business in this state
14 without registering to do business in this state is liable to this state, for each year

16 in an amount equal to all of the following:

17 1. All fees and other charges that would have been imposed by this chapter on 18 the foreign limited liability partnership had it properly filed a foreign registration
19 statement as required by this section and thereafter filed all reports required by this 20 chapter.

21 2. Fifty percent of the amount owed under subd. 1 or $5,000, whichever is less.

22 (b) The foreign limited liability partnership shall pay the amount owed under 23 par. (a) to the department, and the department may not file a foreign registration

SENATE BILL 657

1 The attorney general may enforce a foreign limited liability partnership's obligation
2 to pay to the department any amount owed under this subsection.
