The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Study Committee on Publication of Government Documents and Legal Notices.

BACKGROUND. Under current law, certain municipalities may, in lieu of newspaper publication, provide certain legal notice by posting a notice in three public places or, as authorized by 2015 Wisconsin Act 79, by posting a notice in one public place and placing the notice electronically on an internet site maintained by the municipality.

THE BILL. For qualifying municipalities that elect to provide legal notice by posting a notice in one public place and placing the notice on the municipality's internet site, the bill requires the municipality to include an easily identifiable link to its notices on the municipality's website homepage.
