

tions thirty-one and thirty-two, in town twenty-four north, in range eight, east of the fourth principal meridian, in Portage county, Wisconsin Territory, and to make use of the water for mills, machinery and other hydraulic power, they may think proper.

SEC. 2. Said dam shall not exceed six feet in height above low water, and in some suitable place in said dam there shall be a good and sufficient slide not less than twenty-four feet wide, and not less than six feet long for every one foot said dam is high, to admit of the safe passage of all rafts, boats and other water crafts descending said river.

SEC. 3. In said boom there shall be a space of at least forty feet to open to admit all rafts and boats to pass and shall be open at all times when there is rafts or boats to pass, free of any expense.

SEC. 4. This act shall be subject to all the provisions of the act approved January 13th, 1840, concerning mills and mill dams.

SEC. 5. That all dams now erected, or hereafter to be erected across the Wisconsin river, shall be subject to the provisions of the second section of this act.

SEC. 6. This act may be altered, amended or repealed by any future legislature of this Territory or of the State of Wisconsin.

APPROVED February 3rd, 1846.

AN ACT to incorporate Carroll College.

BE IT ENACTED by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That the name of Prairieville Academy is hereby changed, and shall hereafter be known by the name of Carroll College.

SEC. 2. That the trustees of said college and their successors shall forever hereafter have power and authority to direct and prescribe [prescribe] the course of study and the discipline in said college; also to select and appoint by ballot or otherwise, a President and such Professors and Tutors to assist the President in the government and education of the students belonging to such college, and such other officers as the said Trustees shall deem proper, all of whom shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Trustees. Power of trustees.

SEC. 3. That the said Trustees and their successors shall have power and authority to grant such literary honors and degrees as are usually granted by universities, colleges or seminaries of learning in the United States, and in testimony of such grants to give suitable diplomas under their seal, which diplomas shall entitle the possessors respectively to the immunities and privileges, which by usage or statute are allowed to the possessors of similar diplomas, granted by universities, colleges and seminaries of learning. ^{1b.}

SEC. 4. That the trustees and their successors shall have power and authority to make such rules and by-laws which may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the designs of said college: Provided such rules and by-laws are not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or of this Territory. ^{Ib.}

SEC. 5. That said corporation may at any time hold real estate not exceeding in value fifty thousand dollars.

SEC. 6. That the stockholders of said incorporation shall have power to elect any number of trustees not less than three nor more than nine.

SEC. 7. That all gifts and grants to said trustees shall be held by them for the exclusive benefit of said college, and for no other purpose whatever.

SEC. 8. This act may at any time be altered or amended by the Legislature.

APPROVED January 31, 1846.