

build a school house," approved January 31, 1846, be and the same is hereby revived to all intents and purposes.

SEC. 2. That the act which this act is intended to revive, shall be amended and known as school district number one, in Platteville school town, Grant county.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED January 29, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.

AN ACT

To incorporate the Nashotah House.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That Jackson Kemper, James Loyd Breck, Name and style of the corporation. William Adams, Solomon Davis, Benjamin Akerly, John Johnston, and William Leach, trustees, and their associates, together with such persons as may hereafter be associated with them, be, and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name of "Nashotah House," of the Nashotah lakes, in the town of Summit, Waukesha county, for the purpose of erecting, maintaining, and conducting a college of learning and piety, and General powers. by that name shall be competent to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to answer and be answered unto, in all courts of law and equity; acquire, hold, possess, enjoy, sell, convey, and dispose of, property, both real and personal, provided the annual income of said property shall not exceed, five thousand dollars, and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the corporation hereby created to purchase, sell; or deal in any property, except for purposes necessarily connected with said college; to have and use a common seal; to make and alter from time to time such by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary and proper for the government of said institution, its officers, and servants: Provided, such rules, bye-laws, or regulations, are not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or of Wisconsin.

Powers of trustees.

SEC. 2. That the trustees of said college, and their successors in office, forever hereafter shall have power and authority to direct and prescribe the course of study and discipline in said college; also to select and appoint a president, and such professors and tutors to assist the president in the government and education of the students belonging to such college, and such other officers as the said trustees shall deem proper, all of whom shall hold their said offices during the pleasure of said trustees.

Same subject.

SEC. 3. That said trustees and their successors shall have power and authority to grant such literary honors and degrees as are usually granted by universities, colleges, or seminaries of learning in the United States; and in testimony of such grants, to give suitable diplomas, under their seals, which diplomas shall entitle the possessors respectively to the immunities and privileges which by usage or statute are allowed to the possessors of similar diplomas granted by universities, colleges, or seminaries of learning.

Trustees how elected.

SEC. 4. That said trustees shall have power to elect or appoint their successors in office, to the number of not less than five, nor more than seven; a majority of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

Donations for what purpose held.

SEC. 5. That all gifts or grants to said trustees in that capacity shall be held by them for the exclusive benefit of said college, and be disposed of in that manner, and no other: Provided, that no property or funds, given for a specific purpose, shall be appropriated in behalf of any object or objects other than those intended by the donor.

Sec. 6. That any two of said trustees may call a meeting Meetings how of said board by giving at least ten days notice in writing to each of said trustees called.

Sec. 7. This act may at any time be altered amended, or repealed by the legislature of Wisconsin.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED, February 4, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.

AN ACT

To incorporate the First Baptist Society of the town of Prairieville.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin :

SECTION 1. That Nathaniel Walton, Leland Crocker, Name and style of the corporation.
Norman Clinton, David W. Reed, and Charles Burchard, trustees, and their associates, together with such persons as may hereafter be appointed with them, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name of "The First Baptist Society in the town of Prairieville," and by that name shall be competent to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to answer and be answered unto, in all courts of law and equity; [to] acquire, hold, possess, and enjoy, and to sell, convey, and dispose of property, both real and personal: General Powers.
Provided, the annual income of such property shall not exceed one thousand dollars; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the corporation hereby created to