JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1.

Extending thanks and commendation to those members of the present legislature who have enlisted in the military or naval service of the United States.

WHEREAS, The moment a state of war existed between our nation and the Imperial German government a number of senators and assemblymen of the present legislature responded to the call of the hour, and

WHEREAS, Their response to the call was so prompt, patriotic and loyal that it justly aroused the admiration of the people of this state. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That this legislature for and on behalf of the people of this state do publicly thank and commend these representatives both as soldiers, sailors and citizens, in that they have by their spirit and conduct set so high a mark and kept up so well the standard of Wisconsin's citizenship; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be duly entered in the journal of the two houses and that a copy thereof, suitably engrossed, duly signed by the presiding officers of both houses and attested by the chief clerks thereof, be transmitted to the members of this legislature now in the military or naval service of the United States.

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2.

WHEREAS, The University of Wisconsin plans for a Win the War for Permanent Peace Convention under the auspices of the League to Enforce Peace, William Howard Taft, president, on November 8 and 9, 1918; and

WHEREAS, The objects are

- To sustain the determination of our people to fight until Prussian Militarism shall have been forever crushed,
- To confirm opposition to a premature peace,
- To focus attention on the only advantage to the United States from this war—a Permanent Peace guaranteed by the League of Nations, and
- To support the president to the uttermost in his efforts to make good for the World the American Declaration of Independence, and
