

all persons, interested therein, of the time when the same will become forfeited.

Fees.

SEC. 3. The expense of publishing, as provided in the preceding section, shall be paid by the person redeeming or receiving the deed, and the clerk shall receive, for each deed, one dollar, to be paid by the person receiving it.

Clerk's fees.

SEC. 4. The clerks of the several boards of County Commissioners in this Territory, shall hereafter receive twenty-five cents for each certificate of redemption of any lands sold for taxes, if one lot only is included, and five cents for each additional lot or tract included in the same certificate, and the said clerks shall include as many lots or tracts, owned by the same individual, as the person redeeming shall desire.

Other acts repealed.

SEC. 5. All acts or parts of acts contravening any of the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect on the first day of March next.

Approved, January 13, 1840.

No. 60.

AN ACT to provide for the compensation of the officers of the Legislative Assembly, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin.

That there shall be paid out of the sum appropriated by Congress for defraying the expenses of the Legislative Assembly for the year one thousand eight hundred and forty,

To Edward V. Whiton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, three dollars per day extra, for forty-three days, one hundred and twenty-nine dollars.

To Ebenezer Childs, for four days' services as Speaker, pro tem., three dollars per day extra, twelve dollars.

To John Catlin, Chief Clerk, for forty-three days' services at six dollars per day, two hundred and fifty-eight dollars.

To B. H. Edgerton, Assistant Clerk, for forty-three days' service, at five dollars per day, two hundred and fifteen dollars.

To B. C. Eastman, for forty-three days' services as transcribing Clerk, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To R. H. Strong, for forty-three days' services as transcribing Clerk, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To James D. Jenkins, for forty-three days' services as transcribing Clerk, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To James Durley, for forty-three days' services as Sergeant-at-Arms, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To Samuel A. Clark, for forty-three days' services as Door-Keeper, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To Daniel Butts, for forty-three days' services as Assistant Door-Keeper, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To Theodore Green, for forty-three days' services as Messenger, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy-two dollars.

To H. H. Brannan, four days' services as Messenger pro tem., at four dollars per day, sixteen dollars.

To Edward Elderkin, for four days' services as Door-Keeper pro tem., at four dollars per day, sixteen dollars.

To N. C. Prentiss and James L. Thayer, Commissioners on Public Buildings, for expenses in fitting up the Capitol, two hundred and thirty-one dollars and one cent, (in full.)

To L. S. Kellogg, balance for services in bringing up the proceedings of the Council and House of Representatives, at different sessions, up to the present session, thirty-six dollars, (in full.)

To William McDonald, for making and furnishing writing desk, fifteen dollars.

To Moses M. Strong, for retaining fees in suits of Territory vs. J. D. Doty and others, also vs. James Morrison, and for argument in application for writ of mandamus in the former suit, one hundred and fifty dollars, (in full.)

To John Catlin, for rent of room for storing books, Territorial maps, &c., fifty dollars (in full.)

To John Catlin, for preparing the local laws for publication and distributing them, two hundred and fifty dollars.

To John Catlin, for services as Attorney and Counsellor for Commissioners of Public Buildings vs. James Morrison, forty dollars, (in full.)

To Edward Campbell, for bringing one box of local laws from Milwaukee, and for sundry articles as per bill, eighteen dollars and eighty-eight cents.

To J. C. Dennis & Co. for three hundred copies of "Cooper's Tactics" four hundred and one dollars.

To William T. Sterling, for the use of Barton and Garfield, for stationary, candles, &c., purchased for the use of the Legislative Assembly, four hundred and seventy-six dollars and twelve cents.

To the Rev. Washington Philo, under a resolution of this House, inviting him to perform divine service in the hall of the House of Representatives, one hundred dollars.

To N. C. Prentiss, to services as Commissioner of Public Buildings to January 1, 1840, one hundred and sixty-nine days, at five dollars per day, eight hundred and forty-four dollars, (in full.)

To James L. Thayer, for services as Commissioner on Public Buildings, to January 1, 1840, one hundred days, at five dollars per day, five hundred dollars.

To L. H. Cotton, for services as Commissioner on Public Buildings to January 1, 1840, fifty-one days, at five dollars per day, two hundred and fifty-five dollars.

To James Morrison, for lumber furnished the Acting Commissioner, fifty-nine dollars, (in full.)

To Edward Campbell, for conveying stove from Milwaukee to Madison, four dollars.

To Edward V. Whiton, for services as attorney in suit vs. James Morrison, seventy-five dollars, (in full.)

To J. W. Griffith, Sheriff of Clayton, (Iowa T.) for taking census in 1837, twenty-two dollars and fifty cents.

To Daniel Kimball, for one days' services as Sergeant-at-arms pro tem., three dollars.

To H. N. Wells, Attorney General, for services and expenses at two terms of the court in the suit of the Territory vs. the Bank of Wisconsin, three hundred and twenty-six dollars.

To John Catlin, postmaster at Madison, the sum of three hundred and fifteen dollars, in full, for the postage of the members of the Legislative Assembly during the present session.

To James Morrison, for rent of library room to January 1, 1840, one hundred and fourteen dollars and thirty-three cents.

To John T. Wilson, for shovel, one dollar and fifty cents.

To Daniel Butts, for four brooms, two dollars.

To P. W. Matts, for labor, eleven and a quarter days on desks, eighteen dollars.

To Simeon Mills, for carriage of extra mail, during the session, from Madison to Milwaukee, one hundred and fifty dollars.

To Welsh and Plowman for printing the Journal of the House of Representatives of second session, twelve hundred and ninety five dollars.

To Daniel H. Richards, for printing the local laws of the session of 1838—9, eleven hundred and eighty three dollars and forty six cents.

To Daniel H. Richards, for publishing the act, regulating general elections, and commissioners' report on public buildings, ninety dollars.

To William T. Sterling, for sundry articles purchased for the library, including all the incidental expenses, sixty one dollars and seventy-five cents.

To William T. Sterling, for four months services as librarian to July 4, 1839, under the old law, of eight dollars per month, thirty-two dollars.

To Ripley Brigham, for services as assistant librarian during the present session of the Legislative Assembly, one hundred and fifty dollars.

To William T. Sterling, for services as librarian, from July 4, 1839, to January 4, 1840, one hundred and forty dollars.

To John Sheedy, for forty three days' services cutting wood for the use of the Legislature, three dollars per day, being one hundred and twenty nine dollars.

To William B. Slaughter, for interest on $20,000 borrowed of Bank of Missouri, eight hundred and ninety two dollars and thirty two cents.

Also, for cash paid Wagner, for seats, seventy five dollars.

Also, for cash paid Doolittle and Munson, for maps, in conformity with resolution of the Legislative Assembly, fourteen hundred and sixty three dollars.

To James Collins, three dollars per day, for forty three days service, as President of the Council, one hundred and twenty nine dollars.

To William Bullen, three dollars per day, for six days service, as President pro tem. of the Council, eighteen dollars.

To George Beatty, six dollars per day, for forty three days service, as Secretary of the Council, two hundred and fifty eight dollars.

To John Plumb, jr., assistant Secretary of the Council, for forty three days service, at five dollars per day, two hundred and fifteen dollars.

To T. Charles Morgan, Transcribing Clerk of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To James R. Hugunin, Transcribing Clerk of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To Ira A. Libby, Transcribing Clerk of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To James Conner, Door Keeper of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To Thomas J. Noyes, Sergeant-at-arms of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To Edwin Brainard, for two days service, as Sergeant-at-arms pro tem. of the Council at four dollars per day, eight dollars.

To Luther Churchill, Messenger of the Council, for three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To G. Ripley Brigham, for two days service as Messenger pro tem. of the Council, at four dollars per day, eight dollars.

To Robert H. Hotchkiss, assistant Door keeper of the Council, for forty three days service, at four dollars per day, one hundred and seventy two dollars.

To George Beatty, for preparing the Journal of the Council for publication, one hundred and twenty five dollars.

To John Catlin, for preparing the Journal of the House of Representatives of the present session for publication, the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars.

To David Brigham, for preparing the laws of the present session for publication, two hundred dollars.

To Harrison Reed, for publishing sundry laws and report of the commissioners of public buildings, in the Milwaukee Sentinel, one hundred and fifty dollars.

To Welsh and Plowman, for printing as per bill rendered and on file, one hundred and fifty one dollars and fifty cents.

To Charles C. Sholes, for publishing in "Wisconsin Democrat, the general election law and proclamation of the Governor, in relation to the vacancy of A. J. Irwin, Esq. thirty four dollars.

To the Wisconsin Argus, for publishing steam boat act of 1837—8, fifteen dollars.

To George Beatty, for freight of boxes, stationary, &c., fifteen dollars.

To Franklin J. Munger, for balance of his account for printing the Journal of the Council for 1837—8, one hundred and eighty eight dollars.

To Robert C. Hoard, reward offered by proclamation of Governor Horner, for the apprehension of Linden B. McCumber, a fugitive from justice, two hundred dollars.

To C. C. P. Arndt, to sixteen days' pay in addition to the time which he has attended the present session, forty eight dollars.

To Joseph Brisbois, for five days' pay, in addition to the time which he has attended the present session, fifteen dollars.

To W. T. Sterling, the sum of twelve dollars, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to purchase a draft on the city of New York for the amount of the appropriation to the said Sterling, for the use of Barton & Garfield, for stationary, &c.

For one iron safe for the Clerk's office of the Supreme Court, one hundred and fifty dollars, and the clerk is hereby required to purchase the same.

For the purchase of books for the library, to be selected and purchased under directions of the Governor, five hundred dollars.

Edward V. Whiton, is hereby directed to receive from W. B. Slaughter, Packard, Van Benthuysen & Co., receipt for sixteen hundred and fifty one dollars, eighteen cents, as a voucher for the said Whiton, for the payment for the printing of the laws, and that the said Whiton give to the said Slaughter a receipt for fifteen hundred and forty eight dollars, the balance on the appropriation of twenty five hundred dollars, of the last session to enable the said Slaughter to settle with the treasury department, and further, that the said Whiton pay to the said Slaughter, one hundred and three dollars and eighteen cents out of the unexpended monies in his hands.

The sum of six hundred and fifty dollars and fifty five cents in addition to the sum of sixty one dollars and forty five cents, of the amount heretofore received from the Secretary of the Territory, for expenses in publishing and distributing the Statutes of the Territory, is hereby appropriated to Edward V. Whiton, for services rendered in procuring the publication of said laws, and for distributing the same, in addition to his expenses.

The fiscal agent of the Legislative Assembly, is hereby directed to pay the sums authorized by law, in the order following to wit:

- 1st. Pay and mileage of members.
- 2d. Pay of officers of the assembly.
- 3d. Accounts for stationary.
- 4th. For fuel.
- 5th. For printing.
- 6th. Other incidental expenses of the assembly.
- 7th. Appropriations for services of public offices.
- 8th. Other miscellaneous account.

To Charles C. Sholes, for printing the Journal of the Council for 1839, one thousand thirty eight dollars and eighty five cents.

To Noonan and Sholes, for publishing in Wisconsin Enquirer, act relating to general elections, report of commissioners of public buildings, and proclamation of Governor, as to sale of canal lands, and in relation to location, as per bill rendered and on file, one hundred and seventy dollars and fifty cents.

To William W. Wyman, in full for printing done for the Council, including newspaper account as per bill rendered, examined and allowed by committee on printing, eight hundred and ninety dollars and twenty four cents, and for additional compensation, five hundred dollars.

To Josiah A. Noonan, in full of all accounts for printing, including all former services, five hundred and one dollars and seventy two cents, and for additional compensation, five hundred dollars.

To William B. Slaughter, for office rent, fuel, lights, &c., two hundred dollars; for postage, one hundred dollars.

To William C. Van Burgen, for repairing furniture for Council, and drawing wood to Capitol and House of Representatives, twenty dollars and fifty cents.

To J. Taylor, for eighty cords wood delivered at Capitol per order of the librarian, two hundred and fifty dollars, also fifty dollars for hauling stationary from Milwaukee, also twenty seven-dollars and sixty seven cents, for freight and charges paid Dousman & Hosmer on said stationary, also, forty dollars for hauling stationary from Galena, and five dollars for hauling wood to library one day, as per account rendered, examined and on file with the Secretary of the Council.

To William T. Sterling, for expenses incurred in the purchase of packing boxes for laws, and for services in packing, six dollars and twenty five cents.

To Moses M. Strong, in full for his services and expenses in paying to Collier and Pettus, the sum of thirteen thousand three hundred and ninety seven dollars and forty six cents, the sum of four hundred dollars, which sum the Secretary of the territory is hereby directed to allow to said Strong on settlement, after deducting therefrom the sum of one hundred thirty three dollars and fifty cents for excess of interest which the territory is liable to pay to Collier and Pettus for the delay of said Strong in paying the loan made from them.

To William B. Slaughter, for necessary expenses in paying twenty thousand dollars to the Bank of Missouri, four hundred dollars.

Approved, January 13th, 1840.