

An act to provide for the publication of the Revised Statutes of this state. Chap 114

THE People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The revised statutes of this state shall be published in one volume, large octavo, on new small pica type, and on paper of good book quality, bound in calf in the modern style of law book binding; and shall contain such matter besides the general and permanent laws of the state, and such marginal notes and index, as shall hereafter be prescribed in the law arranging the publication, and directing the superintending of such publication.

Style of printing.

SEC. 2. The copy right of the revised statutes is hereby secured for the space of two years, to the commissioners to revise the laws, or some suitable person to be selected by them, for the purpose of publication: Provided, the commissioners or the person so selected, shall, within twenty days after the passage of this act, execute to the governor of this state a bond, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with two or more sureties to be approved by said governor, conditioned for the faithful publication of the work, and its delivery to the state, as hereinafter directed, agreeably to the provisions of this act.

Copy right secured.

SEC. 3. The governor of this state is authorized and required, in the name of the state of Wisconsin, to subscribe for, and take, when printed, bound and completed, as herein provided, four thousand copies, to be deposited in the state library, subject to be distributed, as is or may hereafter be provided by law, of the said revised statutes, for the use of the state, at a sum not exceeding one dollar and seventy-five cents per volume: Provided, however, if the said volume shall exceed seven hundred pages, the sum of twenty-five cents additional per volume, for every hundred pages of excess over the above mentioned number of seven hundred pages, and proportionably for a less number of excess, shall be allowed.

Gov. to subscribe for copies.

SEC. 4. The said contractor is required, in addition to the number contracted for by the state, to publish at least two thousand copies of said statutes additional; and in the sale of said additional copies, he is hereby restricted in price to a sum, not in the whole amount to exceed four dollars per copy.

To publish extra copies.

SEC. 5. The said revised statutes shall be printed, bound and completed and delivered at the seat of government of this state, on or before the first day of December next, and the governor of this state is hereby authorized to receive and accept of the said statutes so delivered, if he shall be of the opinion that the work has been done according to the contract, and the requirements of this act; if in his opinion the work has not been so executed, he shall not accept of the same; and should the governor accept of the same, he is hereby authorized and directed to [10] deliver to said contractor a receipt for the same, and to cancel his bonds.

When to be completed?

SEC. 6. Said contractor in the publication of the work herein directed, shall be subject in the arrangement of the work, its side notes, index and general character, to the direction of the person
