An act to appropriate certain sums therein named.

Chap 182

THE People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That there be and hereby is appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Edward H. Rudd, the sum of one hundred dollars, for engraving, as per order of the last legislature, seals for the circuit and probate courts of the state, and a seal for the state department. E. H. Rudd.

SEC. 2. That the seals engraved by E. H. Rudd, now in the office of the secretary of state, shall be returned to said Rudd to be re-engraved; and when so re-engraved, they shall be returned to said secretary's office. Seals to be re-engraved.

SEC. 3. On their return as aforesaid, the secretary of state and the treasurer shall be a committee to examine said seals, and if they approve of them, the treasurer is hereby authorized to pay said Rudd at the rate of six dollars for each seal, deducting the appropriation made in the first section of this act. Seals to be examined.

SEC. 4. Said Rudd is authorized to receive the seal of the state, and the supreme court seal, which have been rejected.

SEC. 5. There is hereby appropriated to Jonathan A. Hadley the sum of thirty dollars, for papers (Watertown Chronicle) furnished members of the legislature at the present session. J. A. Hadley.

HARRISON C. HOBART,
Speaker of the Assembly.

JOHN E. HOLMES,

Lt. Governor, and President of the Senate.

Approved, March 31, 1849.
