An Act to incorporate the Taycheedah and Green Bay Plank Road Company.

Chap 364

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That James D. Doty, N. P. Tallmadge, Daniel Whitney, August Heyssen, William R. Tallmadge, Charles Grisse, John W. Whenfield, Charles Doty, Benjamin F. Moore, Layton Dick, John W. Quinney, Edgar Conklin, Daniel H. Whitney, Edwin H. Smith, Isaac S. Tallmadge, and John B. Macy, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, under the direction of a majority of whom subscriptions may be received to the capital stock of the Taycheedah and Green Bay Plank Road Company, hereby incorporated, and they may cause books to be opened at such times and places as they shall direct, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, first giving thirty days' notice of the times and places of receiving such subscriptions, by publishing the same in one or more newspapers printed in each county, if any, through which the road may pass. Commissioners'

SEC. 2. The capital stock of said company shall be seventy-five thousand dollars, in shares of twenty-five dollars each, and as soon as two hundred and fifty shares of the capital stock shall be subscribed and five per cent. of the amount thereon actually paid in or secured to the said company, the subscribers of such stock, with such other persons as they shall thereafter associate with them for that purpose, their successors and assigns, shall be and they are hereby created and declared a body corporate and politic by the name, style, and title, of the "Taycheedah and Green Bay Plank Road Company," with perpetual succes- Capital stock.

General powers.—gion, and by that name shall be capable in law of purchasing, holding, selling, bargaining, and conveying estate, real, personal, or mixed, in their corporate name may sue and be sued, may have a common seal which they may alter or renew at pleasure, and generally may do all and singular the matters and things which an incorporated company may by law do.

To call meeting. SEC. 3. The said commissioners or a majority of them, after said five hundred shares of stock shall have been subscribed as aforesaid, shall give at least fourteen days' notice in one or more newspapers, if any, in each of the counties through which the road may pass, of the time and place of the meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing seven directors, who shall hold their offices until their successors are elected, and annually thereafter upon the anniversary of the first election, upon notice of the place of meeting being given by the directors then in being, being published in one or more newspapers as aforesaid, to be designated by the said directors, the said stockholders shall meet to elect directors: Provided, That until the first election of directors, the said commissioners above named, upon the subscription of five hundred shares of stock and the organizing of said commissioners by the election by them of one of their number president, shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of a board of directors for said company, and the corporate existence of said company shall be taken and held to have begun and be complete as if a regular election of directors had taken place, and in case of a vacancy at any time happening in the board of directors, or in the said board of commissioners acting in the capacity of directors, the board shall have power to fill such vacancy.

Each share of stock entitled to one vote. SEC. 4. The affairs of said company shall be managed by the said directors, who shall be stockholders, and be chosen by ballot by the stockholders in person or by proxy duly authorized, and in all elections, and in the discussion of all questions acted upon at any meeting of the stockholders, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and the majority of the votes cast shall govern, except in elections, where the five persons having the greatest number of votes cast for directors shall be declared duly elected.

Powers of directors. SEC. 5. A majority of said directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of all business, and shall organize by choosing one of their number president, and they shall have power to appoint a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers or agents as they shall deem fit, and may fix their compensation, and may demand adequate security for the performance of their respective trusts, and may remove said officers and revoke the powers of such agents at pleasure; they shall also have power to make all necessary and proper by-laws, rules, and regulations for the management of said company, the subscription of stock, the payment of installments thereon, the assignment and transfer of stock certificates, and prescribing the duties of officers, all of which by-laws not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, when duly recorded in the books of the company, shall be effectual and binding upon the members of said company, and all persons interested therein, as if the same formed a part of this act of incorporation.

SEC. 6. The said board of directors shall also have power to decide the time and manner in which said stockholders shall pay installments upon their stock, and to declare the forfeiture of said stock and all prior payments thereon, for failure to pay such installments as may be called for, and also to adopt in behalf of the company a relinquishment of any stock subscribed, and execute to the person or persons relinquishing the same, valid releases, discharging them from all liabilities thereafter, for [or] on account of the acts of said company or its officers.

May declare stock forfeited.

SEC. 7. The said directors shall have power to regulate tolls, and to make such covenants and contracts in the name and under the seal of said company, with any person or persons, as the execution and management of the work, and the convenience and interest of the company may require; and may issue to each stockholder a certificate or certificates for the shares which he, she, or they subscribe for, stating in the body of such certificate or certificates the amount paid on such share at the time of the issuing of such certificate or certificates, which certificate or certificates shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of said company, and which certificate or certificates shall be transferable in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

To issue certificates.

SEC. 8. The said company shall have power to locate and construct a single or double track road from the village of Taycheedah in Fond du Lac county, to the town of Green Bay in Brown county, by the most eligible and practicable route, as the directors shall decide. The said company shall also have power to extend the said road, and to build branches therefrom whenever they may deem it expedient, and to increase the capital stock of the company to three hundred thousand dollars. The track of said road shall be constructed of plank, stone, gravel, charcoal, or either, in whole or in part, each at the option of the directors, so that the same when completed, shall constitute a firm, regular, and proper surface for the passage of wagons and carriages.

May enter upon lands.

SEC. 9. It shall and may be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers, and agents, to enter upon any lands for the purpose of exploring, surveying, and locating the route of said plank road, doing thereto no unnecessary damage, and when said route shall be determined by the said company, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers, contractors, and servants, at any time to enter upon, take possession of, and use such lands, not exceeding four rods in width along the line of said route, subject, however, to the payment of such compensation as the company may have agreed to pay therefor, [or] as will be ascertained in the manner hereinafter directed: Provided, That in such places as may be necessary for the company to obtain gravel and stone, or to make excavations and embankments for the construction of said road, the company may locate the route of said road not to exceed six rods in width, and they may also cut down such trees on each side of said road, as may endanger said road by falling or otherwise.

Provide

How damages settled.

SEC. 10. When the said corporation shall not agree with the said owner or owners of any land, gravel, stone, or other material required for the construction of said road, for the purpose thereof, or for the compensation to be paid therefor, or when by reason of the absence or legal incapacity of the owner or owners, no such agreement or purchase can be made, then, and in any such case, it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace to issue a warrant directed to any sheriff or constable of said county, not directly interested, requiring him to summon a jury of nine freeholders of said county not interested in said property, to meet said justice at some convenient place, at or near the property to be valued, on a day in said warrant named, not less than five nor more than ten days from the date of said warrant; and if at the time and place named, any of the persons so summoned do not attend, the said sheriff or constable shall immediately summon as many as may be necessary with the persons in attendance as jurors, to furnish a pannel of nine jurors, and from them the said company or the owner or owners of the property to be valued, their agent or attorney, or either of them, and if they are not present in person or by attorney, the sheriff or constable shall for him, her, or them, strike off each two of said jurors, and the remaining five shall act as a jury of inquest of damages. Before they act as such the said justice of peace shall administer to each of them an oath or affirmation that they will faithfully and impartially value the land and material required for such road, and all damages which the owner or owners shall sustain by reason of the construction of said road, taking into consideration the advantages the same will be to the owner or owners according to the best of his skill and judgment; whereupon the said justice and jurors shall proceed to review the said land or material so required, and to hear the evidence of the respective parties, which the said justice shall reduce to writing, which shall be signed by the said justice, and the verdict of the jurors thereon shall be signed by the jurors or a majority of them, and by the justice of the peace; the said justice of the peace shall within five days thereafter, transmit the same to the clerk of the district court of the proper county, who shall file the same; such inquisition shall describe the property taken or to be taken, or the boundaries of the land in question, and the value thereof as aforesaid, and such valuation when paid, together with the cost of such inquisition, or tendered to the owner or owners, or deposited with said court, shall entitle the said company to the estate and interest in the same thus valued, as if it had been conveyed by the owner or owners thereof, so long as the land thus valued and taken shall be used for the track of said plank road: Provided,^{Proviso} That it shall not be lawful for any justice and jury of inquest to proceed in the valuation of any such property or material in the absence of the owner or owners thereof, his, her, or their legal representatives, unless it be made to appear by affidavit, that such owner or owners have had at least five days' notice of the time and place of meeting for the purpose of making such valuation, or unless it shall in like manner be shown that such owner or owners are under age or non compos mentis, such service of notice may be made upon the guardian or trustee, under the same restrictions as in the case of owners, or if there be no guardian or trustee, the same shall be established by affidavit: Provided, That no such materials shall be taken, if the jury shall decide that the same are essential to the owner or owners thereof.

SEC. 11. The directors shall have power in their discretion to construct said plank road along and upon any road or highway now or hereafter to be laid, opened, and established by the proper authorities, and of such width, and in such manner as the directors shall determine: Pro-^{May construct road on highway.}

vided, That such authority shall first prove to proceed from the supervisors of the town in which such public highway may be situated; and they may erect toll gates and exact toll from persons traveling on their road, whenever one mile is finished, or when the whole road is completed, not exceeding two cents per mile for every vehicle, sled, sleigh, or carriage drawn by two animals, and if drawn by more than two animals, one cent per mile for every additional animal; for every sled, sleigh, or carriage drawn by one animal, one cent per mile; for every score of sheep or swine, one cent per mile; and for every score of neat cattle four cents per mile: Provided, That persons going to and from military parade at which they are required by law to attend, and persons going to and returning from funerals, shall be exempt from tolls. The toll gatherer at each gate, when erected on said road in pursuance of this act, may detain and prevent from passing such gate an animal or carriage subject to toll, until the toll thereon is paid.

Rates of toll.

Proviso.

May receive property on subscriptions.

SEC. 12. The said directors may receive from any stockholder in said company, in lieu of money, for stock subscribed by him, real or personal property to the approval of the said board of directors, and upon the acceptance of such security from said stockholders, or any of them, the subscription of such stockholder shall be considered as paid and certificates of stock shall be issued to said stockholder in the same manner as if he had paid in the full amount of his subscription in money; and it shall be competent for said stockholders paying their subscriptions to said stock in securities as aforesaid, to contract and to pay to said company, interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, for a period not exceeding ten years, and to execute to the said company, by its corporate name, bonds, mortgages, or notes for such stock, which shall be available for the use and benefit of said company and for all subsequent holders thereof, and be transferable by them in the [same] manner as if the same were made payable to individuals, or to their order or assigns.

Penalty for injury to road.

SEC. 13. If any person or persons shall willfully or knowingly obstruct, break, injure, or destroy the said road to be constructed by said company, or any part thereof, or any work, buildings, or fixtures attached to or in use upon the same, belonging to said company, such person or persons, so offending, shall each of them, for every such offence, be liable to a civil suit for the recovery of damages by said company, by an action of trespass, in any court having competent jurisdiction in the county wherein the offence shall have been committed; and shall also be subject to indictment, and upon conviction, shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, or either, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 14. Any person who shall willfully break or throw down any gate on such road, which may have been erected in pursuance of this act, or do any damage to said road, or forcibly or fraudulently pass such gate without having paid the legal toll, or to avoid the payment of the legal toll, shall with his team, carriage, or animal, turn out of said road or pass any gate thereon on ground adjacent thereto, and again return on said road, shall for each offence forfeit a sum not exceeding ten dollars to and for the use of said company, and also for all damages done to the profits of said company in an action of trespass. Penalty for evading toll.

SEC. 15. The directors of said company at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, with the consent of a majority in amount of said stockholders, may provide for such increase of the capital stock of said company as may be found necessary to complete said road in such sections as may have been actually commenced but remain in an unfinished state for want of means for completing the same. May increase capital stock.

SEC. 16. If the said company shall not within three years from the passage of this act, commence the construction of said plank road, and expend three thousand dollars or more thereon, and shall not within ten years from the passage of this act, construct, finish, and put in operation a single or double track plank road, the rights, privileges, and powers of said corporation, under this act, shall be null and void. How charter forfeited.

SEC. 17. This act shall be favorably construed to effect the purposes thereby intended, and the same is hereby declared to be a public act, and copies thereof printed by authority of the state shall be received as evidence thereof. Public act.

SEC. 18. This act may be altered or amended by any future legislature of the state of Wisconsin.
