

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, July 12, 1853.

An act concerning a writ of attachment.

Chap. 106

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Claims against foreign incorporations may be enforced.

SECTION 1. Any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, having any debt, claim or demand not sounding in tort, against any foreign, once existing corporation, but which has ceased to exist or act as a body corporate, from any cause whatever, such person or persons, body or bodies, may enforce satisfaction of such debt, claim or demand, out of any moneys, credits, effects, or of property lying or being in this State, whether real or personal, or mixed, in case such moneys, credits, effects or property, would belong to such corporation, had the same not ceased to exist, or act as a body corporate, whether managed, controlled or held at the disposal of a trustee or trustees, assignee or assignees, agent or agents of or for such corporation or the creditors thereof, in whole or in part, and whether resident within or without this State, and created, constituted or appointed by such corporation or pursuant to any law of the United States, of this or any other state or country.

How to proceed &c.

SEC. 2. The owner or owners of such debt, claim or demand as aforesaid, may institute a suit for the recovery and enforcement of satisfaction thereof, by suing out of any circuit court of this State, a writ of attachment.

Which writ shall command the sheriff of the county in which the same issued, to attach the moneys, credits, effects and property, lying or being within this State, which would belong to the corporation named therein, had said corporation not ceased to exist, or act as a body corporate, however managed, controlled or held, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy the demand of the plaintiff, and the costs and charges incident to said suit; and to summon (naming the corporation) to appear and answer the plaintiffs in a plea of trespass on the case, which shall be done by leaving a copy of said writ with any person or persons so managing, controlling or holding the whole or any part of the property subject to said writ, if to be found in this State; any such person receiving a copy of said writ, shall to the action for the defendant (nominally the corporation by name) in his judiciary capacity.

SEC. 3. The writs to be issued under this act shall conform as near as may be to ordinary writs of attachment, except so far as is otherwise in this act provided.

SEC. 4. From the issuing of the writ to final judgment, and satisfaction, all the provisions of law shall apply to suits commenced under this act, so far as the sum may be consistent therewith and no further.

SEC. 5. This act shall be printed immediately after the passage thereof, and when so printed shall take effect and be in force.

Approved, July 12, 1853.
