

An Act concerning the Change of Venue.

Chap. 51.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever any person shall apply for a change of venue, of any cause pending in any court of record in this state, on account of the prejudice of the judge of said Court, in the manner provided by the first section of chapter ninety-five, (95) of the revised statutes, it shall be the duty of the judge or court to which such application is made, to award such change of venue: Provided, that not more than one change of venue shall be awarded in a cause; and this act shall not be construed as to authorize a change of venue in any cause wherein a change of venue has been already awarded: And provided further, That in cases now pending in the courts of record, in this state, wherein either party may have continued the case for one or more terms, a change of venue shall not be awarded in such case, otherwise than is provided in chapter ninety-five (95), of the revised statutes, but it shall be tried in the court where it is now pending, unless changed according to the provisions of said chapter.

SEC. 2. So much of section one (1), of chapter ninety-five (95), of the revised statutes as conflicts with the provisions of this act is hereby repealed.

Approved March 29, 1853.
