An Act to amend Chapter 35 of the Revised Statutes.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Amendment.

SECTION 1. Section first of chapter 35 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows, viz :

"SEC. 1. Whenever any logs, timber, boards or planks, in rafts or otherwise, shall be drifted upon any island in any of the waters within this state, or upon the bank or shore of such waters, the owner of such logs, timber or lumber, may at any time within three years remove the same on paying or tendering to the owner or occupant of such land such reasonable damages as may be caused by reason of such removal or non-removal, and if the owner shall not within said time, make such payment or tender and take such logs, timber or lumber from such lands, unless he and the owner or occupant of such lands shall otherwise agree, the same shall be deemed the property of such owner or occupant of the lands: Provided, The owner or occupant of the lands may give written notice to the owner of such logs, timber or lumber to remove the same, giving a description of the marks, if any, or kind of logs, timber or lumber, and the description of the place where such logs, timber or lumber are, or if the owner be unknown or cannot be found, by publishing a notice in some newspaper published in the county where such logs, timber or lumber may be, if there be one, if not, in an adjoining county, at least once in each week for three successive weeks, and if such logs, timber or lumber be not claimed and removed from said land within six months after such notice, said logs, timber and lumber shall be deemed the property of the owner or occupant of said lands."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1856.
