

the said county judge from receiving fees as heretofore for probate business.

SEC. 16. The judge of said county court shall not have power to try and determine any cause in which he shall be interested, or in which he shall have acted as counsel for either party, except by agreement of the parties; and in all cases where said judge shall be a party, or shall have been counsel for either party, he shall transmit the cause to the circuit court of said county, certifying the reasons as aforesaid; and the circuit court shall thereupon proceed to try and determine the same in the same manner and order as if it had originated in the circuit court.

Judge has no power to try causes where he is interested or acted as counsel.

SEC. 17. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SEC. 18. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication.

Approved May 17th, 1858.

Chapter 125.

Published May 28th, 1858.

AN ACT to provide for paying the Architect employed upon the Capitol extension.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Governor of this State is hereby authorized and empowered to contract with the architect appointed under the provisions of section four, chapter twenty-six, general laws of 1857, whose compensation shall be as follows: Two and a half per cent. on the amount of the contract for plans, elevation and specifications; one per cent. for details to larger scale, and one and a half per cent. for superintendance; which said per centage shall be in full payment for all services heretofore performed or to be performed, and of all claims of every name or nature until the completion of said extension; And, provided, further, That should the work on the present plan be abandoned by the Legislature, then in that case, the Gov-

Governor to contract with architect at the following compensation.

Proviso.

error is hereby authorized to settle with said architect, but the compensation shall not exceed two thousand dollars.

Payment—
how made.

SEC. 2. Whenever said contract shall have been entered into and completed as aforesaid, the Governor is hereby authorized to pay for said services, at the price agreed upon, by certifying the amount due to said architect to the Secretary of State, who shall give a certificate or warrant therefor upon the State Treasurer, and after the passage of this act and payments shall be made quarterly to said architect upon certificates or warrants drawn as aforesaid.

Appropriated.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the State Treasury, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay said architect for all services by him rendered and ascertained as provided by sections one and two of this act.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved May 17th, 1858.

Chapter 126.

Published May 28th, 1858.

AN ACT to authorize the incorporation of Law Schools and Law Library Associations.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

May form a corporation
with powers
and privileges
herein granted

SECTION 1. Any number of persons not less than nine, may form themselves into a corporation under such corporate name as they may adopt, for the purpose of organizing a law library and law school, or either, or both, and whenever any such organization shall have been had and perfected according to the provisions of this act, such incorporation shall have perpetual succession, and shall have and enjoy all the privileges, franchises and immunities incident to a corporation, and shall be capable in law of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, defending and being defended