CHAPTER 51.

AN ACT to fix the time for holding courts in the Tenth Judicial Circuit, and summoning jury therein.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Time of holding courts.

SECTION 1. The circuit courts in the tenth judicial circuit shall be holden as follows: In the county of Brown, on the fourth Mondays of January and May, and the first Monday of October, of each year. In the county of Winnebago, on the second Monday of April, the second Monday of September, and the second Monday in December, in each year. In the county of Outagamie, on the third Mondays in January and June, and the second Monday in November, in each year. In the county of Oconto, on the second Monday in May, and the fourth Monday in October, in each year.

SEC. 2. No grand jury shall be drawn or summoned to attend at the January term in the county of Brown, or the September term in the county of Winnebago, unless ordered by the judge of said circuit, nor shall grand or petit jurors be drawn or summoned to attend the January term in the county of Outagamie, unless ordered for such terms by the judge of said circuit. When so ordered, as aforesaid, the jurors shall be drawn, summoned and empaneled as is now provided by law and the provisions of this act. Relating to grand juries in certain cases.

SEC. 3. The venire for the grand jury in said circuit shall be returnable at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the first day of the term, and the venire for the petit jury in said circuit shall be returnable at eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the second day of the term, and the jurors shall be summoned accordingly. Venire, when returnable.

SEC. 4. All recognizances in criminal charges entered into before any justice of the peace, or other person in said circuit, authorized by law to take the same, shall be made returnable at the term to be holden in the proper county next succeeding the entry thereof, at which a grand jury is required to attend, except in appeal cases from any justice of the peace or other officer within said circuit, when the recognizances shall be returnable to the next succeeding term in the proper county. Recognizances in criminal cases.

SEC. 5. All writs, venires, process, proceedings and recognizances, heretofore issued, commenced, made or entered into, or which may be issued, commenced, made, or entered into, in or from said courts, or either of them, and all proceedings pending therein, or returnable thereto, whether by recognizance or otherwise, shall be held and taken as returnable at the times named in this act for holding the said courts respectively. When returnable.

SEC. 6. All acts or parts of acts contravening or conflicting with the provisions of this act, are repealed so far as they contravene and conflict with the provisions of this act. Repealed.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 9, 1859.
