

and against the repeal of the village charter, the village organization shall continue, but if a majority of the electors voting at such election shall vote against a village organization and in favor of returning to a town organization, then, and in that case, the president and trustees shall cease to exercise the powers conferred on them by this charter, and the village organization shall cease, and the territory embraced within the village plat shall return to and be subject to the jurisdiction of the town of Koshkonong; but such vote to relinquish the village charter shall in no ways effect [affect] any fines or forfeitures already incurred, or any delinquent sidewalk or street improvement tax which was at the time of taking the vote, actually due and unpaid. In case such dissolution of the village organization shall take place, the supervisors of the town of Koshkonong shall have all the power to collect all delinquent taxes, and all fines and forfeitures, then due and unpaid, and pay all debts, demands and liabilities with the same, as are, by this act, conferred on the trustees of the village, and the surplus, if any, after paying all legal claims, they shall pay into the town treasury. But no such election shall be called or vote taken more than once in any one year. All elections called under this section shall be conducted in the same manner, and subject to all the provisions made in this act for village elections.
