

CHAPTER 188.

[Published April 10, 1860.]

AN ACT to authorize the county of Eau Claire to keep and maintain a free ferry across the Chippewa river in said county.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Eau Claire are hereby authorized and empowered to keep and maintain a free ferry across the Chippewa river, at the town of Eau Claire, in said county, ^{Power of board of supervisors}

SEC. 2. The expenses of keeping, maintaining, and running such ferry, whenever established, and directed by said board, shall be paid out of the county treasury, ^{Expenses to be paid out of Co. treasury.} in the same manner as other county charges.

SEC. 3. The board of supervisors of said county of Eau Claire, shall have the power to establish such ferry, purchase suitable boats and rigging for such ferry, and contract with and hire some person or persons to run the same, and to keep it in repair; and all charges and expenses, so incurred, shall be audited, and paid as other county charges. ^{County board may purchase, &c.}

SEC. 4. Whenever said board of supervisors shall establish and maintain any ferry, as herein provided, the same shall be well manned, and under such rules and regulations as the board may make for the same, but no person shall be charged for crossing said ferry; and the same shall be free to all. ^{Board may make rules and regulations.}

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the tenth day of April next.

Approved March 23, 1860.

CHAPTER 189.

[Published March 26, 1860.]

AN ACT to change the boundaries of the town of Watertown, in the county of Jefferson.

(See Supplement to Local Laws.)