

shall be apportioned among the several towns of said county, in proportion to the number of acres of swamp lands in each of such towns respectively; such proportion to be ascertained by the clerk of the county board of supervisors, according to the duplicate list of such lands on file in his office.

SEC. 2. The chairman of the board of supervisors of each town shall, on the 1st day of May, 1860, and yearly, thereafter, draw from the county treasurer the amount apportioned to such town, giving a proper voucher therefor. To be drawn by chairman

SEC. 3. The moneys so received by said towns, shall by them be expended in the drainage of swamp lands, within the limits of such town, in such manner as the board of supervisors thereof shall direct: Provided, that said supervisors shall have no interest, directly, or indirectly, in any contract let by them for draining said lands: And provided, also, that said supervisors shall not appropriate said funds for any other purpose, except that mentioned in this section. How expended. Proviso.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1860.

CHAPTER 226.

[Published April 4, 1860.]

AN ACT to legalize the sale of land for unpaid taxes, in the county of Trempeleau.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All sales of lands for unpaid taxes, made in and for the county of Trempeleau, on the 15th day of November, A. D. 1859, and the advertising thereof, and all certificates of sale issued thereon by the treasurer of said county, are hereby declared to be legal, valid, and sufficient, in all respects, and to all intents whatsoever. Legalizing tax sale of 1859 in Trempeleau County.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 28, 1860.