

and inserting in lieu thereof the words "south east," so that it shall read as follows: "The governor of the state of Wisconsin is hereby authorized and empowered to seize and take possession of, for the use of the state, any land not exceeding two acres, situate on the south-east corner of Green Island, in Green Bay, in this state, for the purpose of ceding jurisdiction thereof to the United States, for the erection and maintenance of a lighthouse thereon."

SECTION 2. That the tract of land on Green Island, which was selected and surveyed on the south-east end of said island, on the 12th day of September, 1860, by the commissioners appointed in pursuance of said act, be and is hereby adopted as the site for a lighthouse on said island; and the said commissioners shall proceed to ascertain and fix the value thereof, and in all respects to carry out the provisions of said act, to which this act is amendatory.

Land adopted for site of lighthouse.

Value to be fixed

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 2, 1861.

CHAPTER 12.

[Published February 2, 1861.]

AN ACT to extend the time of selling lands for taxes in Douglas County.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sale of lands in the county of Douglas for the delinquent taxes for the years 1859 and 1860, is hereby postponed until the sale of lands in said county for the delinquent taxes for the year 1861, at which time the county treasurer of said county shall include the delinquent lists for the years 1859, 1860 and 1861, in one advertisement and one sale.

Sale of lands postponed.

SECTION 2. This act shall be immediately published and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 2, 1861.