

CHAPTER 33.

[Published February 18, 1861.]

AN ACT concerning the Change of Venue, in criminal actions, in the Municipal Court of the city and county of Milwaukee.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever a change of venue is allowed in any criminal action in the municipal court of the city and county of Milwaukee, on account of the interest or prejudice of the judge of said court, or because the said judge has been of counsel for, or is related to, the defendant, such action shall be removed to the circuit court for Milwaukee county for trial, and shall be tried in said circuit court, notwithstanding the provisions of any law of this state concerning the change of venue in criminal actions.

When venue may be changed from municipal to circuit court.

SECTION 2. This act shall be published immediately, and shall take affect from and after its passage.

Approved February 16, 1861.

CHAPTER 34.

[Published February 18, 1861.]

AN ACT to amend Chapter 22 of the General Laws of 1859, entitled "An act relative to the sale of lands for unpaid taxes and the conveyance and redemption thereof."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 22 of the general laws of 1859, entitled "An act relative to the sale of lands for unpaid taxes and the conveyance and redemption thereof," is hereby amended by striking out the word "April," whenever it occurs in said act, and inserting the word "May" in lieu thereof; so that hereafter the sale of lands for unpaid taxes, now required to be made in April, shall be made on the second Tuesday in May next thereafter, and the next succeeding days, and advertised in accordance therewith.

Time changed from April to May.
